INCREASE FREIGHTS.

Two Cent Fare Acts Force Rise.

So Say More Than Hundred Railways to Interstate Commission.

Object Is to Test Constitutionality of Recent State Legislation.

Grain, Coal and Iron Rates Are Enhanced to Make Up Lost Revenues.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, March 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] In retaliation for the action of State Legislatures in providing 2-cent fares and the public agitation against them, more than 100 railroads of the West and Middle West have served notice on the Interstate Commerce Commission of an increase of freight rates on grain, coal and iron. This will result in a test of the constitutionality of the rate regulation law.

The Interstate Commerce Commission is obliged to keep the rates as low as possible and the roads will endeavor to show that they are now unable to carry the commodities named at a profit under the rate which has been in effect for the past two years and that an increase is necessary. Formal notice was served on the Interstate Commerce Commission today by all the trunk lines out of Chicago that the rate on grain from Chicago to New York will be increased after April 1 from 17½ cents a hundred to 19½ cents per hundredweight.

CHANGES RATE TENDENCY.

Coal mine operators and shippers in Illinois have been before the commission for two days past, protesting against an increase in rate on coal and the same is true of iron. For four years previous to 1904 the railroads of the country participated generally in an increase of rates. There was no tendency to decrease during the two years from 1904 to 1906, and since the present law became effective the tendency has been to reduce rates rather than to increase them.

One of the causes alleged by the railroads for an increase of rates is that they find it difficult on account of the public agitation against them to borrow money with which to make betterments, and that they can get this money only at high rates; that the added cost of money, together with the increased cost of labor and material and men, increase of operating expenses, leave nothing to be done but to increase the freight rate.

IGNORE REVENUE SOURCES.

In the representations so far made to the commission not a single road has taken into consideration the increase in its revenues because of the cutting off of rebates and free transportation—a most important item, according to the railroad president who appeared before the Interstate Commerce Commission of the Senate and House. E. H. Harriman, during his recent visit to Washington, in explaining the increased cost of borrowing money, said it was due entirely to the public agitation against the railroads which had so frightened the money lenders that they demanded 25 to 30 per cent. more than ever before. The determination of the railroads to increase rates all along the line to make up for the deficiencies in revenue caused by the action of State Legislatures in establishing 2-cent fares has been apparent to the Interstate Commerce Commission for several weeks. When the rates are increased by the roads the test of validity of the new rate regulation law will come. The Interstate Commerce Commission will then be compelled to decide what a "just and reasonable" rate is.

TO TEST CONSTITUTIONALITY.

Members of the commission believe that any decision made lowering the rates fixed by the railroads will be immediately taken into the courts to test the constitutionality of the act. Already the commission is planning to get quick action by the United States Supreme Court, should the roads desire to test the law.

The Department of Justice will ask that the hearings be advanced so that a decision can be had at the very earliest moment. Within the short time that the new rate law has been in effect the railroads of the country have made more than 10,000 applications for permission to change rates within five days as required under the law. Whenever the proposed change was in the nature of a reduction in the existing rates the request was granted. Now that the commission has been formally notified that applications to increase rates are to be made preparations are being made to resist them.

URGES AGAINST JAP EXCLUSION.

SEATTLE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE WANTS TRADE.

Says That Proposed Immigration Treaty Would Be Injurious to Commercial Relations Between Countries, and Adopts Resolutions Which Will Go to President.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SEATTLE, March 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Seattle Chamber of Commerce today adopted resolutions protesting against the signing of a new treaty with Japan that would place immigrants from that country upon any basis different from Europeans.

The Chamber of Commerce insists that the proposed immigration treaty would be injurious to the trade relations existing between the two countries and would practically close Japan, Korea and Manchuria to American capital.

The administration of the proposed treaty by the Bureau of Immigration is declared to be dangerous. The Chamber of Commerce insists that sentiment on the Coast opposes the change and will send the resolutions to the President and Secretary of State.

HAYES FAVORS TREATY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN JOSE, March 20.—Congressman E. A. Hayes, who returned to his home last evening from Washington, speaks in a very vigorous manner on the Japanese question.

"There has been of late," said he, "a very remarkable revulsion of feeling on the subject of Japanese exclusion among the people of the East. Regardless of what may have been said, the President is wholly with the people of California in this matter and will lend every assistance in securing from the next session of Congress whatever we want in exclusion legislation.

"I am in hope that the President will be able to negotiate a treaty during the present summer by which we may secure valuable concessions from Japan. The recent executive order to not complete success in barring laborers but it will accomplish much. The Exclusion Bill will undoubtedly pass the next session by an overwhelming majority."

BROTHER AND SISTER WED.

Parents Invite Guests to Marriage of "Their Children" Who Are Step-Relatives.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PORTLAND (Me.) March 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] There was a novel and unusual wedding at the Synagogue on Newberry street last night when Percival Albling and Fanny Albling Butkin, brother and sister, became man and wife. The groom is the son of Louis Albling by his first wife and the bride a daughter of Mrs. Louis Albling by her first husband. Thus the invitations sent out for the affair read;

"Mr. and Mrs. Louis Albling request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their children."

The marriage was the culmination of a romantic courtship, the young people becoming personally acquainted with each other only after the marriage of their parents some time ago and although thrown together as brother and sister, soon showed a different affection for one another.

ANGELENO WEDS.

Hector Bouttier Marries New Orleans Girl—Couple Will Make Home Here.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BAY ST. LOUIS (Miss.) March 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Hector Bouttier of Los Angeles and Miss Lily Urania Bernadas of New Orleans were married today at noon at the Church of Our Lady of the Gulf, Rev. Father Prendergast officiating.

Fernanda L. Bernadas assisted as best man and Miss Bertha Capo as maid of honor. After a bridal trip Bouttier and his wife will locate in Los Angeles.

NURSE GOES INSANE.

UTICA (N. Y.) March 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Frank P. Leonard of Los Angeles, a Red Cross nurse, while traveling from Jersey City westward on a New York Central train last night, suddenly became a raving maniac, and today was committed to the New York State Hospital at Utica as incurable. Nearing this city, Leonard attempted to throw his wife, herself a nurse, through a car window.

TOLEDO'S UTILITIES PLAN GREAT MERGER.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

TOLEDO, (O.) March 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] According to information from reliable sources a gigantic merger which has been rumored for some months is about to be consummated, whereby the Northwestern Ohio Natural Gas Company, a Standard Oil subsidiary, will absorb the Toledo Gas, Electric and Heating Company, known as the gas merger and possibly the Toledo Railways and Light Company. After the merger of the three electric light plants and the heating plant some months ago, a well-defined rumor gained circulation that back of this merger was the Northwestern. The publication of this story quieted things down for a time, but now the statement is made almost unchallenged. The city ordinances under which the Northwestern and the gas merger hold their special privileges have been carefully examined by experts as have the affairs or a part of the affairs of the corporations. It is a known fact that Charles P. Taft, the Cincinnati gas magnate has recently become interested in Toledo and also known that the Standard Oil is investing heavily in gas properties in this and adjoining States. New York capital as represented by the holders of traction stock in this territory, and St. Louis capital as represented by the Commonwealth Trust Company, are said to be interested with the Standard in this proposed merger. None of the officers will talk, but the action of the stock market indicates much.

RUEF IS INDICTED ON SIXTY-FIVE CHARGES.

Bay City Grand Jury Also Returns Ten Indictments Against Halsey.

Startling Figures Given Show Vast Sums Alleged to Have Been Paid to Supervisors, Through Defendants, by Gas, Telephone and Prize Fight Organizations—High Bail Fixed by Court.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, March 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Sixty-five indictments were presented late this afternoon by the grand jury against Abraham Ruef for bribery, in connection with the granting of the United Railroads, gas company and Home Telephone franchises, and the prize fight permits, with ten other indictments against T. V. Halsey, in connection with the Pacific States Telephone Company franchise.

Of the sixty-five indictments against Ruef, seventeen were concerned with the United Railroads, seventeen with the San Francisco Gas and Electric Company, thirteen with the Home Telephone Company and eighteen with the prize fight permits.

The indictments were brought into Judge Coffey's court by the foreman of the grand jury at 5:20 o'clock. They filed a large dress suit case.

Only the grand jury members and the newspaper men were present. After the foreman had pulled out about a half-bushel of documents and read over the titles of the separate batches of indictments, Judge Coffey, with grim humor, said: "Is that all?"

Then the judge asked if any of the grand jurymen wished to have the commission to go to the Philippines and bring Halsey back. There was no response, except a broad smile around the courtroom.

BAIL IS FIXED.

The judge then asked the District Attorney what he thought was a fitting bail. Dist.-Atty. Langdon said $5000 cash bail on each indictment, and $10,000 in bonds.

The judge agreed that this was fair, but, he said, with the $100,000 which Ruef had already put up as bail bonds, this would represent $750,000.

"Well," said Langdon, "that ought to hold him."

The court then adjourned.

The indictments in connection with the United Railroads are numbered from one to seventeen, and each specifies that payment of the amounts given were made by Ruef to each of the Supervisors for their vote for the franchise, which granted the United Railroads permission to electrize their lines by the use of the overhead-trolley system, which had been strongly opposed by popular opinion before the fire.

LIST OF ACCUSED.

The following are the names of the seventeen men and the amounts alleged to have been accepted in bribes:

Nicholas, $4000; Phillips, $4000; Sanderson, $4000; Walsh, $4000; Wilson, $10,000; McGushin, $4000; Mamlock, $4000; Lonergan, $4000; Kelley, $4000; Harrigan, $4000; Gallagher, $15,000; Furey, $4000; Duffey, $4000; Davis, $4000; Coleman, $4000; Coffey, $4000; Boxton, $4000.

GAS BRIBERIES.

The payments for the San Francisco gas and electric franchises were $750 to each of the following Supervisors; Boxton, Lonergan, Walsh, Mamlock, Phillips, Nicholas, Harrigan, Kelley, Coffey, Wilson, Gallagher, Duffey, Coleman, Rea, Davis, Sanderson, Furey.

TELEPHONE FRANCHISE.

In connection with the franchise to the Home Telephone Company, Ruef is charged with giving the following amounts to the Supervisors as named to secure their vote for the franchise: Lonergan, $3500; Harrigan, $6000; Davis, $6000; Duffey, $6000; Wilson, $3500; Phillips, $3500; Coleman, $3500; Gallagher, $10,000; Mamlock, $3500; Nicholas, $3500; Kelley, $6000; Coffey, $3500; Furey, $3500.

Ruef is indicted on the following eighteen counts in connection with the "fight trust" for payments of $500 to each of the following Supervisors for their votes to grant permits for prize fights to the "fight trust" (composed of Willie Britt, James W. Coffroth, Eddie Graney and Morris Levy) viz.: Boxton, Lonergan, Walsh, Mamlock, Phillips, Nicholas, Harrigan, Kelley, McGushin, Coffey, Wilson, Gallagher, Duffey, Coleman, Rea, Davis, Sanderson and Furey.

The indictments against T. V. Halsey, who last April was manager of the Pacific States Telephone Company, specify that Halsey paid $5000 to each of the following ten Supervisors to secure their vote for a franchise to his company, these payments being made without the intermediary of Ruef, who afterward forced the Supervisors to vote for the Home Telephone Company, thus giving the Pacific States company the double cross. The following are the indictments for $5000 each: Nicholas, Coleman, Coffey, Wilson, Furey, Boxton, Walsh, Lonergan, Phillips and Mamlock.

Superior Judge Coffey finally fixed the bail in each case at $5000 in cash or twice that amount in bonds. With cash bail, Ruef will have to put up $325,000 cash to go free, although the judge intimated that he would be willing to accept a fair amount of bail, say $100,000, for the whole lot of indictments.

BIG STICK FOR BOSS.

It is apparent from the fact that Ruef was the only one indicted, aside from Halsey, who now is in Manila, that the prosecution hopes to use this enormous mass of indictments as a club over the head of Ruef.

Their purpose, as secured from a good authority, is to force a confession from Ruef, offering him certain immunities for this compliance.

Those who have talked with Ruef believe he will accept any terms which will soften the prosecution, as the wholesale confessions of the Supervisors have cut the ground from under the erstwhile boss. However, the prosecution is mainly concerned to secure the indictment of the heads of the United Railroads, the gas and telephone companies, but to do this they must be able to prove that the bribe money was passed from the corporations to Ruef.

Unless Ruef confesses, this will be an extremely difficult thing to establish. The prosecution also desires to have the way made clear for the annulment of the franchise of the United Railroads, which will be the next step on the programme after the conviction.

It is this annulment which is especially desired by Rudolph Spreckels, who put up $100,000 for this prosecution.

Spreckels was an applicant for an underground electric-car franchise and would probably have secured it had it not been for the opposition of the United Railroads.

IMMUNITY PROMISED.

The remarkable statement was made tonight by one close to the prosecution that not one of the boodling Supervisors would be indicted.

This informant said that the Supervisors had been represened by legal counsel, and that they had made their statements only after distinct offers of immunity had been made by the prosecution. This immunity offer, made in legal form, stops all indictment and prosecution.

To add to this leniency it is declared that the prosecution will make no attempt to oust Mayor Schmitz or the Supervisors from office. In fact, the whole force of the prosecution will be directed against Ruef, in order to force the indictment of the heads of the big corporations who are accused of giving the bribes.

It is understood that Patrick Calhoun, president of the United Railroads, and E. S. Pillsbury, who acted for the Pacific States Telephone Company, are the chief men whom the prosecution desires to indict.

What the effect on public opinion would be of those steps it is impossible to say, but it is safe to declare that there will be a big revulsion of public sentiment and that effort to retain the Mayor and Supervisors in power, and to shift the power of "boss" from Ruef to some other man will call out protests that will alarm those who have made this programme.

SHAKES HIGH SOCIETY.

In a statement issued tonight, Dist.-Atty. Langdon furnishes some startling facts concerning the prosecution of the municipal grafters. According to this statement it will take two years to complete the investigation into municipal graft and to try all the bribe takers and bribe givers who will be indicted. It is stated that the ramifications of the graft scandal are much more extensive than the public has any idea of, and that when all is disclosed many prominent citizens of this city who now occupy the highest social and business positions will be revealed as the objects of much pity, sent to the penitentiary and driven out of respectable society.

It is also announced that the principal efforts of the prosecution will be directed toward securing the conviction of the more important bribe givers, and when these men finally are caught in the net of justice, the whole social and political fabric of the State will be overturned.

In order to meet the increased expenses of the District Attorney's office incident to the prosecution of the grafters, a special appropriation will be asked of the Board of Supervisors and, if necessary, of the State of California.

The District Attorney says that it will probably be necessary for the prosecution to grant immunity to a number of the minor offenders in return for their assistance. It is understood that all the Supervisors who have confessed to bribe-taking will be granted immunity, not only from prosecution, but will not even be indicted; and meantime they will continue to exercise the functions of their official positions.

The District Attorney's statement follows:

INVOLVES MEN OF STANDING.

"The results achieved by the prosecution, as shown by the indictments returned this afternoon, make it plain that the charges against the prosecution, to the effect that it was undertaken for political effect and private revenge, are ill founded. Had there been any political or private motive behind us it would have been impossible to have accomplished what we did with the Supervisors.

"The public has but little idea of how widely the ramifications of municipal graft in this city extend. I can say that with the indictments returned this afternoon we have only made a beginning of the vast work that lies before us. It is my opinion that the man who tempts a public official with a bribe is a far more criminal and dangerous to society than the man who takes the bribe, and every bribe-giver of which the prosecution has any knowledge shall be brought to the bar of justice and punished for his crimes, if there is any law in the land to do it. Information already in our possession shows us that the graft scandal involves a much greater number of people than the public has any idea of. The tentacles of the graft octopus extend in all directions, and it is impossible for us to forecast where the investigation will end. Men of the highest social and business standing in this community, whose nose as pillars

DAY'S STRIKING FACTS

THE San Francisco grand jury last night returned seventy-five indictments charging bribery. Of these, sixty-five were against Abraham Ruef and ten against T. V. Halsey, former general agent of the Pacific States Telephone Company. Halsey is now in Manila installing a telephone service.

Of the sixty-five indictments returned against Ruef, seventeen were in connection with the United Railroads, seventeen in connection with the San Francisco Gas and Electric Company, thirteen in connection with the Home Telephone Company, and eighteen had to do with the issuance of prize-fight permits.

Ten indictments against Halsey were in connection with the Pacific States Telephone Company franchise.

Bail in each case was fixed by Judge Coffey at $5000 cash, or $10,000 bonds. The judge intimated he would accept $100,000 cash bonds for the whole list of indictments.

It is believed the indictments are to be used as a weapon over Ruef to obtain a full confession.

PASS LAW THAT ALL MUST WED.

IOWA TOWN COUNCIL COMES TO AID OF CUPID.

Ordinance Provides That Males and Females Between the Ages of Twenty-five and Forty Years Must Marry or Pay Fine in Proportion to Severity of Offense.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

FORT DODGE (Iowa) March 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Every male and female between 25 and 40 years old must be married within sixty days or pay a fine of from $10 to $100, according to the severity of the offense, is the provision of a city ordinance passed here today.

The Council's action has created a sensation. It was recommended by Mayor S. J. Bennett in a special message, but it was never dreamed that the Council would take the Mayor's communication seriously until the ordinance was passed to its third reading this morning.

Speaking of the matter, Mayor Bennett said:

"If there are any who would like to escape the penalty provided by the ordinance, I will be at my office at all hours, ready and willing to perform the marriage ceremony, free of charge, or I will answer telephone calls from my residence. The ordinance is in the interest not only of good morals, but of a sound public policy."

ABSENT OWNERS CAUSE TROUBLE.

ROUMANIAN PREMIER ASKS FOR JUSTICE BY LANDLORDS.

Farmers' Trusts Are Accused of Grinding Peasants and Thus Arousing Anti-Semitic Hatred—Severe Legal Measures Are Threatened Against Offenders.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

BUCHAREST (Roumania) March 20.—The long-standing agrarian grievances of the peasants of Roumania against the absentee land owners, which are largely responsible for the recent anti-Semitic excesses, formed the foundation of an interpellation by the opposition leader in the Chamber of Deputies yesterday. Premier Cantacusene, replying in behalf of the government, appealed to all the political parties to assist in effecting a just solution of the difficulty. The government, he added, was ready to "take severe legal measures against the farmers' trusts, which monopolized to an enormous extent the land, grinding the peasants until they were reduced to desperation."

The first duty of the government, the Premier pointed out, was to stop the excesses, and this the government proposed to do by all the means in its power.

The declaration of the Premier was warmly received by all the political parties and was ordered placarded throughout the country.

DAWSON CLOSES DANCE HALLS.

Orders from Ottawa Prohibit Women Where Spirits Are Sold—Cargo Turns Back.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SEATTLE, March 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Dawson, the metropolis of the Klondike, has reformed. A Skagway special today says:

"Dance-hall women who came North on the Dolphin to work in the saloons and dance halls of McDonald & Nelson at Dawson, turned back from the place, sailing on the Princess May last night. While here Nelson received word that the dance halls of Dawson had been closed by Maj. Wood pursuant to an order from Ottawa. Women will not be permitted about the premises where liquor is sold at Dawson. Young women who have been living over the saloons and dance halls will also have to seek other quarters."

TORRENTS POUR IN.

Levees Burst, Farms Disappear.

Water Rises Above Railway Embankment and Floods Many Ranches.

Sacramento River Goes on Rampage and Inundates Washington.

Washouts to North, South and West Cause Tie-up of Coast Roads.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SACRAMENTO, March 20.—Torrents of water are pouring through an immense break in the Kripp levee, through and around the town of Washington, across the Sacramento River from here. Two long breaks have opened in the Southern Pacific embankment and the water is pouring over its top and into the northern part of the town.

As the water continued to pour through the break the Todhunter, Bryte, Bell and other ranches began to disappear. These are all located to the north and west of the town. The Kripp, Caffaro, Reed and Atkinson ranches, south of the railroad tracks, are several feet deep in water, being nearer the break in the main levee.

Sacramento is still high, dry and safe, and there is no probability that it will be otherwise. Much fear was expressed this afternoon that the big new Lovedale reclamation district, completed only last year, would be inundated during the night.

Never before has the Southern Pacific's Coast lines been so thoroughly demoralized as at the present time, with washouts to the north, washouts to the south, washouts to the west and the line to the east just shaken thoroughly crippled with an embargo to handle three-days' business in one and many wires down in all directions, the system is little less than paralyzed.

The breaks in the embankment to the west of Washington are perhaps the worst difficulty with which the railroad has to contend; water is now pouring through two great gaps in the tracks and over the embankment intervening.

The first gap in the railroad going west, just beyond Washington, is about 150 feet wide, while the other, a half mile nearer Mikon, the first station west of Washington, is about 400 feet across. Between, the water was running six inches deep over the tracks with a roar like that of a mighty cataract. Another break is feared, further on, at what is known as the wreck trestle, now filled in with earth. If the embankment goes out here it means the almost certain inundation of the big Lovedale district.

As soon as any work can be effected, two pile drivers will be set to work filling in the gaps with trestle. It is said by those in charge of the work, however, that if work could begin on the piling within the next twelve hours, that trains could not be run again for four days, and that there is little probability that any traffic will go through inside of a week.

To the south, conditions are much the same as between Washington and Mikon. At McConnell's Station, the Consumnes River has broken its banks and washed out a considerable stretch of track. The latest reports from that direction are to the effect that the washouts are much worse than had been reported here and that no trains may be expected to go through Stockton for a week. The track is unsafe all the way from McConnells to Stockton.

It is stated at railroad headquarters that it is not probable that any trains will go through the Siskiyous for several days. The Portland line is open all the way from San Francisco to Red Bluff.

Woodland, Marysville, Oroville and Chico are entirely cut off from Sacramento, so far as railway facilities are concerned, and Southern Pacific officials will hazard no guesses as to when these lines will be open. A local train was sent out on the Marysville branch today as far as Wheatland, but no travel will be afforded further for several days at best.

The Placerville line is also open again and trains were running today.

The main line east was cleared early this morning when the washout at Floriston had been repaired, and at 10 o'clock the first of the belated overland trains arrived here.

A dozen stranded passenger trains are in the local yards. Fourteen carloads of mail destined to San Francisco is here, but the matter will not likely reach the addressees for a week or more.

ELIOT CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY.

BOSTON, March 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] With more than half his life spent as president of Harvard University and classed as one of the foremost educators, Charles William Eliot celebrated his seventy-third birthday today. The event did not pass unrecognized by the body of students at the university, although President Eliot and his wife were not on hand to receive the congratulations and greetings of their friends and students of the college. Both are en route for Bermuda on a short vacation.

IMPASSIONED PLEA IN COURT.

Jerome Asks Judge to Probe Thaw's Mentality.

Counsel for Defense Bitterly Is Criticised.

Dr. Hamilton Recalled to Express Opinions.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.]

NEW YORK, March 20.—Dist.-Atty. Jerome today made the move which has been a menace to the defense in the trial of Harry K. Thaw ever since the hearing of his case was begun, by asking Justice Fitzgerald to hear evidence as to the appointment of a commission in lunacy to determine the present state of the defendant's mind.

The trial was immediately halted, the jury was excused until Friday morning, and Justice Fitzgerald adjourned court until tomorrow afternoon, when he will receive affidavits from opposing counsel and determine whether a lunacy commission shall be appointed.

Justice Fitzgerald called for every bit of available information and announced he wished to appoint no one who had been consulted in the case by either side. He therefore requested counsel to submit to him a list of all alienists connected with the proceedings.

Thaw, who had appeared pale and tired when the day's session began, turned crimson during the exciting scenes which attended the adjournment of court on Jerome's motion for the lunacy commission. He bit his nails, fidgeted about in his chair and finally assumed an attitude of despondency.

Justice Fitzgerald's radical action, changing the entire aspect of the trial, was precipitated by the introduction of Dr. Allen McLane Hamilton as a witness for the defense.

Dist.-Atty. Jerome said he would not object to Dr. Hamilton testifying, provided the defense would consent that he should tell all he knew of the case. Delmas sought to have the doctor's testimony limited to the four visits he had paid to Thaw. Then came the storm.

ATTORNEYS CLASH.

Atty. Delmas accused Jerome of wanting to exclude important testimony. Jerome replied that the defense had prevented testimony going before the court which would result in an abandonment of the trial in favor of a commission in lunacy.

Justice Fitzgerald ordered the jury to retire and Jerome then delivered an address, in which he declared Thaw incapable of advising his counsel. He declared the State's experts also were of that opinion, but that in testifying they had been bound down to a hypothetical question based on insufficient evidence.

Jerome declared there was evidence in his own hands and in the hands of counsel for the defense which would convince the court that the trial should proceed no further.

Delmas made a fight against the District Attorney's move, but the matter was soon taken out of his hands by John B. Gleason, who demanded that Dr. Hamilton's testimony be immediately taken as to whether he believed Thaw incapable of advising counsel.

Justice Fitzgerald allowed Gleason to put the question.

"I believe," said Dr. Hamilton, "that he is incapable of advising counsel."

This seemed to impress Justice Fitzgerald.

"My conscience has been appealed to in this matter," said the justice, "and upon the statement made by the District Attorney I cannot allow the trial to proceed without first hearing all the evidence that may be in the possession of either side. The jury will be excused until Friday morning."

If Justice Fitzgerald decides in favor of a commission it means that the trial will be suspended until the commission reports.

If the commission decides that Thaw is now insane, the trial, of course, will be abandoned and the defendant will be committed to an asylum.

Jerome was manifestly pleased with the new turn of affairs. Thaw's counsel also professed to be pleased, declaring Jerome's move was an acknowledgment that he was defeated.

"It's very fortunate for the defense and a victory," said Hartridge.

LETTER IS WITHDRAWN.

The Thaw trial opened today with a decided surprise. Attorney Delmas for the defense withdrew the offer of the letter which he wanted put in evidence yesterday noon, written by Harry Thaw to J. Denniston Lyon, a banker of Pittsburgh.

Following this, Delmas turned to the clerk and said:

"Call Dr. Allan McLane Hamilton."

Dr. Hamilton is the alienist who has been under subpoena both by the defense and the prosecution at various stages of the trial. Dr. Hamilton has stated his belief that not only was Thaw insane when he shot White, but that he has remained so. He does not appear as an employé of either side, has publicly declared so, and has held himself ready to take the stand at any time and give impartially the results of the examinations he made of the defendant shortly after the tragedy.

Dr. Hamilton said that with other alienists he had seen Thaw soon after his incarceration.

"Was there any medical or phsical examination at that time?" asked Delmas.

"There was a medical examination so far as it went," replied Dr. Hamilton.

"What was that examination?"

Jerome objected. "This is a reopening of the whole case," he argued. "Dr. Hamilton's evidence has no place here. It belongs in the case in chief, and not in rebuttal.

"The District Attorney," replied Delmas, "has on several occasions called Your Honor's attention to the fact that he is a quasi-judicial officer. He has no right to come in here now and attempt to shut out the truth—"

"That is not so," broke in Jerome. "If the objection is made on that ground, I will withdraw my objection. I am willing to reopen the case and let all the truth come out on cross-examination. But if it is the purpose to bring out only part of the truth, I certainly shall object."

"I have no stipulations to make with the District Attorney," said Delmas.

"Then it is you who do not want the truth to come out," said Jerome.

Delmas then went on to argue that the District Attorney had himself subpoenaed Dr. Hamilton and insisted that Jerome had promised to call Dr. Hamilton and had failed to do so.

WOULD PROVE INSANITY.

"We purpose to prove by this impartial witness that when this alleged crime was committed this defendant was insane and could not know the nature of quality of his act, or that the act was wrong," said Delmas.

"I offered to waive all obection to Dr. Hamilton's testimony so long as he was allowed to tell all," said Jerome. "The learned counsel from the Pacific Slope offered to throw open the doors at the beginning of the trial, but when I put the photographer upon the stand to fix dates by which I could prove an alibi for Stanford White, the doors were shut tightly."

Delmas repeated his arguments and, after he had finished, Justice Fitzgerald said: "This is not a discretionary matter. On the records in the case I must rule according to the law. The objection is sustained."

Delmas said that as Justice Fitzgerald had ruled only on one question put to the witness, he would proceed to ask others.

"How many visits did you make to the defendant, Doctor?" asked Delmas.

Dr. Hamilton said he had visited Thaw four times.

"As a result of these visits, were you of the opinion that Thaw at that time was insane?"

Jerome was sustained in his objection.

Delmas then asked:

"Did you form any opinion?"

"Yes."

"State what the opinion was."

Jerome's objection was sustained.

Justice Fitzgerald said if he allowed Dr. Hamilton to testify at this stage of the case it might entail the examination of all the experts for a month to come.

RECESS IS GRANTED.

Delmas asked for a fifteen-minute recess for a consultation of counsel. This was allowed.

Dr. Hamilton resumed the stand after the recess and Delmas asked and received permission to read to Dr. Hamilton the indictment against Thaw. It was read in an undertone.

"In your opinion," asked Delmas, "in view of the knowledge you acquired as to the mental condition of Thaw from the four visits you made to him, did he know that the act set forth in the indictment was wrong?"

Jerome's objection was sustained.

Delmas repeated the question in various forms. He was met each time with an objection from the District Attorney, which Justice Fitzgerald invariably sustained.

He then announced that as the result of the consultation of counsel that he was ready to accept Jerome's offer for Dr. Hamilton to tell all he knew about the case of Harry Thaw.

"If counsel wishes to conduct a full inquiry, including the hypothetical question, I will not offer an objection," said Jerome.

Delmas said: "Now, Doctor, state all the facts that you learned or observed during your visits to the defendants."

To this Jerome added: "Include all you learned as to the family history on both sides while you are in the case."

Delmas then said that Dist.-Atty. Jerome had repeatedly stated in court that if he was honestly convinced that Thaw was insane when he killed White he would not take up the time of the court in trying him.

"We purpose now, by your witness," said Delmas, "to honestly convince you that Thaw was insane."

At this point Justice Fitzgerald said he thought the jury should retire. They did so, and Jerome began an impassioned address to the court in an effort to show what his offer to withdraw his objections and to allow Dr. Hamilton to testify was based on.

THAW MUCH WORRIED.

Thaw, dejected, pale and dispirited, sat at his counsel's table. He flushed crimson as one by one his attorneys left him to rally to the support of Delmas, who, however, in the midst of the proceedings was superseded by Attorney John B. Gleeson.

Thaw bit his nails, opened and closed his hands nervously, and finally sank down in his chair in an attitude of utter dejection. In an adjoining room, where they could hear the excited and uplifted voices of counsel wrangling, stood Mrs. William Thaw, the mother, and Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, the wife, which latter had bared the secrets of her soul in the effort to save her husband from the electric chair and from the fate which he declares he dreads more—a madhouse.

HIGHEST BIDDER GETS DAUGHTER.

FATHER SELLS YOUNG GIRL FOR HUNDRED DOLLARS.

Pretty and Attractive, She Is Bargained Off as Wife to Man Three Times Her Age—Friends Ask Aid of Police and Are Advised That Annulment Is Only Remedy.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WORCESTER (Mass.) March 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Bargained away by her father for $100 to become the wife of a man three times her age, is the fate of Mabel Begosian, a pretty 14-year-old Armenian girl.

Last Saturday she became the bride of Isidore Shanhaidan, aged 46. Friends of the girl have reported the story of the wedding to the police and, if their statements are true, the girl was sold to the highest bidder.

Mabel left home a short time ago on account of a cruel stepmother. Later Shanhaidan arrived in Worcester and was attracted by her pretty face and well-developed figure. He opened negotiations with the girl's father, using Charlie Sarigien as a go-between.

The money bid and accepted is said to have been paid over last Friday. The following day, Shehaidan secured a marriage license, giving the girl's age as 18, and his own as 25. An Armenian priest married them Saturday.

The police say that the matter is out of their jurisdiction, and have advised friends of the girl that the only remedy is to secure annulment of the marriage. This, her friends say, they will at once attempt.

Dikran Thomajanian, a barber, who assisted Mabel soon after she was driven from home, is at the head of the movement to give her back her freedom.

Land Is Purchased for Government's Plant to Experiment on Black Diamonds.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

DENVER, March 20.—Dr. J. A. Holmes of the United States Geodetical Survey last night concluded negotiations for the land upon which the first government coal-testing plant will be constructed. The Chamber of Commerce of this city agrees to furnish the land and the plant will be constructed in this city. Work on the building will begin as soon as final arrangements are completed.

Congress has made an appropriation for carrying on this experimental work. A completely equipped chemical laboratory, with special apparatus for the treatment of coal and its by-products, will be built in connection with the testing plant.

James H. Sebree, proprietor of several down-town hotels, lost $4000 in the big poker game at the Hotel Magnet, which lasted through four consecutive days and nights, and during which time $100,000 passed hands. With Sebree were Mont Tennes, John Sullivan, known as Sully, and several other well-known plungers, of which John F. O'Malley is said to have been one. The money is said to have passed into the hands of Sullivan, who played in luck throughout the lengthy session. When publicity drove the gamesters from their quarters which were within a stone's throw of the Chicago avenue police station, Tennes vainly insisted upon seeking another room where the game might be played to a finish.

STEEL STRIKERS RIOT.

Rioting has commenced among the striking employés of the Republic Steel Company at East Chicago. Several men were injured today in clashes with the police who were trying to disperse gatherings. Tonight the men were parading the streets and open threats were made to wreck the plant if the officials persisted in their threat to close down indefinitely. The men are unorganized, and without real leaders. To add to their irresponsibility, the men are drinking and the police have their hands full in preserving order.

DENVER (Colo.) March 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Two rival society leaders quarreling in loud tones on the floor of a roller-skating rink, was a spectacle seen here tonight. Mrs. Genevieve Phipps, divorced wife of L. C. Phipps, the Pittsburgh millionaire, took a private party roller skating at Reddy Gallagher's rink and prize-fighting pavilion. Her rival wanted the floor at the same time for another party and the quarrel ensued.

GAS SUPPLY FAILS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CLEVELAND, (O.) March 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] With a crisp wintry wind blowing off of the lake, this city experienced a nearly total failure of the natural gas supply and there is considerable suffering as well as no little inconvenience among the 65,000 consumers. The gas shortage is due to a break today in the main pipe of the Natural Gas Company, at a point in the southern part of the State, and was caused by the floods in that section.

DENEEN WIELDS BIG STICK NOW.

PUBLISHES BILL TO CONTROL RAILWAY STOCKS.

It Proposes to Prevent Issue of Shares and Bonds Unless Approval of Illinois Warehouse Commission Is Had—Measure Is Supposedly Indorsed by President.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SPRINGFIELD (Ill.) March 20.—Exclusive Dispatch.] Gov. Deneen is wielding, by proxy, the big stick for President Roosevelt. He made public tonight a bill that he proposes to have introduced in the General Assembly which seeks to place under the control of the railroad and warehouse commission, the stock and bond issues of railroad companies.

Under the terms of the measure no stocks or bonds may be issued by a railroad company organized under the general laws of Illinois or under a special State charter unless consent is obtained from the railroad and warehouse commission and unless the purposes of the issue are specifically set forth.

That is to say, the bill is aimed at over-capitalization. The fact that it is to be introduced at this time is accepted as a disclosure of the subject matter of the conference last week in which President Roosevelt, Gov. Deneen and Atty.-Gen. Stead participated.

It was reported last week that the President of the United States called in the Illinois official to discuss the bond issue of $22,000,000, made by the Chicago and Alton Railroad Company for the purpose of constructing a line of railway between Springfield and Murrayville, known as the "Murrayville cut-off." The cut-off is a little more than thirty-four miles long, and it developed in the hearing before the Interstate Commerce Commission before which E. H. Harriman testified, that the cut-off had been mortgaged before the road was built.

Claim also was made that the entire proceeds of the bond issue never entered into the construction of the road. Atty.-Gen. Stead ordered a certified copy of Harriman's testimony before the commission, and it was common gossip here that he proposed to begin proceedings against the Alton road.

Any director or officer who fails to comply with the provisions of the act or makes false statements in the company's application at the hearing before the commission or otherwise is liable to a fine of $2000 or imprisonment in the County Jail for one year or both.

The Railroad and Warehouse Commission is given full power for the production of persons and papers and to examine under oath directors, officers, managers, agents and employés of railroad companies.

While this measure has been in preparation, the Legislature, at the request of the railroad companies, has consented to drop from a quick step to a slow walk in railroad legislation and to take up a discussion of all measures now pending with the proviso that the railroad side shall be presented by men of importance and not by attorneys who usually represent them at Springfield.

Arrangements have been made for a joint session of the railroad committees of the House and Senate for next Wednesday. The railroads are to produce their heavy artillery and the Legislature is prepared to listen to as many railroad presidents and high financiers as may wish to argue on legislative matters affecting the roads.

Pending these hearings all bills, including the 2-cent fare bill, which the House has passed, will be at a standstill and the Legislature having started out in haste will now proceed to consider at its leisure.

Thus far both houses have gone ahead in complete disregard for the feelings of the roads in the matter.

ROADS SUSPEND BUILDING.

PUBLIC OPINION STOPS WORK.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

CHICAGO, March 20.—How the State and national agitation against railroads is affecting the country from the standpoint of the railroad interests is set forth in detail in an article which will appear in the issue of the Railway Age, March 22. In part it is as follows:

The outlook for railway building in the United States is not as promising as it was a year ago. There is as large a mileage projected as there was in March, 1906, but the conditions are not as favorable.

"The country is as prosperous as it was twelve months ago and the demand for the construction of extensions into new territory and for increased railway facilities is as great but the campaign which has been so mercilessly waged against the railways has caused many of the large systems to adopt policies of retrenchment and the result is that much important work which had been planned for the present year has been indefinitely postponed.

"There is no market for railway securities except at prohibitive rates of interest and nearly all the loans that are being made are of a temporary nature, and to provide for urgent capital needs.

"A year ago over 13,000 miles of new railroad were contracted, nearly one-half of which was completed before the close of the year, a larger mileage than has been built in any other single year since 1888.

"There is almost as large a mileage under contract today and while there will be great activity during 1907, in pushing to completion new lines on which the work of construction already is well advanced and financial arrangements for which have been made, the launching of new projects for which the capital must be provided in many instances, has been postponed until conditions improve."

DIES AT 61, NEVER LOVED.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PORTLAND, March 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Alonzo Brown, a native of Oregon and a resident of Silverton, who died yesterday, was, perhaps, the most unique resident of this State in his way. Although he was born in 1846 and lived all his life in a State where girls are noted for their rosy complexion, he never "sparked" a sweetheart in his life.

During his sixty-one years he never shaved, and his whiskers were long and silvery. Brown was born on his father's donation land claim at Silverton, where he lived until his death. He has resided with his sister since the death of his parents, some years ago.

By his own oft-repeated confession, he never felt the divine passion. It was his own statement, told with a touch of pride, that he never kept company with a lady.

Makes Important Decision.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 20.—Judge Hunt yesterday gave instructions to a jury in his court which may have important bearing upon the many suits now being brought against various insurance companies which failed to pay the amount of their risk on the ground that a clause in the policies provided that the policy would be void if the building fell wholly, or in part, as a result of an earthquake. Judge Hunt, in instructing the jury, held that the clause applied only when the falling of the part of the building affected rendered the building unfit for occupation or destroyed its usefulness.

BAKERSFIELD, March 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] C. C. Reynolds, J. Franklin and F. D. Some time ago a car of a through freight laden with valuable merchandise, was broken open. Investigation by Santa Fé detectives resulted in a web of evidence being wound around the three employés and their arrest followed.

SAYS HE CAN GET IMMUNITY.

Witness in Hermann Trial Tells of Puter's Aims.

Former Special Agent Recounts His One Graft.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, March 20.—Attorney Worthington today continued his effort for the defense in the Hermann trial to ascertain whether Dr. Clark Loomis of Oregon was influenced in the testimony he gave yesterday for the defendant by promises of immunity, or believes that he would receive immunity from the charges now pending against him.

The witness said he had never had a promise of immunity, "but I am satisfied I could obtain immunity," he said.

He was allowed to give the details of the negotiations between himself and S. A. Puter regarding immunity after the latter's conviction for land frauds in Oregon. During a single day Puter went six or seven times between the witness and government attorney, Heney, in Portland, Loomis said, to arrange this immunity. The efforts failed, the witness said, because the attorneys wanted Loomis to state to Puter what he knew before they would let him come before them.

Loomis said the gist of the matter was that he repeated over and over again to Puter that he did not know that he knew anything that the attorneys wanted, but was very anxious to make any arrangement possible for immunity. He said he did not know that Puter conferred with the government attorneys, but believed that he had.

Justice Stafford ended the inquiry when the witness began to state what Puter had told him as "not coming from the government attorneys."

In his long experience as special agent for the Land Office, in Oregon, Dr. Loomis said the money he took to report favorably upon the twelve Puter claims was the first and only time he had taken money for reporting on claims. He said he had not been influenced in this case by the money he had received. The claims in question were twelve homestead claims which Puter had obtained in the Cascade forest reserve.

"I never failed to give every entryman or any one in trouble all the chance to get out," the witness said. He added that he often made reports as special agent without going upon the land reported on.

GIRL ENDS LIFE.

HUSBAND HAD DESERTED.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

EL PASO, March 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] In a secluded spot in a local wood yard Mrs. Evella Bean committed suicide early this morning by drinking carbolic acid. She was the proprietor of a local manicuring parlor, and came here a few months ago from Los Angeles. She was 22 years old, and was said to have a husband in Mexico, from whom she had been separated for some time. Despondency is given as the cause of the act.

COWBOYS FIGHT.

DISPUTE DIVIDING LINE.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

EL PASO, March 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] James R. Fennimore is in the hospital at Alamo Gordo, N. M., fatally wounded, and O. M. Lee and four of his cowboys are fugitives from justice as the result of a pitched battle wrich took place yesterday evening on the dividing line between the two ranches.

A tract of land, lying between the two ranches of Fenimore and Lee, had long been in dispute. Yesterday Fennimore, accompanied by three of his cowboys, came upon Lee and four of his men fencing in the disputed land.

Without parley each side commenced firing, revolvers being used. Fennimore was probably fatally injured in the groin, and two others suffered minor wounds. Over fifty shots were fired.

DOWIE'S MANTLE GOES TO LEWIS.

FAITHFUL SEE HAND OF WRATH HEAVY ON VOLIVA.

Prophet's Choice Is Now in New Mexico and Followers Await His Triumphal Return to Lead Hosts Which Formally Held Allegiance to Founder of Zion.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, March 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Gen. John A. Lewis, deacon of the Christian Catholic Church, and for years the closest personal friend and adviser of John Alexander Dowie, has been named as the new leader of Zion in the will of the deceased first apostle. Gen. Lewis is now in Mexico and has been notified of his selection to take command of the Dowie forces and seek the overthrow of Wilbur Glenn Voliva, the present overseer, in the greatest religious struggle of the strenuous history of the Zion church.

The Dowieites are awaiting the triumphal return of Gen. Lewis to the religious colony before publicly announcing the choice of their dead leader.

When it became known today that Gen. Lewis had been chosen notwithstanding the great effort to keep this secret until the will is filed, a wave of enthusiasm spread through the followers of Dowie. They declared that with their new leader they will rout the forces of Voliva and the self-styled prophets and apostles of Zion and wrest control of the church from their enemies.

Reports that Voliva is in a serious condition and may be dying from an attack of quinsy, also spread through Zion City and were hailed by the Dowieites as the work of a divine "hand of wrath." Excited stories of a miracle by the dead leader to smite his enemies and to pave the way for the coming of his chosen successor, Gen. Lewis, were also told among the faithful.

WASHINGTON.

JAP EXCLUSION REGULATIONS.

Their Enforcement May Prove Difficult.

Secretary Straus Confident of Efficacy.

Rigid Rules Adopted for the Wily Nipponese.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

WASHINGTON, March 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The regulations providing for the exclusion of Japanese laborers coming from Hawaii, Mexico and Canada, on indirect passports, practically are completed, and may be promulgated tomorrow by Secretary Straus of the Department of Commerce and Labor.

Opinion is divided among some of the high officials as to the ability of the Bureau of Immigration to keep Japanese laborers out. Secretary Straus, who has had no experience with the wiles of Orientals, expresses complete confidence in the efficacy of the regulations.

Immigration officials, who have tried to cope with the Chinese for many years, are not so sanguine. Secretary Straus said tonight:

"I am giving these regulations my personal attention. I am making them as strong and rigid as possible, in order 'to carry into effect the President's order requiring the exclusion of all Japanese laborers, skilled and unskilled, attempting to enter this country on limited passports from Hawaii, Mexico and Canada.

"It is a perfectly simple matter to effect this exclusion, provided, of course, that the Japanese government exercises good faith by refusing direct or general passports to laborers. We have every reason to believe that Japan will observe entire good faith."

An official of the Immigration Bureau, whose name cannot be used, but who speaks with authority, said:

"We shall go ahead under the regulations and try to shut out Japanese laborers, skilled and unskilled. The Japanese are more cunning than the Chinese. I have my own opinion of how things will work, but that does not matter. We are here to execute the President's order, if possible. Japanese are likely to apply for admission on limited passports, claiming they are not laborers, and it may be difficult in many cases to establish the fact that they are laborers.

"They may be students when they leave Japan, and laborers the moment they can get a job here. It is possible that every Japanese coming from Hawaii, Mexico or Canada will be turned back on the assumption that he is a laborer, and if that rule is to be followed, exclusion will be easy. But if there is an intention to apply the rule less rigidly, giving every Japanese a chance to assert that he is not a laborer, the exclusion amendment may prove a practical failure."

WASHINGTON BRIEFS.

Philippine Bank Lures Britons.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—American capitalists have not taken kindly to the plan of an agricultural bank for the Philippines, and it now seems likely that the bank will be established with English capital. Ten per cent. is the maximum rate which the firm establishing the bank will be allowed to charge and no loan in excess of $5000 can be made to any one person.

Brice Visits Choate.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—Ambassador Bryce of Great Britain will go tomorrow to New York, where he will be the guest of Choate, former Ambassador to London. The President entertained the foreign Ambassador to luncheon this afternoon. Among the guests was Benjamin Daniels, Marshal of Arizona.

CRIME BRIEFS.

Druggist Is Wanted.

CHICAGO, March 20.—Accused of defrauding wholesale drug houses out of $30,000 worth of goods, William H. Bodemann is sought by the police. He conducted the Western Drug Company store at No. 262 West Van Buren street. The police have received many complaints by mail in which officials of wholesale drug concerns assert that they have been defrauded. Efforts to trace property sent the concern have failed but the police are working on the theory that the goods were reshipped to distant places immediately upon receipt. Little of value was found when the police called at the place.

Bank Teller Missing.

CHARLOTTE (N. C.) March 20.—Frank Jones, teller in the Charlotte National Bank, has been missing since last Saturday. An examination of his cash shows a shortage of $68,000.

Soeder Gets Reprieve.

SACRAMENTO, March 20.—Leon Soeder, who was to have been hanged at San Quentin Friday, has been reprieved one week by Gov. Gillett.

Women Killed by Mob.

STAMPS (Ark.) March 20.—Charged with having used a razor with probably fatal effects on Mrs. Lula Rheton, a white woman, and her daughter, and kicking her son, a small white child, about the road, two colored women were shot to death at McKamie near here last night by a mob. According to the statement of Mrs. Rheton she and her two children were attacked by the negro women while walking along the public road yesterday, she and her daughter receiving knife wounds which may prove fatal.

COLE BESTS BALDWIN.

Two-Handed Fighter Finds Little Difficulty in Conquering Opponent.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

INDIANAPOLIS (Ind.) March 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Freddie Cole of this city proved no match for Matty Baldwin of Boston tonight. Baldwin wielded a wonderful left and hammered Cole at will for the first six rounds. His stomach punches were effective from the start, but Cole rallied after the sixth and put up a good fight which, indeed, he had done from the start. The marked difference between the two was that Baldwin was a two-handed fighter, while Cole could handle but one. In the seventh he was plainly beaten and went to the mat, but recovered at the call of nine.

In the eighth he was groggy and particularly helpless, and was easily put out in the tenth. He proved game to the end, but the odds were against him.

RUEF MUCH INDICTED.

of the church and society, are implicated in this scandal, and in each case the prosecution will follow them to the end and expose them in their true light to the world.

GRUDGES IMMUNITY.

"One of the most formidable and difficult problems which the prosecution has to face is the question of granting immunity. It is within the discretion of the District Attorney to grant immunity from prosecution to people accused of crime if they render a service to the people, which is in the interest of justice. It is possible that immunity may be granted to some, but no man will escape because of political or social pull, and if any man does receive immunity it will be because he has given value received to the prosecution. However, I shall be very loth to grant immunity in any case.

"It is estimated that it will require fully two years to complete the graft investigation and try the graft cases in the courts. As District Attorney, I wish to state that I have not accepted one dollar as a contingent fee from any one for my work in the matter. It would have been impossible for us to have undertaken this investigation or to have carried it through to success had it not been for the generosity of Rudolph Spreckels. The services of Francis J. Heney and William J. Burns could not have been procured for the people but for the public spirit and liberality of Spreckels.

"I am going to ask a special appropriation from the Board of Supervisors to pay the increased expenses of the District Attorney's office resulting from the graft prosecution."

Dist.-Atty. Langdon also stated that several new graft scandals will be the subject of investigation by the grand jury.

SUSPECT RUEF'S INTENT TO FLEE.

GUARDS HAVE ORDERS TO SHOOT TO KILL IF ATTEMPTED.

Automobile Man and French Waiter Held Mysterious Conferences With Prisoner—Biggy Rents House for His Detention—Boss Makes Suspicious Requests.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

SAN FRANCISCO, March 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] For several days an agent of a local automobile company, who is known to be intimately connected with men who may later be indicted, has made frequent attempts to see Ruef. Today Ruef, under pretext of consulting with him about an automobile bill, saw him for a few minutes. Acting on suspicion, one of Biggy's men was detailed to shadow and keep him under surveillance.

Ellsor Biggy, while not saying that he fears an attempted rescue of his charge, has entered into negotiations with a trustworthy merchant, with the view of renting a house from him to serve as a jail for Ruef. Biggy realizes that Ruef's detention in the hotel is precarious, and a constant temptation to his prisoner's friends.

Yesterday Biggy received anonymous warning that an attaché of the hotel grill, who has been taking Ruef's orders from the menu, has been holding important conversations with the prisoner in French under the pretext of receiving his orders for meals. Another waiter was substituted, but the former has twice made attempts to see the prisoner.

Ruef has insisted that he be allowed to enter the lavatory of the hotel alone. In that room is a convenient skylight and with the assistance of certain employés about the hotel, should Ruef enter the room alone, the elisor believes the escape of Ruef would be comparatively easy. His request, however, has been denied. Various other requests by the prisoner regarding the disposition of his guards have also been ignored.

So seriously do the latest discoveries of the elisor appear that he and Burns were in consultation on the matter late tonight, and the removal of Ruef immediately was decided upon.

Biggy said tonight that any attempt to aid Ruef in escaping could only end one way—in the death of the prisoner. All his guards and himself are armed and he has given them orders to shoot to kill. In addition to this, the guards have been told to shoot Ruef first on any attempt at rescue, and take chances of themselves being shot by the would-be rescuers.

OTHER CHARGES NOT YET FILED.

ONE RUEF INDICTMENT KEPT A PROFOUND SECRET.

Four Others Against Halsey and Then Some, Returned by Grand Jury, but Burns and Heney Will Not Trust Them Even to Secret File—Amazing Story of Graft and Corruption Revealed.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

SAN FRANCISCO, March 20.—The long looked-for indictments in the municipal graft cases were returned tonight. Shortly before 6 o'clock the grand jury filed with presiding Judge Coffey of the Superior Court seventy-five indictments charging bribery, which were found on evidence presented to the grand jury after six months' probing into the municipal affairs of this city by Asst. Dist.-Atty. Francis J. Heney and Secret Service Agent William J. Burns, and which reveal an amazing story of alleged graft and corruption that surpasses the boodle cases of St. Louis, ranks with the Minneapolis expose, and is only eclipsed by the amount of money passed—but not in its ramifications and organization—by the famous "Tweed ring" of New York.

Of the indictments returned today, sixty-five are against Abraham Ruef, for years the political boss of San Francisco, charging him with bribing the Board of Supervisors to grant franchises to the United Railroads, the Home Telephone Company, the San Francisco Gas and Electric Company and the so-called "prize fight trust." Ten are against T. V. Halsey, former general agent of the Pacific State Telephone and Telegraph Company, who is charged with having bribed the Supervisors not to grant a franchise to the rival company.

One indictment against Ruef and four more against Halsey, which it is understood were also returned today, were not filed in open court. Several more indictments—the exact number, and against what persons Heney and Burns refuse to divulge until the accused parties have been arrested—were returned by the grand jury, but not filed, Heney and Burns not even trusting the secret file.

BRIBERY AND GRAFT.

Of the sixty-five counts of bribery against Ruef, seventeen are in connection with the granting of the overhead trolley franchise to the United Railroads immediately after the disaster of last April; seventeen are based upon the money alleged to have been spent by the gas company to secure an 85-cent gas rate as against a 75-cent rate; thirteen refer to the passage of money by the Home Telephone Company to obtain a franchise to ra bid of $25,000, and which it has been declared was worth at least $1,000,000, and eighteen indictments are based upon the alleged bribery of the Supervisors by Ruef to grant fight permits only to the so-called "fight trust" of this city, which is composed of Eddie Graney, Morris Levy, James Coffroth and Willis Britt.

The money in all these cases is alleged to have been handled by Ruef, who, according to Heney and Burns, was the agent and broker between the public service corporations and the Board of Supervisors, and a sort of general distributing agent for all who desired privileges from the Supervisors.

The indictments against Halsey charge the agent of the Pacific States Telephone and Telegraph Company with having bribed fourteen members of the Board of Supervisors to refuse the rival company a franchise.

Judge Coffey fixed the bail at $5000 cash or $10,000 in bonds on each indictment, or a total of $650,000 for Ruef, and $100,000 for Halsey. The latter is a brother-in-law of the late John I. Sabin, formerly president of the Pacific States Telephone and Telegraph Company, later at the head of the telephone system in Chicago, and a brother-in-law of Louis Glass, president of the Philippine Telephone Company.

Halsey has for some time been in Manila, installing the system in the islands. He has been under surveillance for several days, and extradition papers will be applied for as soon as he has been taken into custody. Orders have been cabled for his arrest.

SOME OF THE SPOILS.

In the overhead trolley deal, Ruef, according to Burns, was given $485,000 by the United Railroads, of which the political boss is alleged to have divided $91,000. Of this amount $4000 is said to have been given to each of fourteen Supervisors, two received $10,000 each and one $15,000.

In the restricting of boxing permits to the "big four" of the fight "trust," the indictments charge that $500 was given to each of eighteen Supervisors, or a total of $9000, although a fund of $20,000 was said to have been collected for Ruef.

In the alleged deal by which the gas company was given an 85-cent rate, $12,900, it is charged, was divided among sixteen of the Supervisors, in sums of $750 each, but the amount supposed to have been received by Gallagher is not known.

Besides the $25,000 bid for its franchise, Ruef is charged with having divided among thirteen of the city "fathers" the sum of $62,000, received from the Home Telephone Company for the granting of a franchise to install their system in this city.

In this connection it is noteworthy that fourteen of the Supervisors are alleged to have also taken $5000 each from Halsey to prevent the granting of the franchise to the Home Telephone Company, and it is upon these counts that fourteen indictments were returned against Halsey, only ten of which were filed today.

ATTORNEYS DISCUSS IT.

The Assistant District Attorneystated that today's indictments were "the beginning of the end of Ruef," and merely are beginning of the work of exposing the municipal corruption in San Francisco and the prosecution of those high up who are responsible for such conditions in this city.

Dist.-Atty. Langdon said immediately after the indictments had been filed:

"The remarkable organization of this grafting and corruption in the municipal affairs of San Francisco, its amazing ramifications, involving millionaires and the better class of citizens, will appall not only this city but the entire country when it is fully laid bare."

"This is merely the beginning," declared Secret Service Agent Burns. "The evidence in the indictments filed today, and others that have been returned, for the present to remain a secret, is absolutely conclusive and as perfect as the evidence in any case of investigation with which I have been connected.

CORRUPTION ASTOUNDING.

"The bribery, corruption and graft in the municipal government of San Francisco is simply astounding and almost unbelievable. It far surpasses the boodling cases in St. Louis and before we are through with it, will rank with the exposé of city officials in Minneapolis for downright venality and only be eclipsed by the Tweed ring in New York in the amount of money involved, but not in organization or ramification.

"Ruef acted as broker and agent between the corporations and the Board of Supervisors in all matters pertaining to the obtaining of privileges from the city fathers."

Burns denied that he had been ordered back to Washington as reported and declared that it might take an entire year yet to complete the work that he and Heney have undertaken here. He asserted that every department in the city government would be thoroughly investigated.

CONSTERNATION REIGNS.

Consternation seemed to reign in Ruef's camp today. Following a long conference with his attorneys this morning, Ruef decided that he preferred to remain in the custody of Elisor Biggy at the St. Francis Hotel, and his attorneys appeared before the Supreme Court, asking that the application for a writ making Sheriff O'Neill the custodian of the political boss be dismissed. This was granted.

Half an hour later his attorneys again appeared before the Supreme Court and sought to have their former action quashed and the application for a writ reinstated. The court took the matter under consideration until tomorrow.

The indictments returned today followed the clever and indefatigable work of Heney and Burns during the past week or ten days.

The entering wedge was driven when Supervisors Lonergan and Boxton are alleged to have been trapped several days ago by Heney and Burns in the act of taking a small bribe. Their confessions of all grafting with which they were connected was followed last Sunday by the confession of Sanderson to Heney at Palo Alto.

Sanderson, who was formerly a schoolmate of Heney's, went to Arizona several months ago and upon his return was met by Heney. When confronted by the latter with the evidence already in hand, Sanderson reluctantly admitted his part in the taking of bribes.

With the confessions of those three, supplemented by a mass of information obtained from other sources, the remainder of the Supervisors, except J. Furey, were summoned before the grand jury Monday.

When confronted by the confessions of their colleagues, it is said that they literally fell over each other to tell all they knew and thereby secure possible immunity from prosecution.

SUPERVISORS SWEATED.

The Supervisors were interrogated and sweated by Heney and Burns from 11 o'clock in the morning until after midnight, and made the most sensational disclosures of bribery and corruption.

It was largely upon this information that today's indictments and others, which it is said are to follow, were returned.

Furey was examined today, but George Duffy, formerly a Supervisor, but now president of the Board of Public Works, has not yet been called.

It is said that Duffy, who has heretofore been generally regarded as the one guiltless member of the board, is willing—in fact, anxious—to make a clean breast in order to obtain immunity. This privilege, however, has not yet been granted to him, and will depend, according to Heney, upon certain conditions that he also tell of the alleged corruption in the Board of Public Works, where astounding conditions are said to prevail.

While neither Heney nor Langdon will admit that the Supervisors were promised immunity from prosecution, if they confessed, it is practically certain that they will not be proceeded against.

In order to convict the bribe-givers, whom Heney and Burns declare are the actual criminals, it is apparent that no attempt will be made to prosecute the "small fry," if the latter will give such information as it may have.

Burns tonight refused to discuss the report that even Ruef had been promised partial immunity from the many charges against him if he would confess and thereby enable the prosecution to trace the bribe money—alleged to have been handled by Ruef—back to the officials of the public service corporations, in such a manner as to insure their conviction.

Burns, however, deplored the fact that such a report had been circulated, and spoke of how often the newspapers of this city had embarrassed, obstructed and retarded his work during this investigation. He vehemently denied, also, that negotiations had been entered into with Mayor Schmitz.

PROBING JUST BEGUN.

Although twenty-seven indictments have so far been returned in connection with the alleged telephone graft, Burns asserted that the probing of the alleged deal had but just begun.

The grand jury was in session for three hours this afternoon, during which time E. J. Zimmer, former auditor of the Pacific State Telephone and Telegraph Company, and Auditor Sherwin were under fire. Zimmer, upon coming from the grand jury room, admitted that he had been closely questioned about the accounts of the telephone company while he had charge of the books, and had also been interrogated about former General Agent Halsey.

At 5:30 o'clock the grand jury, accompanied by Heney, Burns and Langdon, went to Judge Coffey's court and filed the indictments, which were in duplicate, and filed a large suit case.

HENEY'S STATEMENT.

Asst. Dist.-Atty. Heney today made a statement to the Associated Press in explanation of the indictments. In this statement, the seeming discrepency in the number of indictments is accounted for by the fact that four against Halsey and one against Ruef—and possibly more—have not yet been filed.

Heney's statement follows:

"Of the sixty-six indictments charging Abe Ruef with bribery, eighteen are for the alleged bribing of the Board of Supervisors, in connection with the granting of fight permits to the so-called fight trust. Ruef is charged with having paid each one of the eighteen Supervisors $500, and one indictment was returned for each Supervisor alleged to have been bribed. Eighteen indictments were returned against Ruef for bribing the eighteen Supervisors to vote for 85-cent gas, instead of a 75-cent rate, it being charged that each one of the Supervisors was paid $750 by Ruef.

"Thirteen indictments were returned against him for the alleged bribing of thirteen Supervisors in connection with the granting of a franchise to the Home Telephone Company. The telephone company bid and paid to the city $25,000 for the franchise. In connection with the same matter fourteen indictments were returned against T. V. Halsey, former general agent of the Pacific States Telephone and Telegraph Company for the alleged bribing of fourteen Supervisors to vote against the granting of a franchise to the rival company."

According to Heney Halsey is charged with having paid thirteen Supervisors $5000 each, and to one, James L. Gallagher, $10,000. Halsey, it is said, agreed to pay each Supervisor $2500 additional if the franchise was not granted to the Home company.

Of the fourteen Supervisors who, it is charged, were bribed by Halsey, nine, Heney said, turned around and took money from the other company to vote for the franchises, two of whom returned a part of the money they received.

"The Home Telephone Company paid, besides the $25,000 bid for the franchise, a total of $62,000 to the Supervisors," said Heney, "all of which passed through the hands of Abe Ruef. Eight Supervisors, who, it is charged, were bribed by Halsey with $5000 each, also are alleged to have taken $2500 from Ruef to grant the franchise to the Home company."

Four Supervisors who, Heney stated, did not accept a bribe from the Pacific States Telephone and Telegraph Company to oppose the granting of the franchise to the rival company, are alleged to have taken a bribe of $6000 each from Ruef, of the money furnished the latter by the Home company. One, Supervisor Rea, according to Heney, did not accept any money in connection with the granting of a telephone franchise. Supervisor Gallagher, Heney declared, handled the money for the board in connection with Ruef, and is alleged to have received $10,000.

"Seven indictments charge Ruef with bribery in connection with the granting of the trolley franchise to the United Railroads immediately following the disaster last April, Supervisor Rea again not receiving any money in connection with the matter. Fifteen Supervisors accepted from Ruef $4000 each to vote for the trolley franchise, one former Supervisor, Wilson, now a State Railroad Commissioner, was paid $10,000 and Gallagher $15,000.

"All the Supervisors, with the exception of Duffy, now president of the Board of Public Works, have testified fully before the grand jury and confessed all their participation in the acceptance of bribes."

SCHMITZ IS REMANDED.

PART OF BAIL SET ASIDE.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

SAN FRANCISCO, March 20.—Mayor Schmitz appeared in the Supreme Court with Frank Drew, one of his attorneys, and made application to have the bail heretofore deposited by him on indictment No. 302, set aside. This was done and Schmitz was remanded into the custody of Deputy Sheriff Knox. Schmitz went to the Sheriff's office and deposited new bail of $5000 to secure his attendance in the Superior Court. The proceeding was a formal one and was made necessary by the fact that the Supreme Court had denied his application for a writ of habeas corpus.

Abraham Ruef is in conference with his attorneys at the St. Francis Hotel. Elisor Biggy said this morning that Ruef slept soundly throughout the night, thus giving partial confirmation to the rumor that Ruef has made to Detective Burns some statement that has greatly relieved his mind, for heretofore he has had sleepless nights ever since his incarceration at the hotel.

MAY BE HIGHWAYMEN.

Four Men and Two Women Arrested on Suspicion of Having Committed Recent Hold-ups.

Four men whom the police believe to be highway robbers, were arrested last night and booked at the Central Station as suspects. That the quartette are responsible for several of the recent hold-ups in Los Angeles is believed by the department. They may be responsible for similar crimes in San Francisco from which city they came about eight weeks ago.

H. G. Donnelly, H. Lynn, W. J. Harvey and Fred Modeno are thep risoners. Bessie Wilson and Dolly Corwin, women of the half-world who occupied rooms in the notorious Arlington, run by Tom Savage, on Commercial street, were also arrested in connection with the case.

A quantity of jewelry of minor value, several opium layouts, a number of automatic pistols, and a considerable quantity of money went over the desk sergeant's counter when the men were booked. Harvey and Monedo lived with the women. Harvey is an associate of Will Powers, who is known as a "steerer" of crooks. The two were arrested in an opium joint raid less than two weeks ago, and Harvey was warned to leave the city.

Donnelly and Lynn were taken together and Harvey and Modeno with their women, each pair being captured in a suite of rooms, one of which was on Main and the other on Spring street.

Today the police will investigate the prisoners and will ask victims of recent robberies to see whether they cannot identify them. Somewhat remarkable is the resemblance between Donnelly and Lynn and the pair of men who robbed the office of a laundry in the eastern part of the city two weeks ago. But the police will not say whether they are the men. Bessie Wilson and Dolly Corwin have no particular records, but it is stated by the police that one of the women has been the subject of complaints of theft which have come from the Arlington during the past two weeks.

READY TO PROBE OPIUM TRADE.

LONDON, March 20.—In the House of Commons today it was stated on behalf of the Foreign Office that the American government had signified willingness to participate in a joint international commission to investigate the opium traffic in East Asia, provided certain other powers were willing and if the inquiry was extended to the production of opium in China as well as to the import of foreign opium.

BEWARE OF "DIGESTIVES"

The Only Way to Cure Stomach Disorders is by Strengthening the Digestive Organs.

The ordinary pepsin tablet has ruined more stomachs than all other causes combined. While it gives temporary relief, it leaves the digestive system weaker than ever, and the tablets must be continued with increased frequency.

The only way to permanently cure stomach troubles is by strengthening the digestive organs with a Mi-o-na stomach tablet taken before meals. In this way the remedy prepares the stomach for the food and excites the secretion of gastric juices so that when the food is eaten, the stomach is prepared to digest it.

If Mi-o-na was a mere digestive it would be taken after eating, so as to mix it with the food, but then permanent relief would not be gained.

Mi-o-na stomach tablets are sold only in a neat metal box, convenient for the purse or vest pocket, and cost but 50c.

We absolutely agree that your money will be refunded should you buy a 50c box of Mi-o-na stomach tablets and not be satisfied with the results. Mi-o-na is sold by druggists everywhere, or will be sent by mail on receipt of price, 50c.

Write today for a free sample package, and also give us your symptoms, and one of the best known stomach specialists will give your case his careful and personal attention without charge. Booth's Mi-o-na Company, Buffalo, N. Y.

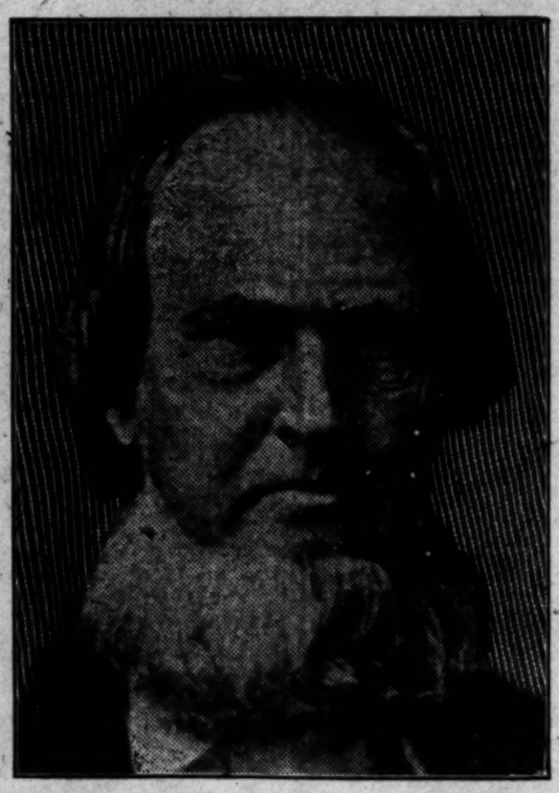
Throat and Lung Troubles Cured at 87



COL. R. C. HUTCHISON

Col. R. C. Hutchison, of Chattanooga, Tenn., amazed at his miraculous recovery after suffering for seven years from throat and lung troubles; praises DUFFY'S PURE MALT WHISKEY for his complete restoration to health, after all else had failed.

This well-known and popular soldier, who is spending the present winter in Corpus Christi, Texas, has been enrolled a member of the Century Club of the First Baptist Church, Portland, Oregon.

His friends in the South are complimenting him on the vigorous state of his health. This is due, he claims to the use of DUFFY'S PURE MALT WHISKEY.

"I can give an account of sickness dispelled and health restored which is little short of a miracle. For more than seven years I was subject to all manner of throat and lung troubles, and there was scarcely a day that I could leave my bed or reclining chair. My good old doctor, who has been a lifelong friend, recommended DUFFY'S PURE MALT WHISKEY when the remedies usually prescribed for laryngitis and bronchitis failed. As you may imagine, the diseased condition was chronic by this time. I took it and at once began to improve. In writing my application for membership in the Century Club of the First Baptist Church, Portland, Oregon, of which I am an honorary member, I said I was indebted to DUFFY'S PURE MALT WHISKEY for my improved state of health. I am now in my 87th year and have a good appetite, good digestion and a better use of my limbs than I formerly had, due to the use of DUFFY'S PURE MALT WHISKEY."—Colonel R. C. HUTCHISON, Chattanooga, Tenn., Nov. 22, 1906.

M'CAREY MAKES APRIL MATCH.

Mike Sullivan and Mellody Agree on Terms.

Another All-Star Card Will Be Staged First.

Burns May Not Be Here in Time to Referee.

Mike (Twin) Sullivan has come to terms with Manager McCarey and is scheduled to appear in a twenty-round bout with Honey Mellody, for the so-called welterweight championship, the second date in April.

Sullivan has been haggling over terms with McCarey, but a dispatch from Salt Lake City, where Mike is at this time, received here late last night, says that Sullivan has reached an agreement and will leave for Los Angeles soon, probably in time to second his brother, Jack, in the fight with Palmer.

Mellody is in Boston, and also has agreed to the terms offered. He will leave for the west in time to prepare for the battle.

Harry Lewis was to have been given the date with Sullivan, but has sent word to McCarey that he already is matched with Sullivan for a Denver date. As the statement seems to be for temporizing purposes, McCarey will let Lewis slide until he is free to accept a proposition.

The first April date will be given over to another all-star card. The success of the last show was so pronounced that a similar entertainment is being planned by McCarey.

BURNS BEHIND TIME.

Indications point to the probability that Tommy Burns will not be able to reach Los Angeles in time to referee the Palmer-Sullivan fight. The Milwaukee correspondent for The Times was asked, last night, to learn if Burns could get here by next Tuesday night. He telegraphed:

Tommy Burns is to be in Milwaukee Friday night for the Memsic-Neary battle and cannot get to Los Angeles in time for the Palmer-Sullivan fight.

With the present uncertain railway facilities it seems impossible to make connections. With normal conditions Burns could leave Milwaukee the same night of the fight, and get away from Chicago Saturday morning, but it is not believed he will hurry himself.

If Burns cannot get here, Tommy Walsh or Charley Eyton may be asked to officiate. Jack Grant said last night that he did not care to act. Frank Kelly is willing to referee in the preliminaries if asked to help out.

Considerable interest is taken in the Memsic-Neary fight in Milwaukee, tomorrow night. Memsic, or Jimmy Burns, as he is known here, is a favorite in Los Angeles, while Neary is liked in Milwaukee. Some believe that Burns is making a mistake in taking on Neary in his home town where, heretofore, it is charged, he always has had the best of it. But the fans admirers say that he has it over the Milwaukee boy no matter where they meet, and that the result of tomorrow night's battle will justify the statement.

The boys are pretty well matched, and the battle should be a terrific affair while it lasts. Memsic will win on a question as he is too clever for Neary. It is doubtful if the latter will be caught napping again, and Burns will have his troubles in landing a knock-out blow.

SAY DON'T KNOW ABOUT ASCOT.

DENSE IGNORANCE SHOWN AS TO FUTURE RACING.

Directors Have no Meeting to Discuss Removal of Horse Gambling Place, and Street Sports Designs Have no Tips—Plenty of Time, All Agree.

Notwithstanding the various rumors on the streets as to where the Ascot Park race track will be next week, no one who speaks with authority seems to know anything about the future of the track, or if it is known, will not tell.

If the race track directors do know, they are keeping things very still, probably with the fear that if they do tell, their schemes might be blocked by public opinion. The directors say they don't know because there has been no meeting to discuss the matter. Some of the outside stockholders are likewise ignorant for they say they have heard nothing from the directors and the sporting men on the street, who should hear such things, declare they haven't any tips on such an event.

Some of the Spring-street crowd of sports affect to believe that the park will not be moved, and that there will be races at Ascot next winter. The absence of any "reliable" rumors lends some color to this, and the further fact that the bid price for the Jockey Club stock on the Stock Exchange is about $85, with no stock offered, leads one to suspect that the "head men" know where they stand. There have been stories floating around for a month or more that the track would be moved to Watts, Venice or Arcadia, but these are only street rumors that carry no authority with them. There is ample time to arrange any kind of a deal after the present season closes on Saturday of next week and those who are guessing about the question of racing here next winter, will have to guess until some official announcement is made. Even the horsemen say they have heard nothing about the future of the track.

HEAVY RAINFALL MAY PREVENT BIG MEET.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, March 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Three days of incessant rainfall have caused considerable anxiety as to the chances of the preparatory school athletes arriving at Stanford in time for the interscholastic meet next Saturday.

Reports of washouts all over the State make it possible that unless the weather clears up at once the attendance of many schools will be impossible. All the southern teams will have difficulty in getting through, and Sacramento Valley teams will be delayed by washouts at Marysville and Wheatland. The predicament of Ukiah is the worst. Seattle should get through on the Overland route on the east side of the Sacramento River.

"BOY WONDER" HAL ARRIVES.

NEW YORK'S FIRST BASEMAN IS NEWEST THING IN.

Comes as Advance Agent of Amateur St. Mary's Ball Team, Which Will Play Here Tomorrow—Says He Is Not New With Highlanders, Owing to Dispute on Salary.

Hal Chase, first baseman of the New York American League team, arrived in this city yesterday morning from San Jose as advance agent of prosperity of the St. Mary's baseball team of Oakland, which expects to play here tomorrow against the St. Vincent's College team.

Concerning Chase, it may be stated that he is apparently the same old Chase we have known for several years. His manner has not changed, and he is really determined not to play with the New York Americans this year unless they give him a substantial increase in salary. He smilingly refused to talk of that subject yesterday, but said that any one can see he is not practicing with the Highlanders and does not intend to play with them unless they "come through," which means that he must have more money than he got last season.

The St. Mary's-St. Vincent's game tomorrow promises to be a really exciting contest, for each team is about the best in its own section of the State. St. Mary's boys are said to be wonders in the amateur line and every one in this city and vicinity knows what the St. Vincent's are. It is understood that there will be a game on Sunday between the Los Angeles Coast League and the St. Mary's team.

Owing to rain, there was no game yesterday between the Looloos and the St. Vincent's, and in all probability there will be no more games scheduled between them until the weather settles. All the local "expectations" are here now except Pitcher Hogan and Shortstop Delmas.

DELMAS COMES HERE. CANNOT PLAY IN EAST.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, March 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Secretary Farrell of the National Commission has settled once for all the question of whether the players of the Fresno and Seattle clubs are the property of the Pacific Coast League, by wiring both George McLaughlin and Bert Delmas that they belong to the Coast League.

The decision is an important one, in that it settles the status of these players, who have been looking for other positions. Both Delmas and McLaughlin received flattering offers from Williamsport in the Tri-State League, which they were anxious to accept.

Instead of dealing with the Coast League, through Secretary Danny Long, and thus negotiating for their release, they tried to work it from the other end. Delmas has accepted the situation as gracefully as possible and will report to Los Angeles.

Walter Morris, the first man to drive a motor car at Tonopah, earned $25,000 by using it as a public conveyance to and from Goldfield.

TRIP TO UTAH DECLARED OFF.

MORMON PROFESSORS MAY BE HUNTING JOBS.

Legislature Consolidates Two Schools and Creates Unstable Athletic Footing as Well as Administrative Uncertainty—U.S.C. Contract Returned Unsigned.

The University of Southern California track team will not go to Salt Lake and other eastern points this spring, as had been planned. The trip practically seemed assured. Some time ago, after correspondence in the matter, the U.S.C. men made out a contract covering two years by which they were to go to Salt Lake and compete with the University of Utah next month, and under its terms Utah would be brought here by the local team next season. This was signed and sent to the Utah capital and the Methodists have waited expectantly for the return of this agreement, accompanied by signatures.

Now, in lieu of the contract, a letter has been received from Prof. Joseph T. Merrill, director of the university, stating that on account of recent action by the Legislature they cannot enter into any agreement at this time, although they would greatly enjoy meeting the team from here. Prof. Merrill gives reasons as follows:

"We shall not be able to sign any contracts for next fall as a law which has just been made by the Legislature puts the University of Utah and the Agricultural College under the same board and creates a new board for this purpose which assumes power July 1. This new law terminates on June 30 the contract with all employes of both institutions. In July, therefore, the new board will elect the presidents and all employes of both schools. No man knows what's going to happen, except we know that we shall be out of a job at the close of this school year, and some of us will not be re-employed. We are trying to get ready for the worst."

It is explained that this legislation was anticipated by the Mormon University men and this has caused them to withhold their action in regard to an athletic contract which would hold over beyond their tenure of office until it was found what their lawmakers would do.

As U.S.C. meanwhile has made contracts with Berkeley and Stanford, which teams the students are more anxious to meet than those of schools further distant, there is no "crying over spilled milk." The meet with Utah probably would have resulted in addition to the contest in Salt Lake, in trips to Colorado Springs and Denver. They had visions afread of the intermountain meet in Denver on April 18.

Rain Prevents Game.

Bad weather prevented the basketball match game between Marlborough School and Hollywood High School yesterday afternoon. The game was to be Marlborough's first of this season and the members of the team were to be picked especially for the contest. The match is postponed until Monday, if the Marlborough courts are in good condition at that time.

SLOPPY DAY RACING.

Ascot Betting Sports Have Serious Time Picking Winners—Long Shot Finishes First.

Sloppy weather at Ascot yesterday made some sloppy racing and favorites mixed in with good things in a tiresome manner for the sports. It was hard guessing the kind that ran yesterday. Two favorites won and the only long shot was Virginia Lorraine at 8 to 1, who had an eyelash finish with the favorite, Elancer. There was a lot of talk about the decision in the fourth race, a number of the bettors thinking the long-shot Belvoir beat out the favorite, Foncasta. There were no features.

Results:

Six furlongs: Belchamber, 107 (Boland,) 4 to 5, won; Tasa, 107 (Preston,) 6 to 1, second; Elmdale, 110 (Knapp,) 5 to 1, third; time 1:16. St. Albans, Benlada, Cambol and Chief O'Haver also ran.

Mile and one-sixteenth: The Poet, 107 (Boland,) 5 to 1, won; Belasco, 110 (Grand,) 9 to 1, second; Pyrrho, 107 (Rose,) 9 to 10, third; time 1:53¾. Presentiment, Moor, Easter Card, Satin Coat and Sperian also ran. Golden Light, Sam Craig and Rostof scratched.

Five furlongs: Black Eyes, 113 (Preston,) 7 to 2, won; Tenderfoot, 113 (Brussel,) 2 to 1, second; Meatness, 112 (Kong,) 2 to 1, third; time 1:03¾. Quavlis, Manara, Lady King, Silesia and Rain Cloud also ran. Parting Jennie, Belle of Portland, Lizzie Albertine and Lillian Ayres scratched.

Mile: Fancasta, 107 (Preston,) 2 to 5, won; Belvoir, 110 (Aker,) 60 to 1, second; Molter, 97 (Nichols,) 100 to 1, third; time 1:44. Joyner, Chancellor Welworth, Ding Dong II and Mountebank also ran. Extranell and Irish Mail scratched.

Futurity course: Virginia Lorraine, 93 (Brussel,) 8 to 1, won; Elancer, 110 (Knapp,) 6 to 5, second; Blue Bottle, 98½ (Clark,) 12 to 1, third; time 1:12. Illusion, Kanisack and Lady Kittle also ran. Remember, Red Garter and Otto Price scratched.

Five and one-half furlongs: Ed Tracy, 107 (Preston,) 4 to 1, won; Joan of Arc, 103 (Ross,) 9 to 2, second; Sinclair II, 105 (Kung,) 7 to 1, third; time 1:11¼. Kitty McCarthy, Miss Himyar, Flagitt, Audubon, Shasta Max, Jerusalem and Talefair also ran. Gold Ledge, Straightaway, Colorado Girl, Long Nick and San Alvarado scratched.

OAKLAND RACING. TWO LONG SHOTS FIRST.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, March 20.—The Perfume Handicap at Oakland today resulted in one of the most exciting finishes of the season, Collector Jessup gaining a neck victory after a struggle with Andrew Mack all through the stretch. Andrew Mack, the favorite, in the betting, was off very badly. Dr. Sherman and Dr. Scharff, two outside, finished first and second in the five-furlong race, Pelham, the favorite, failed to get any of the money.

Four and a half furlongs: Boss, 111 (Scoville,) 11 to 4, won; Adena, 107 (Borel,) 12 to 1, second; Ovena, 105 (Koerner,) 11 to 5, third; time 0:55 4-5. Love of Gold and Albia finished as named.

Five furlongs selling: Dr. Sherman, 120 (A. Wright,) 13 to 1, won; Dr. Scharff, 120 (L. Williams,) 13 to 1, second; Jack Kercheville, 116 (McBride,) 11 to 2, third. Time 1:04 2-5. Hersain, Pelham, Emma Reubold, Black Sam, Bonnet, Homerio and War Times finished as named.

Mile and a sixteenth, selling: Cadichon, 103 (Koerner,) 4 to 5, won; Briers, 101 (Buston,) 6 to 1, second; Isabelita, 96 (McLaughlin,) 7 to 1, third; time 1:35. Mirthful and Baker finished as named.

Perfume Handicap, mile and twenty yards, purse $1600: Collector Jessup, 111 (Fischer,) 16 to 5, won; Andrew Mack, 100 (Koerner,) 8 to 2, second; Supreme Court, 100 (Gross,) 15 to 1, third; time 1:44 4-5. Earl Rogers, Bedford and Silverskin finished as named.

NOVICE FIELD MEET.

U.S.C. Youngsters to Try for Records Today—Holmes Hopes to Find New Stars.

U.S.C. novices are to have a field meet today. It is open to those who have not won a monogram at any meet in the past and includes many who have not even had the temerity to try for place in the regular contests. The purpose of Coach Holmes in instituting such a competition is to bring forward men who will assume active training next year.

The announcement that the meet would be held and that medals would be given brought out a large number of preps, and many new men are being initiated into training. By next season some of the youngsters may be valuable members of the regular team, gradually working up to take the places of veterans who drop out through graduation.

There will be about twenty-five contestants in the meet this afternoon. The hammer throw, shot put, pole vault, high and broad jumps, comprise the field events, and three races are carded—the 100-yard dash, the 220-yard low hurdles, and the half-mile run.

Your Better Dressed In "Ready-and-Right"

A year or so ago the man who wore an ill-fitting, awkward-appearing, ready-made suit had a reasonable excuse for it—but that was before "Ready-and-Right" took the city by storm. Now, things are different—the man who wears anything but a finely tailored suit, correct in cut and fabric, has only himself to blame. The arrival of "Ready-and-Right" clothing at the Silverwood Stores is responsible for the new condition of affairs.

We call the demand for these suits appreciation.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

CLAREMONT, March 20.—Dr. George A. Sumner, President of the Intercollegiate Athletic Conference, says that he had received no communication from Whittier College relative to their being admitted to the conference and being allowed to participate in the conference field meet. He said that the withdrawal of the objections of Manager Grang of Occidental did not admit Whittier, and that the only way she could be admitted was at a formal meeting of the conference members. He said that he had offered to call a meeting at Claremont this week, but that the members from Occidental and U.S.C. were unable to arrange a time, so that the matter would have to go over till the regular meeting, which will take place in Claremont Saturday morning.

If the requisite number of votes are received Whittier may then be admitted. However, unless special action be taken in the case of each man which Whittier wishes to enter in the meet, and unless each man receives a three-fourths vote of the conference members he cannot participate in the meet. This is because Whittier is not yet a member of the conference, and has not submitted any eligibility lists, and if she should be admitted at the Saturday morning meeting it would then be too late for the submission of her lists to the proper authorities, hence the necessity of the special action. If the question of admitting Whittier comes up, a secret ballot will be taken.

TRACK IS SOFT.

The heavy rain of today put the Pomona track in a very soft condition, and interfered seriously with track practice this evening, but it is believed the ground will dry out by Saturday. The track men all took light work in the gym this evening because of the sloppy weather outside. About an inch of rain fell today, and this, combined with the fall of yesterday, has been anything but beneficial to either men or track.

All the men are in good condition and feel that Pomona will surely come out on top next Saturday. The track squad has been strengthened by the addition of Wharton and Chisholm. Last season Wharton won a number of points for Pomona in the hurdle races and will be seen in these events Saturday. Chisholm is a good 440 and relay man, running on the varsity relay team last season.

The students are planning for a large rally to be held Friday evening. A rooting club has been formed, and the Blue and White students will do their best to help their team win the championship and retrieve their defeat at the hands of U.S.C. Whoever wins the meet will take it by a small margin, but the Congregationalists figure that the largest score will belong to them.

U.S.C. CONFIDENT. BUT ADMITS HARD TASK.

U.S.C. athletes are confronted with a great task in attempting to win the conference meet at Pomona Saturday. Although they have defeated each of the other teams entered in the meet without great difficulty, the situation is entirely changed when the teams are combined. If the weak points of each of her competitors are complimented by strong men from another quarter, she may easily go to defeat in the tri-cornered meet.

All the men are in fine form, and the rains of this week have not caused deterioration in condition. The rest removes possibility of over-training and staleness. Richardson is being depended upon to take first place in three events, and second and third in others. In the pole vault U.S.C. expects to make nine points—all there are. Richardson should get first, and they expect Comstock and Wirsching to take second and third. The Santa Paula chap is also programmed for first in the shot put, first in the pole vault, and second place in the high jump—first honors in the latter belonging to Manager of Pomona Chandler expects to capture five points in the broad jump, and Richardson may come in for third.

Most of the excitement should occur in the races. Hays at home Mordahl is expected to take second place in the two-mile, beating Hutchinson of Pomona to these three points. Stoppey says he will take second, as he contends he is in much better form than in any of his recent races. Newmire, who has taken so many half-mile races for his team, may score again Saturday. Lemon is thought to be the class of Capt. Bird in the quarter mile sprint. The 100 and 220-yard dashes should prove the best feature of the day. It is said at the university training quarters that Parsons will bring the cardinal and gold in ten feet ahead of the other starters and that the lead will be lengthened by fifteen feet in the 220 event. They consider Bird on a par with Shute at the present time and Cooper may also be a factor in the 220 sprint. Coach Holmes makes positive statements in regard to the performance of Parsons. He thinks he was never in better shape than now.

It is also stated on his authority that if the relay race is necessary to win the meet Parsons will run the last lap. With Mordahl, Lemon and Shute as the other runners of the relay, other teams would have to "go some" to beat this combination.

BUNDREM LEAVES.

Well-Known Clubman and Polo Player "Makes Good" to the Jepsen Saddlery Company.

Howard G. Bundrem, a well-known clubman, formerly manager of the Jepsen Saddlery Company, left Los Angeles yesterday after making good to the company $2000 which he was accused of having used for himself. The restitution of funds was made, it is stated, through Bundrem's attorney.

Bundrem was formerly a partner in the company, whose store is at No. 116 South Main street. Later he was manager. For some time past Jacob Jepsen, president of the concern, has been straightening out the accounts with a view to ascertaining the amount of the shortage.

Bundrem is a son-in-law of J. H. Braly, the capitalist. He is a polo expert, one of the most widely-known young men in the city, and has been popular in an exclusive society set.

Members of the Jepsen company state that officers worked on the case. But there were no arrests.

Mr. Jepsen was not at his place of business yesterday. His new manager, L. W. Camp, said he knew nothing directly of the affair. He stated, however, that there had been a peculation, a loss, and a restitution. "The whole thing is now a closed incident," said he.

According to statements made yesterday, the defalcation had been going on during several months. The investigation had lasted for a considerable period, and was, so far as the firm is concerned, carried on entirely by Mr. Jepsen.

ROOM WORKERS GET IN.

Room workers made a few successful attempts in the downtown districts last night. Among other thefts reported to the police were: J. M. McElroy, room No. 19 at No. 123 South Main street, lost a suit of clothing and a dozen shirts; W. F. Meyer, No. 512 South Spring street, suit of clothing and pair of trousers; George Hodge, Hotel Waterville, Seventh street and Maple avenue, $40 and a lady's gold ring.

TO OWNERS OF BAD BREATH

Foul Odor of Indigestion, Smoking, Eating or Drinking Stopped at Once with Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges.

Trial Package to Prove It Sent Free.

Bilious breathers, onion eaters, indigestion victims, cabbage consumers, smokers, drinkers and those with gas on the stomach are in a class all by themselves, distinguished by a powerful bad breath.

They all breathe, and as they breathe, they whiff out an odor which makes those standing near turn their heads away in digust. The pitiable part of it is that these victims do not realize what a sickening thing a bad, offensive breath is to others.

Charcoal is a wonderful absorber of gases and odors. It absorbs 100 times its own volume of gas.

Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges will put a stop to your bad, offensive breath, and to your belchings, whatever the cause or source, because the charcoal quickly absorbs all noxious, unnatural odors and gases.

If you suffer from indigestion and belch gas as a result, Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges will absorb all the gas and make you stop belching.

If on getting up in the morning you have such a bad, bilious breath that you can almost smell it yourself, Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges will get rid of it for you quickly.

If you have been smoking or chewing, or have been eating onions or other odorous things, Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges will make your breath pure and sweet.

Charcoal is also the best laxative known. You can take a whole boxful and no harm will result. It is a wonderfully easy regulator.

And then, too, it filters your blood—every particle of poison and impurity in your blood is destroyed, and you begin to notice the difference in your face first thing—your clear complexion.

Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges are made from pure willow charcoal, and just a little honey is put in to make them palatable, but not too sweet.

They will work wonders in your stomach, and make you feel fine and fresh. Your blood and breath will be purified. You will feel clean inside.

We want to prove all this to you, so just send for a free sample today. Then after you get it and use it, you will like them so well that you will go to your druggist and get a 25c box of these Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges.

Send us your name and address today and we will at once send you by mail a sample package free. Address F. A. Stuart & Co., 93 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

VERMONT AVENUE SQUARE

Test The Square During Wet Weather

Realize that the test of any homesite is its condition during the wet, rainy days.

Muddy streets, flooded with every shower, are not what YOU want in the community which is to be your home month in and month out, all the year through.

Then investigate the condition of the Square on a rainy day. Where other subdivisions boast of their advantages while the days are bright and sunny, you'll find their promoters conspicuously silent during a rain.

Wet weather is not "vacation" time at the Square. Look back to that record of activity during February—$75,000 worth of lots sold to actual home builders. We predict the present month will set an even better record of sales, as it certainly will of building activity.

Visit Vermont Ave. Square TODAY. Do not let a shower deter you. By a personal inspection only can you prove to your own satisfaction the truth of our claims.

The Square is dry always—no floods, no mud. The sandy loam soil quickly absorbs the rain as it falls. Ample drainage carries away the surplus.

That is the IDEAL condition for a home spot. But it is only one of the many exclusive advantages here. Pure air, ocean breezes when ocean breezes are most needed. No city smoke, dust, odors, noise. Faces Vermont Avenue, the longest thoroughfare in the city, and destined to be the boulevard from mountains to sea. Generous sized lots, low prices, the heart of the growing Southwest residence district.

SCHMIDT HEIGHTS

In the fashionable WILSHIRE-WESTLAKE district, will be the nearest high class exclusive residence tract on the line of the Fourth st. SUBWAY, for the VERMONT AVE. SUBWAY STATION will be located in this tract where the tunnel emerges, and the time from 4th and Hill sts. will be ONLY FOUR MINUTES.

SCHMIDT HEIGHTS is now reached in 15 minutes from Broadway by the Bimini and W. 6th st. car lines.

Distance from business center is 2 miles.

The tract embraces Vermont ave. and Catalina st. east and west, and W. 4th and 8th sts. north and south.

Several east front lots on Vermont avenue, can be had at $2200, the Scale. On New Hampshire, Berendo and Catalina sts., prices are proportionately cheap, and terms easy, but when the Grand Arterial st. car is lifted and the work on the SUBWAY is commenced, you will wonder why you could not foresee that SCHMIDT HEIGHTS was destined to be THE MOST VALUABLE RESIDENCE TRACT in Los Angeles.

DO YOU WANT TO GO HOME FOR LUNCH?

Tract office is located on the corner of 4th and Vermont, I am there afternoons.

WESTMINSTER SQUARE.
WESTMINSTER SQUARE.
WESTMINSTER SQUARE.
THE CITY'S IDEAL HOME SITE.
COMMANDINGLY LOCATED NEAR WILSHIRE BLVD.
LOCATION.
Westminster Square is a high-class residence subdivision located at the corner of 6th and Western ave., high above fogs and dust, and presenting an inspiring view. Elegant homes and residence tracts surround it on every side; and exclusive Wilshire blvd. is near by.
IMPROVEMENTS.
All streets are 75 feet wide and palms and ornamental trees are planted in front of every lot. The car line has almost been completed and will run directly through the tract. Two handsome homes are nearly finished and others are being planned. One man bought 6, another 4, and another 3 lots; after they had each searched the city over for the best proposition.
PRICE OF PROPERTY.
Lots are priced at $1350 and up. It is very seldom that a high class residence subdivision like Westminster Square is placed on the market, and never are the prices of lots so reasonable as here. The location, the improvements, the environment are all that could be desired by either the shrewd investor or critical homeseeker. You bag here your own best interests when you fail to get this beautiful property. Conveyances waiting at our office today to take you out. Come early and secure the choicest sites.

THE CITY IN BRIEF

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

Inquest Today.

Today an inquest will be held over the body of J. J. O'Neil, who was fatally injured in stepping from a Southern Pacific train near Alhambra Tuesday night. O'Neil died yesterday morning in the Emergency General Hospital.

Woman Called Burglar.

A woman, who says her name is Mrs. Katie Seitz, was arrested yesterday and charged with burglary. It is alleged that she stole a suit case from the home of J. H. Gibson, No. 523 West Sixth street, a week ago. The police say she has been in trouble several times before.

Cooper Injured.

W. A. Cooper of No. 836 East Twenty-first street, who has an interest in the Crystal Bottling Works at No. 625 North Main street, was injured seriously yesterday by falling from a scaffold. He alighted on his head and sustained concussion of the brain. He was taken to the Receiving Hospital.

Death by Accident.

The coroner's inquiry into the death of James D. Wilder, who was run down by a Pacific Electric car on Aliso street, near the corner of Lyon street, on March 18, resulted in a verdict of accidental death. Wilder was a contractor whose home was at No. 2717 Downey avenue.

Poundmaster's Fall.

George Vacher, city poundmaster, fell down a flight of stairs leading from a rooming house at No. 344 South Broadway to the street, last night. He sustained two ugly scalp lacerations and a slight concussion of the brain. He was given surgical attention at the Receiving Hospital. To officers Vacher admitted that he had been drinking during the evening.

Corona's Death Accidental.

An inquest was held yesterday on the body of Jesus Corona, the youth who was electrocuted while trying to rescue a kite from wires on an Edison Electric Company pole. The lad was shocked by coming in contact with a high voltage wire as he reached for the kite, and died a few hours later. A verdict of accidental death was rendered.

Imagines Crime.

Imagining that he has committed a crime for which he is about to be hanged, James W. Boyd, a skilled mechanic, is raving in delirium in a cell at the City Jail. The illness came upon him suddenly yesterday afternoon and as though possessed of a demon he fought the jailer and trustlies. He was overcome and manacled. He will be committed to the insane ward of the County Hospital for the present.

Chinese Relief Fund.

W. C. Patterson, treasurer of the Chinese relief fund, which was started several months ago, when the famine news was received, reports that he has received and disbursed $1800, but that there is urgent need for more. This is simply the church fund, and $1400 of amount handled came directly through the churches, a full half of it being contributed by the Presbyterian denomination. The suffering is still represented as being very great in China and there is need of more funds. Contributions may be sent to Mr. Patterson at the First National Bank.

Around the World.

Dr. A. G. Schloesser of Hollywood left for Chicago on Monday evening, whither he goes to assist in closing up the large estate of Amalia Schloesser, which includes the Schloesser Block and other properties. Dr. Schloesser's wife and daughter, Daisy, will follow in the near future, and the three will make an extensive tour of Europe, Turkey, the Holy Land, Egypt, Greece, China, Japan and India. During his absence Dr. Schloesser will purchase bric-a-brac and works of art for the embellishment of his new mansion, to be erected at Hollwood immediately upon his return from abroad. It is to be modeled after one of the castles on the Rhine.

SINGING SHRINER-BEAR.

A singing and talking bear will be one of the sights at the coming Shrine circus—in fact, there will be an entire cage of college-bred Bruins at the performance under the "big top." The tones of the talking bear are still slightly gutteral, and his English needs a little more polish to become presentable in a drawing-room, but the promoters of the show regard him with affectionate wonder. A number of new additions were made to the Shrine menagerie yesterday, and several acrobatic and trapeze performances were picked up among idle professionals.

PIONEER DEAD.

Dr. L. N. Hilleary of Poway died yesterday, of pneumonia. Dr. Hilleary was one of the pioneers of Southern California and was well known as a fruit raiser in the section in which he lived. He moved to Poway eighteen years ago and has been an energetic factor in the development of that part of the country for almost two decades. His wife, three daughters and one son survive him, as well as a sister, Mrs. M. A. Flanders of this city.

Don't Dose Yourself With Medicine
trying to secure relief from Catarrh and Hay Fever. These are local diseases caused usually as a result of a neglected cold. However, they are very dangerous if allowed to continue. Catarrh and Hay Fever can be cured quickly and permanently by the use of Ormsby's nasal douche and throat tablets. These tablets dissolve in warm water and are used as a douche and gargle. One visit to a physician will cost you at least one dollar, whereas one dollar will purchase enough of the tablets, together with a glass douche, to give you twenty-five treatments. Bad breath, headaches, disordered stomach, lack of appetite, sore throat loss of hearing, etc., are all results of catarrh as well as consumption. Read what this man says. This is only one of the hundreds of such letters we receive:

J. H. ORMSBY, Los Angeles, Cal.
My Dear Sir:—I suffered extremely with catarrh of the nose and throat, and was about discouraged in trying to find some remedy that would give relief. Some one recommended your nasal douche tablets and I concluded to give your remedy a trial. Much to my surprise and gratification, I was relieved immediately and I conscientiously believe that your tablets will relieve and cure any case of catarrh.
Wishing you continued success, I am, very truly yours, A. H. RUSSELL.

NORTH AND SOUTH CUT ASUNDER BY SLIDES.

Tunnel Landslips Block Both Lines of the Southern Pacific.

Heaps of Earth on Track May Mean no Trains for Several Days at Least, but Mail and Possibly Passengers Will Be Carried by Way of Barstow—Salt Lake Washouts Again.

TWO of the three railroads leading into Southern California are facing the worst traffic tie-up in years. Los Angeles is without direct communication with San Francisco.

Following the cave-in at the Santa Margarita tunnel of the Southern Pacific, blocking the Coast Line for days, yesterday there was a landslip at the San Fernando tunnel, blocking the Valley Line for at least three days. In addition, there was yesterday another landslip in the Santa Margarita tunnel, and Tunnel No. 17 on the Tehachepi Pass caved in.

Word was received yesterday that there are heavy rains in the Meadow Valley region, putting the Salt Lake Road in practically the same condition that it was weeks ago. So disheartening is the situation that a commission is on the ground, considering abandonment of the entire survey.

No trains went north last night, and the only possibility is that some may go today by way of Barstow and Mojave.

The situation is complicated by the cave-in of snowsheds near Truckee.

The Santa Fé and Southern Pacific lines eastward have not been affected.

Mail is badly congested. It will be carried via Barstow.

For the first time in many moons Los Angeles is practically without railroad communication with San Francisco. Following the cave-in of the Santa Margarita tunnel on the Southern Pacific north of San Luis Obispo, closing the Coast Line for at least several days, yesterday a landslide overwhelmed the valley line at the northern entrance of the San Fernando tunnel.

In addition to this disaster, yesterday tunnel No. 17, north of Saugus, fell in, and another landslide occurred in the already blockaded tunnel on the Coast Line. Nothing will be done on tunnel No. 17 until the break at San Fernando is repaired. The cave-in there is not so serious as at the other two points where traffic is blockaded. It is estimated that three days will hardly be enough to clear the system.

The only possible avenue of communication left is by the Santa Fé over the eastern line to Barstow, then from there to the Southern Pacific at Majove, and then by Southern Pacific tracks to San Francisco. Late yesterday two south-bound trains of the Southern Pacific were sent around this circuitous route, due to arrive in Los Angeles early this morning. By this roundabout line, it is hoped that mails at least may be handled until one or the other of the two breaks may be repaired.

The Southern Pacific is now facing the worst condition of traffic tie-up since the coast line was opened. The situation is complicated by the fact that the Valley Line of the Southern Pacific has been handling the coast line traffic, most of the business of the Salt Lake, and the Santa Fé trains between Mojave and Bakersfield. Trains have been running out of schedule in an effort to handle the situation.

SLIP AT SAN FERNANDO.

Now the rain-soaked soil at the San Fernando tunnel has slipped over the track, and while work is rushed, it may be days before regular trains are again running. Officials of the Southern Pacific stated last night that they hoped to have the line open tomorrow evening.

Although the officials of the road are optimistic, it is reported that the cave-in on the Coast Line cannot be repaired in five or six days, and that the landslide at the Fernando tunnel on the Valley Line may take as long.

This landslide does not affect the tunnel itself, but is a slide of mud and soil over the mouth of the tunnel. It is said to be greater in extent than the one which occurred during the last rain, when it required five days to clear the track.

A work train of seventeen cars loaded with Mexicans and cholos was rushed to the tunnel immediately after the slip occurred. The cars are those in which the laborers live, and the work of cleaning away the slide will be carried on night and day.

When the landslide at San Fernando was repaired after the last tie-up a bank of loose sand eleven feet thick was built as a protection, and it was thought that this would be sufficient to guard against any further rush of water. It did not hold, however, and the best the railroad officials can hope for is to have a train through in three days.

IT BLOCKED THE TRAFFIC.

The landslide blocks the local traffic to Santa Barbara and way points over the old line. The Santa Barbara-bound train arrived an hour late at San Fernando yesterday, and was held there pending an investigation of the extent of the slip. Later it was turned around, and left San Fernando at the time scheduled for the evening south-bound train from Santa Barbara. All passengers bound for points north of the tunnel returned to Los Angeles.

Practically the only service now running on the Southern Pacific northward is over the Coast Line to San Luis Obispo. Service is being maintained over this road, but as it is impossible to transfer passengers around the Santa Margarita tunnel, San Luis Obispo is the northern limit of travel.

On the Valley Line, all trains have been temporarily annulled. No trains were sent out last night. Today one train carrying mail and possibly more will be sent north over the Santa Fé tracks to Mojave, but up to a late hour last night no time had been set for the departure.

It is reported that in the mountains about Tehachepi it is still raining, and the fear of a heavy downpour has kept the work gangs from doing anything toward repairing the break in tunnel No. 17. Continued rains in the mountains would wipe out any work done.

The Santa Fé is not affected by the rains except around the section from Bakersfield north. No trouble has been reported on the division running eastward, and the company officials do not anticipate any washouts on the line in Arizona or New Mexico. The immense amount of construction work put in the last summer is considered a safeguard against any great trouble.

MAIL CONGESTION.

One of the most serious results of the closing of traffic is the mail congestion. Although mail will be handled by way of the Santa Fé, it will be impossible for any large part of it to get through. Mail that formerly went by the Salt Lake has been diverted to the Southern Pacific and the Santa Fé. All the mail that was coming down by the Coast Line has been sent around to go by the valley route, and that will probably be held up. In addition there is a large quantity of mail congested somewhere north of the Tehachepi, which is the result of a cave-in of the snowsheds near Truckee. Postmaster Flint, however, is confident that it all can be handled when it arrives.

SALT LAKE TROUBLE HAS NO SOLUTION.

"IT'S RAINING AGAIN in the Meadow Valley Wash." If a telegraph line can be said to wail, it must have wailed yesterday when it brought this disheartening message to the Salt Lake Railroad offices in this city.

Virtually, the message means that the troubles of the sorely-tried Salt Lake have begun all over again.

Although hundreds of men and teams are working to conquer the washouts in Meadow Valley, it is admitted at the headquarters of the company that the problem has no answer.

It is stated frankly that an inspecting party is now out at the scene of the washouts for the purpose of considering the advisability of abandoning the line altogether—cutting out Meadow Valley and finding a new route.

Washing out, and the fear of washing out, has been the vulnerable heel of the Salt Lake from the first.

The construction crews and the engineers used to talk of it long before the last spike was driven.

Much of the way the track sweeps along at the base of a long slope of hills in a country where the peculiar atmospheric conditions favor cloudbursts. Yet is was from an unsuspected quarter that trouble came.

Special precautions to safeguard this endangered section of the line were taken to such good effect that no great washouts have occurred there.

WRECKED EIGHTY MILES.

Salt Lake officials disclaim responsibility for the wrecked eighty miles of track through the Meadow Valley Wash. They say it was part of an old Union Pacific survey and that the road was used with perfect success for a long time by the Oregon Short Line. It was not until Senator Clark took the line that the Meadow Valley Wash began to misbehave.

To understand the conditions, one should cast a sort of birdseye over the Salt Lake tracks.

The tracks begin at Daggett, a queer little frontier town, from which the Salt Lake runs on Santa Fé tracks into San Bernardino.

From Daggett, the Salt Lake cuts off through a marvelous dip in the low hills that guard the California border. The train goes through what are known as the "Painted Caves." They are among nature's marvels, being brilliant in hue as the plumage of birds—terra cottas and vivid violets.

From these hills the road climbs a long grade and tips over into a wonderful panorama, a long valley across which lies the Nevada-California line.

Along this section of the road washouts were freely predicted. The road lies at the foot of long sloping hills—slopes that extend for miles to summits where the old Mormon trail used to run in the Argonaut days.

SKIN HILLS LIKE RABBIT.

These hills are scarred and seamed with the relics of past cloudbursts. It is a common sight to see a long, sloping hill with a dark stripe running down its side, showing where the water from some cloudburst of other days has skinned off the desert vegetation as one might skin a rabbit.

The first time a cloudburst happened to come ambling along, it was figured that the new railroad would be washed down the tide.

To guard against this apparent danger

REV. DANIEL CLAY,
for fifty years a Free Will Baptist preacher, buried yesterday.

"HEAR SOUND OF MUSIC."

Last Words of Aged Pastor Whose Body Is Laid at Rest in Rosedale Cemetery.

Rev. Daniel Clay, for twenty years a resident of Los Angeles county, and who preached for half a century before coming here, died Monday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. A. W. Davis of No. 555 South Grand avenue. The remains were laid to rest yesterday afternoon in Rosedale Cemetery.

For fifty years Rev. Mr. Clay served the Free Will Baptist Church in Illinois and Minnesota. Since coming to California most of his time has been spent in San Pedro, though in recent years he has lived with his daughter in this city. He was also well known in Santa Ana, where he lived for a time.

He died just as he had lived, quietly and peacefully. His last words to those at his bedside were: "I see my soul and hear the sound of music."

Death claimed his wife ten years ago in San Pedro, but he is survived by four children, J. C. Clay, a banker of Idaho Falls, Idaho; Cassius M. Clay of Ogden, Utah, and Mrs. A. W. Davis and Mrs. Eli Sawin of this city. D. R. Clay, a prominent business man and property owner of San Pedro, died two years ago. Rev. Mr. Clay was born in Buxton, Me., in 1816.

The funeral service was held at the chapel of Orr & Hines, Rev. C. Y. Snell officiating.

BUNCO MEN AT WORK BEFORE.

DYING OFFICER STORY PEDDLED SEVERAL TIMES.

T. J. Keogh Gets Pathetic Missive from Spain, but Fails to Respond. Game Worked a Year Ago in Ocean Park, Also in Philadelphia—Local Agents Suspected.

The clever band of bunco men who get up romances about Spanish officers dying in prison with stacks of coin in American banks, have evidently been busy in Los Angeles. Following the exposure of their attempt to "touch" C. I. Nelk, in yesterday's Times, there comes to light an attempt which was made about eight weeks ago. The earmarks of both attempts are the same.

The man selected in this case was T. J. Keogh, of No. 3209 South Main street. As in the case of Nelk, the bunco men got off wrong. Keogh immediately sized up the letter which he received, and thought so little of the scheme that he threw the missive, Spanish stamps and all, into the waste basket. In addition to the letter in English, there was inclosed a letter in Spanish. This Mr. Keogh did not have the curiosity to have translated. It went the way of the other, only more rapidly.

The plan of campaign adopted by the bunco men was similar in general to that used in the case of Mr. Nelk, but it differed in detail. The same story of a Spanish officer, ornamented a little in this case with a story about underhand doings with the Cuban junta, was used as a preamble. The same beautiful señorita, aged 18, was among the dramatis personae.

Mr. Nelk, however, was requested to mail his money. Mr. Keogh was instructed to load himself with gold coin, tell no one about his mission, and quietly steal away to Gibraltar. There he was to proceed to a little town in the back country, still laden with the coin. He was to wear his handkerchief, in just such a way, cock his hat in just such another way, and then a man would meet him—and take the money away from him. Especially the latter.

Instead also of connecting Mr. Keogh with the Spanish officer through some relative, the letter stated that a dear Spanish friend of the officer had recommended Mr. Keogh as an honest and charitable man, who would do the right thing by an orphaned Spanish señorita and a million francs. Mr. Keogh has no Spanish friends who are in league with officers lying in prison for treachery.

With these exceptions, the story was the same as that handed Mr. Nelk.

One curious thing about this attempt shows that someone in Los Angeles is connected with the scheme. Mr. Keogh is a newcomer to Los Angeles. He first settled at another address on Main street, and later moved to a house on Thirty-third street. He moved to his present address less than three months ago. His address is not in the city directory, and until very recently not in the telephone directory. Yet the letter mailed from Madrid only a month after his last change of home, was correctly addressed to his last address.

Mr. Keogh came from Philadelphia, and he says that the same game was attempted on people there about three years ago. In this case also there was a story of a Spanish officer, the beautiful señorita, etc.

In this connection it may be remembered that about a year ago The Times exposed a somewhat similar attempt, wherein was used a story of treasure buried on the beach at Ocean Park by a fleeing officer of the Cuban junta, who at that time was lying near death in France. The letter was beautifully and pathetically written in French.

HOLDS DOWN HOTTEST LID.

Doctor of "Sick Mountains" Here Making Notes.

Man from Vesuvius Likens Volcano to Woman.

Eruptions He Has Predicted Came About.

Horribly chagrined that the Mauna Loa volcano in Hawaii pungled up a few million tons of lava a few months before he thought it would, Prof. Immanuel Friedlander, volcano expert of Naples, Italy, is sitting in his room at the Alexandria, and is real peevish.

PROF. FRIEDLANDER,
who studies "sick mountains" as a physician his patients. He says volcanoes are peevish, and have their moods, like women.

Prof. Friedlander is the man who, together with Prof. Matteucci, holds down the lid on Vesuvius. When he speaks of volcanoes he knows what he is talking about. He was en route to Mauna Loa to see the eruption which he had predicted a year ago, but the pestiferous old mountain coughed up its gorge a few months too soon. Now he will not be able to see the fireworks.

He is almost inconsolable and says he may have to wait fifteen years longer before he can see a real eruption from old Mauna Loa. However, he will continue on his way to Hawaii and see the volcano.

Friedlander arrived in the city yesterday and hurried to his room. He is writing notes on everything he sees, and is so busy writing them that he has little chance to see anything. He denied himself to all callers at first, as he was still laboring under chagrin over the unfaithfulness of Mauna Loa.

HE'S ON A HUNT.

He is a little thin man, about middle age, with a large forehead, bushy whiskers and a stoop. He does not like to be disturbed.

He is hunting for a volcano. He says that all known volcanoes have been visited and investigated by himself, and he longs and thirsts for a brand new one. Any one knowing of a good, active volcano can confer a favor upon Prof. Friedlander by kindly notifying him.

The professor has been in Mexico the last few months, and it was this trip which caused the delay resulting in his failure to get to Hawaii in time to see the fireworks at Mauna Loa. While in Mexico he was interviewed by an enterprising newspaper man concerning earthquakes, and he told of the cause of the quakes at San Francisco and Valparaiso. Then he predicted that the next earthquake would occur near the equator, in the Western Hemisphere. The Kingston disaster was the fulfillment of this prediction.

Prof. Friedlander has made a study of volcanoes. They are his hobby, and he spends the greater portion of his days clambering about old Vesuvius, Aetna or some of the other great volcanoes. He says scientists can tell within a certain limit when volcanoes will again become active.

LIKE WOMEN, HE SAYS.

"Volcanoes are like women," said Friedlander. "They are peevish, and you can never tell what they are going to do. They remain inactive five, ten or fifteen years, and then suddenly break out in fury. They have their moods, and after one has lived in proximity with them one gets to know their ways, and it is then easy to predict when they will again burst forth.

"The recent eruption of Vesuvius was predicted a year ahead. The hot lava gathered in the great lake, and grew and grew until the crater was filled, and the pressure from below was enormous. It was an easy matter then to say that in a short time it would explode and the commonly-termed eruptions would occur.

"I have stood almost within the old crater on Vesuvius during eruptions, making observations of value to science. Prof. Matteucci and I have very often watched the old mountain in its throes of agony. These observations and others made have enabled science to predict within a certain limit when volcanoes will occur.

"Nothing accurate is known of volcanoes. 'Volcanology,' as we term it, is a new science, and it has made but little headway. Observations of eruptions made at close quarters is the only way to ascertain what really occurs when a mountain 'gets sick' and belches forth its lava.

MISSES BY FEW MONTHS.

"Mauna Loa is one of the largest volcanoes in the world. It is much larger than Vesuvius. In fact, the latter is a really small volcano, but a very active one. The last eruption of Mauna Loa was in 1892, and I had figured it out that the volcano became active every fifteen years. It was due to be active about the beginning of this spring, and I started out to be on the scene. The mountain was filled with lava to a greater extent than we thought, and the eruption occurred, as is known, in January of this year, a few months earlier than I had expected. I am chagrined that I was not on the scene, but am hastening now to see the after-effects of the disturbance."

Friedlander says that Mt. Aetna, in Sicily, is about due for an eruption. He says Aetna is what is known as a ten-year volcano—that is, it has eruptions every ten years. He expects that by the end of this year the volcano will again become active and pour out its lava. He expects that this eruption will be unusually severe as the last one was very slight. He says that the lava lake in Mt. Aetna is rapidly filling and it is only a question of months until the molten rocks, etc., fills the crater and shuts off the escape of steam. Then the pressure will increase until, like a boiler, the mountain will explode through its crater.

Friedlander looks upon a volcano like a doctor does a patient. He says a volcano is only a sick mountain. Little is known about the volcanoes. Their symptoms, like a sick person's, are the only means of arriving at any conclusion, he says.

STUDIES "SICK" MOUNTAIN.

Friedlander is not employed by any institution or association. He is simply a scientist who has devoted his life to a study of volcanoes. He has some wealth which he devotes entirely to studying "sick mountains." He says that instead of being frightened by a volcano in active work, he is fascinated and forgets his danger. He is a little drab sort of man whose eyes dance and shine when he once gets started on his favorite subject of volcanoes. He dotes upon them and if he hears of one, no matter where it is, he immediately packs up his luggage and hies himself to it.

He will go from this city to San Francisco, devote a little time to a study of the earthquake district, and then will go to Hawaii, where he will see that dear old Mauna Loa. After spending about one month investigating the character of the recent eruption he will go to Samoa, where there are some more volcanoes. He has seen all of these volcanoes many times, but is still looking for new data. He is writing a treatise upon volcanoes, and intends to publish the book some time during the coming year.

IDENTITY ESTABLISHED.

Boy Found Unconscious in Roominghouse Is Louis Staffer and Police Will Investigate.

The boy who was found unconscious in a rooming house stairway at Fourth and Crocker streets early yesterday morning, had not regained consciousness late last night. His name is Louis Staffer, and his parents, who reside at No. 212 Boyd street, are with him. The police are investigating the circumstances surrounding the peculiar condition of the lad, who is thought to have been drugged with liquor.

The boy is only 14 years of age. He was an inmate of the Detention Home until Monday. His parents did not know where the boy was until notified by officials of the Emergency Hospital, where he was taken. An ambulance call was sent to the hospital from the rooming house, and the boy was found in a deep stupor. Beyond the information that he had been drinking, nothing could be learned from persons in the house.

NOT INTERESTED.

W. A. Kramer and J. F. Hinckley of the Japanese Importing Company, who were named as directors of the Southern California Coal Mining Company, with property in Orange county, have informed The Times that they are in no way interested in the company or its property, and that the use of their names as directors is entirely unauthorized.

THE PUBLIC SERVICE.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

City Auditor Mushet said yesterday that his signature has been placed on three demands without his knowledge or consent; the claims are valid and the city loses nothing, but the Auditor is willing to give $100 to know who forged his name.

Commissioners on the Board of Health received their first lesson in City Hall politics yesterday when they attempted to name men of their own selection to emergency places as milk inspectors.

With impressive ceremony Mayor Harper and Inspector Edwards buried the hatchet yesterday at an executive session of the Board of Public Works.

Fred P. Wilson, former escrow clerk for the Title Guarantee and Trust Company, ended his long fight to escape the penalty for embezzlement by pleading guilty in the Superior Court yesterday.

Mrs. Edward Lutz was awarded the custody of her children yesterday by Judge Bordwell.

An order was entered yesterday for the sale at auction in the Superior Court on Friday morning of real estate which was the property of the late Eben Smith.

Clarence Drown, manager of the Orpheum, was arraigned yesterday in Justice Chambers's court on a charge of violating a fire ordinance. The case was dismissed.

F. J. Taylor of the American Novelty Company, escaped trial yesterday in the Police Court on three counts, but two new charges were immediately filed against him.

Jesse Eagle, a youth of 19, was convicted of fraud and fined $90 yesterday in Justice Chambers's court.

AT THE CITY HALL.

RUBBER STAMPS STILL THERE.

CITY AUDITOR IS A VICTIM OF SHARP PRACTICE.

Signature Attached to Demands Without His Consent—Claims Are Valid, but the Process Irregular. Looks Like Reprisals from Former Administration—To Investigate.

City Auditor Mushet is seeking to discover who has taken the authority upon himself to sign the name of the Auditor to a demand for money due on land purchased by the city in the Owens Valley. Among the returns from the Treasurer's office are three demands, which are signed in a way that is highly displeasing to the Auditor; two contain rubber stamp signatures of Mr. Mushet, the third is signed with a pen, aping lamely at the Auditor's stamp signature.

Mr. Mushet's objection is that his signature is placed there without his consent. The demands are regular; they are for land purchased at the request of the Board of Public Works. The Auditor's objection is not to the demands themselves, but to the manner in which they were obtained.

The demand containing the signature which the auditor says is forged is drawn in favor of the Los Angeles Abstract and Trust Company. It bears the approval of the Mayor and Councilof the last administration, but it did not reach the Auditor's office until the administration had changed.

"Demands for several thousands of dollars were passed at the time this was approved by the Council," said Mr. Mushet, yesterday afternoon. "Some were presented to me and I declined to sign them until they were put in a regular form. These could easily have been made regular and I would have signed them, too. But it appears that some one took it upon himself to act for me.

"I have asked each deputy in my office about the demands; each denies having seen them, much less having attached my signature thereto.

"When my deputies denied signing them I became interested. In fact, I am interested to the extent that I have said that I will pay $100 to the person who can show who signed my name with a pen to the one demand."

With Mr. Mushet it is a question of office discipline. The city is fully protected, but he desires to know which of his men, if any, has been taking liberties with his chief's signature.

The demands were presented two days after Mushet went into office. In advocating a new system of auditing aqueduct demands, Mr. Mushet mentioned these bills yesterday afternoon to the City Attorney.

An evening paper, subsidized to oppose the Owens River project, made this mention the basis for a fictitious story to the effect that the treasury had been looted and that Sheriff Hammel is working on the case and has offered $100 reward for the detection of the thieves.

Mr. Mushet took especial pains to make plain to all members of the press that there is no question as to the validity of the claims. The point which he made when they were presented was that he could not sign demands passed by the former Council. Other demands for land purchased were referred to the new Council, reaffirmed, approved by the Auditor and paid regularly.

"If those demands had been left in my office they would have been treated in the same way."

Mr. Mushet is especially sensitive about the rubber stamp demands for the reason that he inaugurated the campaign that broke up the rubber stamp practice at the City Hall. On the face of the demands it looks like a trick on the part of some one to "get even" with the Auditor for something that occurred during the rubber stamp campaign.

Mr. Mushet keeps a rubber stamp in his office, but permits no one else to use it. He uses it to approve demands in a department after he has approved the pay roll containing the demands with a pen.

MILK CAMPAIGN.

DOCTORS "GET WISE."

Five milk inspectors were appointed yesterday by the Board of Health, four were merely ratifications of appointments already made by members of the Council.

The successful candidates were: Hans Berz, No. 1377 Valencia street; S. M. Reed, No. 709 East Forty-first street; Dr. W. E. Trunz, No. 3018 Guirado street; Frank Ford, No. 1402 North Main street; James Lynch, No. 728 1-2 Towne avenue. Nicholas Schwegal of No. 160 East Thirty-sixth street received an emergency appointment as restaurant inspector.

When the Mayor announced that five milk inspectors were to be appointed Commissioner Moore wanted to make a nomination right off the bat.

There was an awkward silence; then little by little it was explained to Dr. Moore that the Councilmen who so kindly took part in the pure milk crusade had also been thoughtful enough to mention certain constituents who are especially qualified for the place of milk inspector.

This is only following honorable precedent, so have appointments been made at the City Hall for years. It speaks well for the frankness of the Mayor and the health commissioners that they did not caucus on this in secret session. In this they made a startling deviation from custom.

One of the inspectorships had been left for the Mayor to fill, four were appointed by the Council. Mayor Harper yielded to the board to the extent of giving up his own man, J. B. Alexander, and permitting the board to name a man of its own selection. But the other places went as the Council dictated.

These appointments are only fortnight positions, however, as the Civil Service Commission is preparing to hold an examination for milk inspector. The five permanent men will be the ones who pass the best examination. The Councilmen to not expect their men to pass this test, but it gives them a few days work and shows the good will of the ward representative.

This is one striking instance in which civil service intervenes between the politicians and the spoils. Five years ago it would have been impossible to secure such an increase of a force without pledging at least three of the places permanently to the Council. Now the limitation of the councilmanic appointments is brief and the places will be filled by men who win their spurs in a stinging civil service test.

ALL FOR GOOD STREETS.

MAYOR AND BOARD AGREE.

Mayor Harper and the Board of Public Works held a long conference yesterday morning to discuss plans for ameliorating the condition of city streets. Frankly the Mayor told the commissioners that he is not satisfied with the streets in their present state. He showed the board reports from the police and fire departments on chuck holes and washouts.

A number of streets in the Third Ward were on the doubtful list. Inspector Edwards informed the Mayor that there are more than 100 miles of improved streets in this ward. The foreman of the Third Ward has twelve teams and eight extra laborers to care for these 100 miles of street way.

After the conference the Mayor said that he is convinced the board is making an earnest, honest effort to improve the condition of the streets, and to do the work as soon as possible. Members of the board say that the Mayor is "very fair in his requests," that he understands conditions and is not unreasonable.

Harmony as assertive as a sore thumb prevails in the north wing of the City Hall.

FORMER ESCROW CLERK PLEADS.

ENDS LONG FIGHT TO ESCAPE PENALTY FOR CRIME.

Fred Wilson Surprises Court by Admitting Embezzlement of Draft In Covering Up Other Misdeeds, Could Not Destroy Evidence of This—History of Case.

Fred P. Wilson's long fight to escape the penalty of his misdeeds ended yesterday morning when he withdrew his former plea of not guilty, and pleaded guilty to the charge of embezzling a $2100 draft deposited with him as escrow clerk for the Title Guarantee and Trust Company on November 18, 1905. At the request of Earl Rogers, attorney for the embezzler, sentence was delayed and will be passed in the Superior Court on Saturday morning.

For more than a year Wilson has sought by every means to avoid the legal consequences of his crimes. Carefully he had destroyed all evidence of the greater part of his peculations, and finally fled from justice when suspicion fastened upon him. It appears that he almost succeeded in placing himself beyond the reach of the law by covering up his work, though his flight did not help him.

The charge on which he was extradited from New York, where he was captured in July, 1906, was the embezzlement of two checks of $300 each. The records of the company show that these checks were issued by C. H. Hance. Mr. Hance, in the extradition papers, represented that he had signed the checks on the written order of F. P. Wilson. That was his recollection, merely, and the order could not be found. Mr. Hance decided that he could not take oath that the order had come from Wilson. The case had to be dismissed.

Meanwhile, however, the toils were being drawn about the accused in another way. Wily as he was in his criminal operations, Wilson had erred, as a criminal, in at least one instance. This was the appropriation of a draft for $2100 sent by the Havre (Montana) Savings Bank to pay for certain property in Los Angeles. This escrow did not involve the passing of any checks by an official of the company, nor the issuing of a written order by the escrow clerk. The evidence of this particular embezzlement could not be destroyed.

Still the defendant hoped against his waning hope. The time for his trial was set, and the hour of reckoning drew on, but he remained obdurate. The possibility of any leniency he might hope for by throwing himself upon the mercy of the court was not sufficient for him, but he was actuated only by his hope of escaping physical punishment. He was ready to plead guilty to any, or all of his crimes, if it could be done with the understanding that he was to be put on parole. Deputy Dist.-Atty. E. J. Fleming, who had charge of the case, refused to consider anything of the kind, and Wilson remained in jail awaiting the trial.

A petition for parole was prepared and signed by a number of leading men, but never was presented to the court.

In spite of the convincing nature of the evidence which had been gathered to bring home the specific charge to Fred P. Wilson, the change of plea came as a surprise to almost every one who heard it. So long had the indicted escrow clerk struggled against the net which was being drawn about him, tighter and tighter, month after month, that no one thought of his doing anything but struggle on to the bitter end.

Judge Smith had given the order, "Call the term trial jury, Mr. Clerk," and neither he nor the clerk heard Earl Rogers when he first spoke, murmuring, "It will not be necessary."

The lawyer arose to his feet, repeating more loudly: "It will not be necessary, Your Honor." Still there were few who seemed to understand.

"The defendant wishes to plead guilty, Your Honor," exclaimed Earl Rogers.

Mr. Fleming insisted that the specific charge on which he was to be tried be definitely pleaded to, though the pale and tight-lipped young man at the bar tried to wave him away impatiently. The Deputy District Attorney would take no chance of the clever culprit wriggling out of the net he had wound about him with such pains. There, in the last moment of his part of the work, he knotted them fast. Guilty to embezzling that particular draft Fred Wilson was compelled to plead, and cannot claim misunderstanding hereafter.

MRS. AULD COMMITTED.

MENTAL PROCESSES ASKEW.

Nancy A. Auld, a woman whose mental processes are swift and vigorous, but all askew, was committed yesterday to Highland, after an examination held on petition of her son, Arthur J. Auld, of Santa Monica.

At the examination, Mrs. Auld talked protestingly of the "adamantine walls" which have confined her, and declared that the standing army of the United States was marching to her relief.

Speaking again of her confinement, pending the examination, she spoke of the jail as "a place from which, when a woman once goes in, she never comes out. I always do what I determine to, and I came out. If my will had not been strong enough to get me out, you'd have eaten me in canned meat."

Mrs. Auld occasioned not little excitement in Santa Monica on March 10 by singing loudly in the street at night for two hours.

Living on a small pension, she deems herself a person of means, and has repeatedly entered into negotiations for different properties valued at several hundred dollars. She has been mentally unbalanced for two years, with definite hallucinations developing.

BUYS HORSE, SUES.

BUT MUST ACCEPT BARGAIN.

C. W. Sutton of Pasadena bought a horse about a year ago from John A. Gemmill, paying $135. Yesterday he was in the Superior Court trying to get his money back. He was assisted by a couple of attorneys, expert witnesses of one sort and another, and charts covered with drawings of horses and sections of horses. Yet, in spite of all the paraphernalia presented, the action ended in a non-suit.

In the midst of the proceedings, when Judge Hutton had indicated that he did not think well of the suit, Sutton's attorneys asked that a reporter be called to take the testimony. The judge smiled patiently and granted the request. If the proceedings seemed amusing to some of the onlookers, they meant real business to the reporter, when he came to take the testimony of a veterinary surgeon, who poured out a stream of technical terms.

The point of the case was that the horse had gone lame some time after the purchase. The plaintiff attempted to show that the lameness was caused by a wound received by the animal several years before, the scar of which he found after the lameness appeared. The defense claimed that a long drive and a subsequent hour or two of standing on a sloping road, with the forefeet lower than the hind feet, and heavy cart behind, had much to do with it. Judge Hutton seemed to think so, too.

AUCTION IN COURT.

SMITH CITY LAND TO BE SOLD.

An auction sale of unusual interest will be held next Friday at the Courthouse, when three and a half acres of land, lying between Seventh and Eighth streets, near Grand avenue, will be sold to the highest bidder. The property belonged to the late Eben Smith.

Considerable opposition to the proceedings has come from A. T. Jergins, a real estate dealer, who has a contract with Frank L. Smith, one of the heirs of Eben Smith, for the purchase of the property in question for $160,000. It is said that the land, if subdivided, should bring $150,000, and other heirs objected to the sale to Jergins.

Written bids for the property have been received from D. C. McGarvin and Smith & Deeter, who offer $110,000 and $111,000 respectively, but an order has been entered for the sale of the property in the Superior Court on Friday morning.

MOTHER GETS CHILDREN.

MRS. LUTZ WINS HER SUIT.

In the habeas corpus proceedings of W. F. Godfrey to secure custody of his daughters, who were brought to California by his former wife, Judge Bordwell yesterday handed down a written opinion awarding the custody of the children to their mother, Mrs. Edward Lutz.

"If property interests were involved," the opinion states, "the decision would have to be in accordance with that of the Indiana courts in this case. The decision of those courts, declaring the mother an unfit person to have custody of the children, are binding only in the Indiana courts. The law in such cases is for the interests of the children. These little children need their mother, and no other person can take her place. I find her, now, in every way a fit person to have custody, care and education of the children. The best interests of the children are paramount, and before them all other rights must give way. I regret that the father may not freely enjoy the society of his children. If they were boys, and older, the decision probably would have been different. The determination of the court is for the present only.

COURTHOUSE NOTES.

BREVITIES MISCELLANEOUS.

ALBITRE APPEALS. Delfin Albitre, who was to have been hanged on May 24 in San Quentin prison, has filed notice of appeal through his counsel. This will act as a stay of execution, and may prove an extended one. The Supreme Court calendar for the spring term is so full that the appeal of Albitre may go over to the fall term.

PAROLE. H. O. Bristow pleaded guilty to a charge of forgery in the Superior Court yesterday, and his counsel asked that he be paroled. Dist.-Atty. Fredericks stated that he would offer no objection to parole being granted if it was shown that a position would be open to Bristow on his release. Bristow, an Englishman who has been wealthy and a banker has lost his grip on life to some extent through drink. February 11, while intoxicated, he signed the name "J. M. Chapin" to a check for $18 and cashed it in a clothing store. He afterward asserted that he had no recollection of the circumstance.

CONTRACTOR HILL LOSES. A suit growing out of the Third-street tunnel accident, taken under advisement by Judge Wilbur some months ago, was decided yesterday. The suit was brought by J. A. Hill, one of the tunnel contractors, against the Maryland Casualty Company for $5000, the amount of an indemnity policy taken out by Hill and his partner Swensen. The policy insured the holders against personal injury damage suit to the extent of the amount named. The heirs of W. F. Powley, who was killed in the tunnel, got judgment against the contractors for $5097. At the conclusion of the work on the tunnel Swensen and Hill dissolved partnership, the former having the policy in his possession. It was claimed that he disposed of it to the Maryland Casualty Company without Hill's authority, receiving $3300. Hill had to pay the Powley judgment, and brought suit against the company.

DAMAGE SUIT BEGUN. Before a jury in the Superior Court yesterday, the trial of a damage suit brought by Carter Lightfoot against the Los Angeles Inter-Urban Railway Company for $30,800 was begun. The complaint alleges that a lumber wagon which the plaintiff was driving on July 26, 1906, was run into by a car at the corner of

Under the new pure drugs law the Mennen Company guarantees every box of Mennen's Toilet Powder supplied to the trade, and each box bears the government serial number 1342, guaranteeing that Mennen's Toilet Powder is made and sold in conformity with the terms of the new law.

Doubtless there will still be offered substitutes and imitations described as being "as good as Mennen's." But no one need be deceived by this flimsy excuse for counterfeiting a valuable article. Anyone who has used Mennen's knows that it is absolutely inimitable. There is nothing like it; nothing just as good.

To protect purchasers to the utmost, Mennen's Powder is now put up in the "box that locks," a box which cannot be refilled with an inferior substitute. Insist on having Mennen's and only Mennen's as the only protection against imitations and substitutes.

Have you tried Mennen's Violet Borated Talcum Toilet Powder? Ladies partial to violet perfume will find Mennen's Violet Talcum fragrant with the odor of fresh-plucked Parma violets. For sale everywhere for 25 cts. By mail, postpaid, on receipt of price. Sample free.

Third and Wall streets, Lightfoot being thrown from the wagon and sustaining a triple fracture of the patella of his left leg and a fracture of the right arm.

PACKING COMPANY SUED. In a suit filed yesterday in the office of the County Clerk, Charles Goldenbow asks $10,000 damages from the Maier Packing Company. The complaint alleges that Goldenbow, while working for the company, was thrown from a ladder through the carelessness of an employé of the company in rolling a bale of hay against the ladder, knocking him from it and causing the fracture of his left arm and the spraining of his hip.

LOWE SUED. The claim of George Crocker against Thaddeus S. C. Lowe, president of the People's Gas Company, has come up again in a suit filed yesterday in the County Clerk's office. Crocker is seeking to recover $32,111.06. The claim originated in an action brought by Prof. Lowe against the plaintiff in the present action, in the New York courts, when Crocker was given judgment on a counter suit for the sum which he now seeks to recover in the Superior Court of this county.

SUIT FOR ANNULMENT. Priscilla Ada Layton, in a complaint filed in the County Clerk's office yesterday, asks annulment of her marriage to J. E. Layton. The marriage was performed in Bakersfield in 1897. Mrs. Layton alleges that she had a husband living at the time, and who still lives. Her second marriage, she asserts, was entered into in ignorance, and through misrepresentation of the marriage laws.

DAMAGES AWARDED. A jury in the Superior Court yesterday awarded to O. S. Bridges and Mrs. E. M. Bridges $3000 damages for the death of their son, O. R. Bridges, who was electrocuted on June 21, 1906, while working among some highly-charged electric wires. The parents sued the Los Angeles-Pacific Railway Company for $15,000.

THE INFERIOR COURTS.

ORPHEUM CASE IS DISMISSED.

MANAGER NOT GUILTY OF VIOLATING ORDINANCE.

People Standing in Aisles Prove to Be Policemen and Theater Attaches. Fresh Charges Lodged Against Taylor—Young Embezzler Is Sentenced—Proprietress of Lodging-house Arraigned.

Manager Clarence Drown of the Orpheum Theater was obliged to answer, in the Police Court yesterday, to a charge of violating a fire ordinance. The complaint, which was signed by Patrolman Hackett, declared that the manager had allowed many persons to stand in the aisles of the Orpheum during performances. The manager pleaded not guilty. The charge was dismissed by Justice Chambers.

When the case was called yesterday morning Assistant Prosecutor Eddy said he had found on investigation that people who stood in the aisles of the Orpheum during a certain performance were four policement and six attachés of the theater, who are allowed to remain in the aisles.

Faces New Charges.

F. J. Taylor, formerly employed by the American Novelty Company on San Pedro street, appeared in the Police Court yesterday to answer to three charges of obtaining money by false pretenses. The charges were dismissed one by one, and it seemed for a time as if Taylor would be freed, but two charges of felonious embezzlement were filed. Bail was fixed at $1500 on each charge. Taylor went back to jail.

Confinement is telling upon the prisoner. He has become hollow-eyed and haggard, and is almost a nervous wreck. Relatives are making an effort to secure his release on bail.

Embezzler Sentenced.

Jesse Eagle, a youth of 19, who was formerly employed by Rothe, Zeizler & Co., was yesterday charged with embezzling $6.95 of the firm's money. A. Rothe was the complaining witness. He declared that Eagle has stolen at least $50 from him. Eagle was sentenced to a fine of $90 or ninety days in the City Jail. He went to jail.

Lodging-house Case.

Mrs. Josephine Swift, proprietress of a lodging house at Fifth and San Julian streets, was arraigned before Justice Rose yesterday on the charge of violating the ordinance which provides for the keeping of a register in the house. Sarah M. Seume, a lodger, complained against Mrs. Swift. She will have many things to say concerning the house, it is said, when the case comes to trial on Friday morning.

PRESBYTERIAN WOMEN MEET.

At yesterday's sessions of the Women's Presbyterian Society of the Los Angeles Presbytery, interesting reports were made on the work among foreign residents. Mrs. Frank Wheelan reported on the work among Chinese; Miss Ida Bonne, on Spanish work, and Mrs. Fred Hanna on work among the freedmen. Reports were also made on various other lines of work, and an address was delivered in the afternoon by E. O. Campbell, a missionary. The convention is in session in the First Presbyterian Church and will continue through today.

THE HOUSE IN THE WOOD

Ralph Waldo Emerson once said that if a man living in the midst of a forest made mouse traps and builded them better than his neighbors, the world would blaze a path to his door.

¶ Seventy years, nearly three quarters of a century ago, Wm. Knabe, then unknown to the world, began at Baltimore the manufacture of the Knabe piano, building according to his theories, far in advance of his time, a better, more noble and more splendid piano musically, mechanically and artistically than had ever before been created. The world has "blazed a path to his door;" a path of honor, of fame, of tribute to the master builder of

THE GREATEST PIANO IN THE WORLD

¶ Knabe Pianos are better to-day than ever. Better because of the untiring energy of their present builders—the third generation of Knabes—better because of their fealty to the highest ideals, because of their determination to build always the best the world knows, and better because of the transmission "even unto the third generation" of the magic genius of the earlier master, and combining therewith the most modern of scientific methods in factory, in shop and experimental departments. ¶ Knabe Pianos are shown in all styles in our warerooms, where courteous attention awaits your pleasure. The Time to Act is NOW

As long as death is certain and its coming is uncertain, every man with responsibility must admit that the time to act is now. In its sixty-four years of history the Mutual Life has paid its policy holders 738 millions because they acted on the idea that the time to act is now. This vast sum would have been vastly greater had it included the patronage of men with equal means, in equal health, with equal needs, who failed to apply the truth that the time to act is now.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company has done untold good, has brought untold comfort to the needy as it has faithfully discharged its accruing obligations, but it has no way of helping the man who does not come to realize that the time to act is now. Let us show you what can be done to-day.

LET NO GUILTY MAN GET AWAY.

It is cheering news to the people of California from Tia Juana to Crescent City, from the crests of the Sierras to the breakers on the headlands along the Pacific Ocean that there is to be no respect of persons shown in San Francisco. Prosecutor Heney and his associates cheer all our hearts by the announcement that there is to be no one-sided policy tolerated in the prosecution of the scoundrels whose crooked conduct has made the State metropolis a shame to all the people of the State.

There are two sides to bribery. There can be no bribe taker unless there is a bribe giver. The giver is the person who initiates the wrongdoing. He is usually a man who has less temptation to offer the bribe than the other has to take it. He is also one of whom, because of the station he occupies, more is expected.

There is no question as to the guilt involved in taking a bribe. There is no question of its corrupting effect. Government, instead of safeguarding the rights of the people destroys those rights, where it is conducted on the principle of taking bribes. The severest penalties known to courts of justice should be meted out to the official, high or low, who takes a bribe to influence his official act. But true as this is, the one who gives the bribe is in all respects more reprehensible. He is more dangerous. The laws make no discrimination in his favor. Nor should those who execute the laws. No social, business or political position should be allowed to protect bribe giver or bribe taker. Each is a felon in the eyes of the law. Each is a menace to the stability of society. Each corrupts our political and business life everywhere his contaminating influence touches. Each should be punished with an equally heavy hand. If there is to be any difference, let the measure of mercy be meted out to the humblest, and the fullest measure of punishment to the scoundrel of highest rank. A corrupt Mayor is a greater menace to society than a corrupt janitor or office boy. A corrupt head of a great corporation has more opportunity to poison civic and business life than a clerk. The man high in office should have more moral fiber, and if he has not he should suffer accordingly.

NO OPPORTUNIST NEED APPLY.

There is no doubt of the fact that the minds of the people are much occupied at this early period in trying to solve the difficult problem of who will be the next Republican candidate for the Presidency. The line of cleavage is between those who follow the President and those who are against him. Certain politicians seem to have conceived the notion that there is a growing anti-Rooseveltism. There is always a certain class of politicians of the opportunist type who think the via media or hedging policy is the winning one. This class is usually disappointed in its ambitions. The American people have but little use for that kind of statesman. They have less today than they ever had before.

If we were back in the fifties, we would find this same opportunist very busy straddling political fences. The burning question of the day was slavery. But on both sides of Mason and Dixon's line there were men with the courage of their convictions. The opportunist hated the Northern abolitionist as bitterly as he did the Southern slave holder. Those who can recall the days preceding the Civil War have heard toasts at public gatherings like this: "The abolitionists of the North and the fire-eaters of the South: may they emigrate." Neither emigrated. They both stayed in their place and fought out the "irrepressible conflict" to the bitter end. Among the Whigs and free-soil Democrats of the New England and Middle States there were people who cried, like Patrick Henry's coward before the Revolution, "Peace, peace!" In the one case independence was at stake, and men who were men had to take one side or the other.

Whether Theodore Roosevelt is to be again the nominee or not, the Republican party will not nominate any type of politician for the Presidency but that which follows in the footsteps of the President. The question of supreme importance before the American people is the proper regulation of corporations and trusts. There has been misgiving in minds of many thoughtful and patriotic people as to whether the bounds of moderation were not likely to be overstepped in the administration's efforts to bring the various corporations into conformity with the law. That misgiving is passing away. It will entirely disappear from the minds of the American people as they see more clearly the end where the President's efforts aim to stop. There is no intention on his part to interfere with the legitimate operation of these industrial corporations. There is but little fear that their legitimate operations will be meddled with. There is no thought of asking for the passage of new laws or amendments to old ones which will at all impair the real effectiveness of this corporate action in industries.

Managers of these great corporations are getting a clearer view every day. They are impressed with the fact that the American people will no longer submit to illegal action on the part of these corporations. They see that the determination of the public is to stop all favoritism, tending to further one man's business interests to the detriment of that of a rival. Fair play for everyone is all the people ask, and the temper of the American people is such as will not turn aside from obtaining its just rights. The managers of these corporations, recognizing this public sentiment and fearing inconsiderate action on the part of individual States, are becoming more and more reconciled to Federal supervision. This feeling will grow in these corporations. They will seek of themselves a better understanding with the Federal government. They will recognize that it is for their interests quite as much as for those of the public to have laws which will put into the hands of the Federal government an increased power to force a recognition of the public rights by corporations disposed to trample upon them.

It is this deep-seated feeling of the people generally which lies at the root of the strong demand that Theodore Roosevelt consent to stand for renomination. He has but to hold up his hand or give the least whisper of consent and there will be no other name mentioned. But if the President persists in his determination not to be his own successor, the Republican convention will be content with no other than a candidate who will be pledged to follow in Roosevelt's footsteps.

THE HALF-COCKED WATCHMAN.

The public should be protected against numbskulls wearing official stars as night watchmen, deputy constables, etc. Witness the case of the Mexican needlessly shot by a panic-stricken "special watchman," and now lying at the point of death.

Between a highwayman with a gun, who merely wants your watch, and a stupid watchman with a gun—give us the highwayman for safety.

He is, at least, a person of some discretion.

THE HOLE IN THE RUEF.

The most bewildering thing in the world to a crook is a genuinely unselfish man. Wherefore the fall of that clever crook, Abe Ruef.

He had foreseen everything else; but Rudolph Spreckels was beyond his wildest imagining.

With his fingers on the throat of every branch of the city and county government, Ruef laughed at investigation.

That a man should open his purse and give $100,000 to save the name of his city, "without getting anything out of it," was more than his cramped little soul could comprehend.

San Francisco has a monument to a great sailor who sank a fleet at Manila Bay, and another to a teller of sweet stories. But it needs one more to tell the generations to come of a new man, who to save a city's honor, gave of his substance, "without getting anything out of it."

THE DROPS THAT WATER THE EARTH.

The rains of this season have been both unusually timely and unusually copious. Those not experienced in agricultural lore might come to the conclusion that we are getting somewhat too much of a good thing. As a matter of fact, the gentle rain of March is as timely and beneficial as almost any of the season.

Under the warm suns of this climate the surface of the ground soon bakes where there is clay in the soil. The springing grain is choked in the baked surface. The rain now falling makes the ground soft and before it bakes again the young blades of the grain will have made so good a growth that the vegetation will protect the surface.

Another great benefit of these showers at this time will be felt in the citrus and deciduous fruit orchards. Both are in bloom and the moisture will put new vigor into the trees at a time when their strength is taxed.

Again, these rains near the end of the season are essential to all grain crops. It is the late showers to which farmers look to make the heads grow large and fill out with big kernels.

Once again, such showers as those of the last two days save much work. The meadows will produce another crop of alfalfa without irrigation. Deciduous orchards and walnut groves which would need irrigating in the absence of light rains at this time, will not need such treatment, and the citrus groves will go another month without artificial watering.

The northern and central parts of the State may be getting too much of a storm, but to Southern California this rain is an unmixed blessing. The farmers will be glad to welcome showers all the way into May.

A man in Missouri, who was holding the baby the other day, tried to pick something from the floor and broke his wishbone. Now, who is to support this foolish woman's family?

"How far can Congress go?" asks the Philadelphia Press. This is not a matter for the public but for Uncle Joe Cannon to decide.

SPRING STYLES IN LOS ANGELES.

THAT PACIFIC SQUADRON.

The press dispatches a day or two ago informed us of the intention on the part of the Secretary of the Navy, under the direction of the President, to concentrate the whole American squadron in Pacific waters at one point, Honolulu. In The Times of Tuesday morning a German naval authority was kind enough to point out the danger of such a concentration. The danger lies in the unprotected condition of the harbor of Honolulu from attack by a hostile fleet, the naval superiority of Japan over ourselves in the Pacific, and the constant danger of a breach in the relations between the two governments.

The views of the German sailor are undoubtedly correct in every respect except one. We must not conceive that the Secretary of the Navy, the President of the United States and the admirals who command our fleets were blind to these three points raised by our German friend. They understand this matter quite as well. The American fleet in the Pacific Ocean at the present time is without a single battleship. Armed cruisers are the most formidable fighting machines in our fleet in these waters. A single battleship of the most recent type would suffice to defeat our whole fleet unless some torpedo boat were fortunate enough to creep up unobserved and dynamite the modern fighting leviathan with a single blow. But a hostile battleship in these days would not be left without adequate protection from the attack of a little torpedo boat.

There are probably several reasons for this naval concentration. A fleet is now needed nowhere else. Its concentration at Honolulu is a matter of economy. The Hawaiian Islands are an exceedingly pleasant place for our sailors and officers. It may further be the intention of the Navy Department to enter upon an era of elaborate practice with the fleet. If this is in mind, concentration would render such a practice more economical and more instructive to the whole body of sailors than if there were several practice fields established at different widely separated points.

In the very remote and unhappy event of a disturbance with Japan, a wire to Honolulu would very promptly send our inemicient fleet scurrying for shelter to San Francisco Bay, where they would be safe from any attack. Of course, there is one contingency wherein the assembling of the fleet at Honolulu might be fraught with great danger. Japan, with true Asiatic diplomacy, continued negotiations with Russia with the most effusive professions of a desire for peace until her torpedo boats sneaked into the harbor and destroyed the Russians without the preliminary of a declaration of war. The Japanese Minister was engaged at St. Petersburg in negotiations, apparently with the strongest hope of a diplomatic solution of the difficulty, up to within an hour of the firing upon the Russian vessels. This Russia has never ceased to regard as absolute treachery. And what was it?

Misunderstood Him.

One day an army chaplain saw a soldier of the name of McDonnell making for the back door of a saloon.

"McDonnell!" the chaplain shouted—"McDonnell! Oh, McDonnell!"

McDonnell turned, gave him a hasty look, frowned, and darted into the bar.

The chaplain loitered outside the door till McDonnell came forth again.

"McDonnell," he said, reproachfully, "didn't you hear me calling you?"

"Yes, sir," McDonnell answered, "I did, but—but I only had the price of one drink.—[From Harper's Weekly.

THE GRAY DAY SHE DIED.

The gray day she died, oh, 'tis long to recall,
It is long to remember and long to forget—
The gray hill and glen and the white mists over all,
The dreary, dreary rain and the East winds wet.

It is long to remember, but I cannot forget;
Though many a pathway my feet have wandered wide,
There never comes a gray day but I can see them yet,
The hill and the valley and the place where she died.

They brought in the candles to light the solemn gloom—
Candles for her feet and candles for her head—
We sat with broken voices in the silent, aching room,
With the white mists weaving a shroud for the dead.

Her fingers entwined with her rosary of prayer,
And the East wind sobbing—it would not sink to rest—
And the gray mists falling wet upon her hair.

It is long to remember, 'tis many a year since then,
But I mind you coming in as though 'twere yesterday,
Saying, God was good to us and well He loved us when
He came on a gray day to take her away.

'Tis you that were wise, 'tis you that were strong,
When the white mists fell and the wet winds sighed—
Had a bird in the sun woke the lilt of his song
Our hearts ne'er had borne it the gray day she died.

JOHN S. M'GROARTY.

HOROSCOPE FOR THIS DAY.

Thursday, March 21, 1907.

BY COZETTE.

"A date highly propitious for transferring property."

On this first day of the spring quarter, the moon is in the first quarter, age seven days. Jupiter is evening and Venus morning star.

Jupiter, the kindly, is the planet that rules this day. Be bold, therefore. Seek work. Buy and sell and speculate. Push social affairs as well as business.

A happy day for courtship and marriage, promising success and bliss throughout life.

The propitious influence is most powerful during the first and eighth hours after sunrise, and doubly so for persons born on this date, who may venture on anything without fear.

Females born on this date are fond of the society of the opposite sex, but are not liable to a serious attachment for any one person, while males born on this date are loyal and constant and very cautious in their choice of associates.

Both males and females born on this day are generally endowed with an abundance of electro-magnetic power which not only enables them to attract friends but to effect wonderful cures.

KEEP YOUR CONFIDENCE.

To Make the Most of Yourself Draw Success Your Own Way.

When endeavoring to make the most of yourself, it is of no use to look at the dark side of circumstances. Some people are so inclined to think they are worse off than any one else.

Show people that you intend to succeed, and they will have respect for you; but indicate by voice, gesture or conversation that you have lost confidence in yourself and you immediately lose their confidence.

If you have a mind-ache, or a body-ache, do not accentuate it by trying to get every one to sympathize with you, because every time you talk about it, just in that degree do you strengthen it, and it weighs upon you, perhaps to yourself: "I feel better today, and I shall feel better still when I get to work," you will find that thought will take possession of you. When any one meets you and tells you how well you look, thank that friend for that dose of optimism, even if you happen to have a tiresome cold or pain in some part of your body.

In regard to your business, collect success by drawing it your way. If you think you are going to fail, you become uncertain about yourself, and immediately the thought takes some form. Anticipate success, and you will be able to meet half the difficulties along your road, and you will be surprised how many things will turn your way.

Forget that your friends have slighted you, or neglected to remember your birthday or wedding day, even if they have been accustomed to do so. Forget the money you have lost, or the chance that you nearly grasped. There will be others ahead of you; you can reach out for these. Remember that your mind has a great effect upon your body.

Therefore win back your confidence in yourself. Keep your breastplate bright with anticipations of the future, and you will have no false regrets. Resolve, work and conquer.—[Phrenological Magazine.

SOME OLD PEOPLE.

Thinks God Has Forgotten Her.

Nancy Lancaster Harris of Waterloo, Iowa, has celebrated her 100th birthday, and says she "sometimes thinks the good Lord has forgotten" to call her.

She comes from a family of remarkable longevity. Her grandfather on her mother's side was 106 when he died, and her grandmother was 103. Her father had rounded the century mark when death claimed him, and her mother was 101.

Has Eighty-three Descendants.

Mrs. Mary Wray, a negro woman of Seattle, was born in Virginia in 1807, just 100 years ago. She was married when fifteen years old, and has six children living. The oldest, 85 years old, lives in Tennessee. She has thirty-one grandchildren, thirty-five great-grandchildren and eleven great-great-grandchildren, a total, including her own children, of eighty-three living descendants.

Her mother was a slave and her father a white slave dealer named Richard Johnson, who sold her when a little girl to a wealthy planter named John M. Lovell of Nashville, Tenn., where she lived eighty years. She came to Seattle six years ago. She was sold three times in one year in slavery days.

A Revolutionist 102 Years Old.

Russia has a centenarian revolutionist in Moritz Sergeyeff, who is now for the fourth time on his way to Siberia. Sergeyeff is 102 years old. He began his revolutionary career in 1825, when he served in a rebellious guards' regiment decimated by Nicholas I. In 1840 and again in 1852 Sergeyeff was exiled to Siberia. He returned in 1906, and was, last summer, arrested for having explosives in his possession.

Aged 107 Years, and Happy.

Mme. Robinean is said to be the oldest inhabitant of Paris. She was born in 1800, and went to Paris in 1815.

She is a pleasant old woman, and declares that at her age she still gets plenty of happiness out of life. She spends most of her time in an armchair in a parlor hung with pictures.

Her hours are very regular. Early in the mornig she takes a cup of chocolate and a biscuit. At noon she eats some eggs, mashed potatoes, or peas, and fruit, and in the evening at 6 o'clock, about an hour before she goes to bed, she takes a bowl of soup. She drinks only water, sweetened with a little sugar and colored with a drop of wine. She has had but little meat for years, and only once in a while she takes a little breast of chicken. On this diet she expects to live happily for many years.

Smoker 113 Years Old.

Mrs. Elizabeth Freeman of Butler, Pa., who has lived through one round century and parts of the eighteenth and twentieth centuries, during the administration of every one of the twenty Presidents of the United States, celebrated her 113th birthday, in Madison township, Clarion county.

"Aunt Betty," as she is called, is active and bright, in the best of health, and is fond of outdoor life. She loves her pipe dearly, and years ago, before the smoking habit of youth. She has ample for these does not shorten mining boom on the desert of ardino county is to be supplemented by an oil boom in Riverside. Number of Angelenos have caught fever and are locating claims in the hills along the Espee between Indio and Mecca, in the Salton Valley, and six miles from the Salton years ago there was an oil excitement around Indio. Nothing in the way of production came of it, but there are those who believe that the valley yet prove the land to be rich for petroleum. North of Indio, some ten miles, at Shaver's Well, it is found that will burn for several minutes.

Party of ladies from Los Angeles have been on the ground, it is said, for the purpose of locating some claims. Mrs. Weir is said to be one of the party. L. E. Browne, an engineer of this city, has also just been in the district and located ten claims for himself.

Company of San Diego people is said to put up a rig for immediate drilling at some point in this district. There have been several oil booms in different parts of the Southern California deserts at different times, but none have yielded results, although money was spent by a number of men in the work. In no case, however, was any deep drilling done in the territory thoroughly pros-

Are Producers in Trust?

Many oil men, as well as among investors, the belief is expressed that the reason for the withdrawal of the offer by the Fulton Oil Company to sell road oil for 25 cents at the tanks is due not only the difficulty—almost impossibility—of getting an adequate number of cars although the latter is unquestionably true, but also because pressure is brought to bear by the combination of producers of Sunset oil, headed by the Blodgett people. This comprises practically all the producers of heavy oil except the Fulton, and it is not improbable that the latter has entered the agreement because there was no contract between the company and the county the former would no doubt, withdraw its offer and operate as it has done.

The Fulton is one of the three companies headed by John M. Wright, of which the Peerless is the parent company. With him low prices have been associated. He offered the Standard an unlimited quantity of oil at 30 cents at a time when prices were soaring. He has since contracted to furnish 9,000,000 barrels at this figure from the Kern Peerless property and of this more than 3,000,000 barrels remain to be delivered. To counter a combination whose prices would be a decided reflection of former policy.

According to the Fulton's last report, it has on hand over 78,000 barrels of oil, the value of which is carried at 25 cents a barrel. In the Peerless report, Mr. Wright says he is producing at Kern River at a cost of 6¼ cents. While the formerly difficulty in handling the low-gravity oil produced, a method is discovered by Mr. Bixby of the Adeline has rendered it possible to produce about as well as the lighter oils.

"This basis a profit should be easily at 25 cents, but Mr. Wright, in common with other producers talking in his report of the future for 31 a barrel in the future, he may have entered the com-

The Standard-has made locations for new wells made just south of the old holes on the Oil City Petroleum Co. 28-19-15. The evidence is that the trust intends to push development to the limit to avoid having to buy from its rival, the California Oil Fields, Ltd.

Orders are to be put up at once on property just purchased by W. M. Bixby, manager of the Oil Fields, on section 6.

The Union is expected to do some drilling on 24-29-14, along the line of its property, where the Indian Wabash companies are drilling and pumping.

The Commercial Petroleum has rigs for two wells on 31-19-15.

The L. C. Oil Company is down 800 feet on its first with a 12¼-inch casing, and 300 feet on the second, with a 13-inch casing, on section

EXTENDING THE DISTRICT.

The Esperanza Land and Oil Company is preparing to put down test wells on its lands on section 30-21-15 in Indian Cañon, some two miles or more from the proven district, the latter producing well being on the adjoining section 6. Water wells have already been sunk, and operations are now waiting for an improvement in the roads, which are almost impassable. W. H. Kerr is superintendent of this company and of the Hamilton Company.

COMPANIES WILL LIQUIDATE.

The Oil City Petroleum and the Twenty-eight Oil Company, whose properties have been sold to the Standard, have determined to distribute their stockholders at once the $850,000 realized from the trust, as a preliminary to winding up the affairs of the two corporations. Shareholders of the former will receive $7.8577 for each share, and those of the Oil City Petroleum will get $0.7845 on each share. Dividends amounting to $1 a share have already been declared on the first. On the second the dividends were 20 cents.

Three More to Be Drilled.

Three more wells are to be put down on the property of Pitcher & Hall and the Union Oil Company of the Amalgamated. The well at the same time since continues to do well.

Embroideries
On Sale Friday at 25c

Nothing more need be said to insure a clean-up of the entire seventy-five thousand-yard lot—enough of our old customers are anxiously waiting for them.

But to give new residents an idea of what to expect when THIS store announces its annual embroidery sale we go somewhat in detail:

All new, crisp, clean goods in the patterns now shown in America's best stores.

7 to 22-inch edges of fine swiss, cambric and nainsook, in almost no end of dainty designs—many of them identical with goods selling today from our regular stock at 50c, 75c, $1.00, $1.50, $2.00, and even up to $3.50 a yard.

Insertions and medallions of equal value are included.

When you consider that sixty thousand yards were sold on the 28th of last March—with the values running only to $1.50 a yard—you may look for much greater excitement tomorrow, with hundreds of yards of $2 to $3.50 goods scattered through the collection.

Entire Main Floor (Over 20,000 Square Feet) Given Over to Their Selling

Over a hundred sales people aside from those regularly employed in the embroidery and lace departments will be in attendance.

And to further facilitate matters we have had all the goods cut into 1 1-2 to 6 3-4 yard strips, with length marked on each one.

None will be cut.

Skirts Free---Complete

It's the tailoring in a skirt that counts, no denying that. No matter how expensive the material, if the cutting and making are even a little way off, the entire effect is bad. It's a rule, clever tailoring costs, but not here, for we place at your command the services of the best men-tailors money can hire, without charge.

The only conditions are that you purchase the materials of us; (we give you choice of any piece of material in the whole dress goods section at $1 or higher a yard;) that you pay for the necessary findings, and we will then make a 7-gore or circular skirt for you absolutely free of further expense. If you prefer a plaited or trimmed skirt (bands, straps or buttons) the additional cost is very slight.

And remember this, always: If the skirt when finished, is not entirely satisfactory, we will refund all money for making and findings, and also give you similar goods by the yard to that which went into your skirt. If that isn't proof of our confidence in our ability to please you, we don't know what is.

We use only the best findings—pure silk thread, etc. We sponge and refinish all materials in our own plant, the most complete in the West, for only 5c a yard.

We also make to order coats, guaranteeing absolute satisfaction. By getting your skirt made free, and having your coat made to mesure, you can secure a stylish tailored suit at a cost of as little as $25.

As special invitation for you to see the made-up models of skirts and coats, and to get an idea of the vastness of this section, we call your especial notice to these

Real imported suitings, in light checks, stripes, plaids and narrow hairlines, at $1.25, $1.50, $1.75 and $2 a yard.

Some American suitings of splendid quality, in white grounds under black checks, hairlines and plaids, green or gray backgrounds, at 50c.

Embroideries 12 1-2c Yard

Today we begin the sale of the exceptionally fine and dainty matched edgings and insertions that you've been admiring in an entrance windows. They'll go rapidly enough at 12 1-2c a yard, because their excellence is obvious. Edges range in width from 3 1-2 to 4 inches, insertions 1-2 to 1 inch. All done on finest Swiss and nainsook materials.

Printed Plumatis 25c Yard

A novelty wash goods fabric has just come to us—material to make into summer gowns which will stand out from the crowd and distinguish the wearer by their dainty beauty. Decidedly handsome, and only twenty-five cents a yard.

Note, please, that every bag is leather lined, and has the new strap handle, all have inside purse, some have in addition, a leather card case—two articles which you couldn't buy separately for what we ask for the whole combination today. FEDERAL INQUIRY WIDE IN SCOPE.

AGRICULTURAL DEPARTMENT IS AFTER RAILROADS.

Local Cases Against Santa Fe and Expos Only Part of General Movement Made in Interest of Public Health—Lawler Has Some Revelations.

As predicted, the United States Attorney filed a complaint yesterday morning against the Southern Pacific railroad alleging a violation of the Federal statute regarding the care and treatment of cattle in transit.

This complaint is in two counts, both of which are co-related to the Santa Fe complaint previously reported in The Times.

Interesting facts concerning this matter came out yesterday.

Mr. Lawler is doing his part in a campaign started by the United States Department of Agriculture, and a number of letters he has received lately from the Attorney-General of the United States have assisted him materially in his work.

These new complaints are not based on matter discussed by the grand jury, and are therefore not indictments, but mere civil suits. After the statute had been so formed that a penalty for mistreatment of live stock was liable, all the railroads were warned in ample time to observe the regulation. Yet the Department of Agriculture received last year 404 complaints from afflicted shippers.

Similar actions are commenced in other places, and the movement was started not only in mere humanitarianism, but also for scientific and physiological reasons. Most of the cattle coming in here, as in other large cities, arrive to be slaughtered. Government inspection proves that the flesh of animals killed in fright or fatigue contains toxins which are absolutely poisonous, and therefore unfit for food.

Mr. Lawler relates one flagrant case that came under his personal observation a short time ago. One of the local packing establishments hourly expected a car of cattle to arrive from Arizona. But when the train bearing it did get in, it had been delayed in various ways for many hours. It was then after dark, and the packing company telephoned the railroad people immediately to put the car on its private track, and merely run the animals into the corral, where they could rest comfortably for the night. The slaughtering hour with this concern is 9 o'clock in the morning.

Next morning, on going down to the yards, the packing-house men found that the railroad people had not the faintest idea as to the whereabouts of the car. Personal search revealed it casually side-tracked among a lot of furniture, lumber and empty "boxes." The poor, gaunt cattle, weakened and suffering, had been without proper food or water or any rest for over fifty hours.

The law provides that proper food and water shall be given, and that the cattle shall be taken out of the cars and rested for at least five hours out of every twenty-eight.

ADDS HALF INCH TO OUR TOTAL.

SEASON'S WETNESS ALMOST EIGHTEEN INCHES HERE.

Precipitation Has Been General Over Southern California—While Numerous Kinds of Crops Have Not Needed It a Good Many Others Will Be Benefited by Moisture.

The storm has in Los Angeles, according to the Weather Bureau reading, added .51 inch to the rainfall for the season, making the total now 17.75 inches. The total of the readings for the season by The Times rain gauge, which is situated at some distance from the Weather Bureau, is 19.23 inches.

The rain has been general over Southern California. Although there are many kinds of crops which are not needing the moisture, there are a good many others which will be benefited.

The rainfall at Ocean Park for the present storm amounted to .31 inch up to this afternoon. The season's total is 15.44 inches.

At Long Beach a gentle storm of two days' duration has increased the rainfall for the season in that city by .31 of an inch, and brought the total for the season to 11.40 inches.

The rainfall Tuesday and yesterday at Claremont was about 1.5 inches, making the total for the season over 20 inches. Heavy snows are reported on the mountains and the cañon streams have risen a number of inches. A large stream is flowing through the wash east of town.

At Riverside yesterday, rain had been falling softly but steadily for twenty-four hours, amounting to half an inch. This brings the total fall for the season up to 15 inches. Orange picking will be checked for a time in consequence, giving the railroads opportunity to catch up in their orders for cars. The rain has been of benefit to the outside grain-growing sections of the county. The fall at Perris and San Jacinto has been practically the same as at Riverside.

Another heavy rainstorm visited Ventura Tuesday night, and continued throughout yesterday with the prospect of a long storm. A half inch of rain fell in the night. The total rainfall for the season has been to date nearly 26 inches, as against 11 inches at the same date last year. Reports from the Oxnard section say that the beet growers are much worried over the outlook, as the ground is too wet to plow and plant. By this time generally the crop is well out of the ground.

Nearly an inch of rain fell yesterday at Santa Barbara, increasing the season's total to 24.42 inches.

At Elsinore a heavy rain began at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The drizzle that yesterday had been falling steadily at Santa Ana for thirty hours increased to a steady fall, and over half an inch of rain had fallen. The rain does damage to the ranchers because it keeps back plowing. There has been such an abundance of wet weather since Christmas that the ranchers have not had clear weather enough to work their ground.

PAINTING "OLD BALDY."

DUARTE, March 20.—Messrs. Charles Ward and A. C. Conners of Los Angeles are here, the latter engaged in sketching "Old Baldy" for a picture which he has been commissioned to paint for one of the western railroads. Mr. Conners declares that no view of this world-renowned mountain, from an artistic view, equals that to be had just east of the Santa Fé station.

SALT LAKE TROUBLE.

gar a most ingenious system of dikes and levees was constructed to break the force of the water as it came down tearing the hills.

Although no real cloudbursts have since occurred there, the dikes have stood up with entire satisfaction and with entire credit to the learning of the engineers who built them.

The trouble zone lies out toward Caliente—far beyond Las Vegas.

The road there turns into a rugged hill country. It follows an imitative, meek-looking, hanging river called the Meadow Valley Wash.

Caliente itself lies in so abrupt a bend of the hills that you can't see how the train is ever to find a way out again.

These hills, too, are "painted" and are among the great sights of the world.

Meadow Valley is historic as the scene of the great Mormon massacre in which one of the intended victims was old "Lucky" Baldwin—young Baldwin then, and not yet known as "Lucky." It seems always to have been ill-fated.

The harmless little river is dry in summer. In winter it usually develops a discreet stream that goes bubbling down to join the Virgin River, and together they flow politely into the Colorado.

WHERE TROUBLE COMES.

Salt Lake engineers say that the Oregon Short Line never had the slightest trouble with this river and no trouble was ever expected with the Salt Lake tracks, summer or winter.

The river and the railroad twine up the cañon together, the tracks crossing the river something like a hundred times in the course of eighty miles. It is like a vine climbing up a stick.

In some places the cañon is wide and in some places it is narrow. It forms a fine flume for the river to rush down.

The unprecedented floods of two years ago swelled that river to a howling, tearing freshet, the track being flung around like old sticks.

Although every effort was made to strengthen the roadbed, this year the floods came worse than ever. Every one of the hundred crossings became a source of danger to the track.

It is conceded by the Salt Lake people that the washed-out portions of the track are in almost innumerable places through that valley wash.

The purpose of the present commission of engineers investigating the washouts is to see if the track can be rendered immune to washouts in the future. If not, to consider the advisability of making an entirely new survey.

One of the party is Chief Engineer Tilton of the Salt Lake.

Meanwhile, the whole road is out of commission with the exception of the branch into Rhyolite and Bullfrog, and the local traffic lines. It is estimated that the Salt Lake has already lost $2,000,000 by the washouts, counting the loss of business and the repair expenses.

At the Salt Lake offices it was said frankly that it will be impossible to predict how long the road will remain tied up until the rain ceases in the Meadow Valley wash.

EASTER CHURCH SALE.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the West Adams Methodist Church will hold an Easter sale on Friday afternoon and evening. Booths will be arranged to represent the days of the week, and each will have on sale articles suitable to the day.

RAIDED AGAIN.

Police Descend a Second Time on the "Crib" District but Make Only Two Arrests.

Plain-clothes patrolmen made the second raid of the police department on the reopened Ballerino cribs last evening. Two women were taken to Central Station and booked on charges of soliciting, after the others had gone. Each furnished $25 bail.

Save for this raid late in the evening, the women were not molested. In Monday evening's raid vagrancy was the offense charged against the prisoners, who have not yet been tried. The men who are operating the new cribs will make a fight on the soliciting charge on the ground that the place is an enclosure of private property with a guarded gate into which men may enter or not at their pleasure, and without being seen prior to entrance by the inmates.

There was no interference last evening with the Commercial-street houses or those on Alise street. Councilman Barney Healey took a hand in the fight yesterday, when he stated that he had been approached by a number of parties in the interest of removing the women from Commercial and Alise streets. The state of affairs in the Eighth Ward has materialized into a scattering of women over a large part of its territory and Healey will ask that this be remedied. At present there is a petition before the Mayor asking that this be done. It came from business men in the ward.

The police raids which have been made with a view to preventing reopening of the Ballerino section, have been ordered by the Chief through one of the patrol captains.

I wish to make the positive statement that this week closes my sale of these shares. If you, Mr. Investor, think that this is an advertising "dodge," let me assure you that you have misjudged me in my announcements. The marvelous accomplishments of this industry are almost unbelievable. Less than six months ago this proposition was launched. In that short time, the factory has been built. The markets of the world have been captured, as proves by the sale of the German rights, which, on the royalty agreement, should produce a revenue of almost a million a year. The engine has not failed in a single instance to prove its power, economy and utility. The shares have an estimated value of about eight dollars, and that is the reason why I can't sell you any more after Saturday, but until then the few remaining hundreds will be sold at my advertised price of one dollar and fifty cents each ($1.50,) reserving the right to sell them in blocks of not less than 10 shares, or more than 500, to any one person.

MEASLY MOTIVE OF "PROHIBS."

CRY LIKE SPANKED CHILD AND WANT SOME TAFFY.

False Charge and Abuse of Dr. Chapman—President of Anti-Saloon League Says Wheeler Knew Better. Good Result of "Stainless Flag" Lecture.

It has long been suspected that the political Prohibitionists, busies doing nothing themselves in the way of temperance reform, are jealous of anybody who does.

Sane, sensible people, in this enlightened age, who champion any good cause, are glad to see the end accomplished, even though they have failed to have a personal part in the victory, but "rule or ruin" seems to be the motto of Prohibition.

Several weeks ago The Times gave liberal space to the now famous opinion of Judge Artman of Indiana, in which he declared that the saloon is logically and fundamentally illegal, "because of its inherently destructive effects upon society."

Accompanying the opinion of Judge Artman was a review of the work of Dr. Ervin S. Chapman, superintendent of the State Anti-Saloon League, and a resident of Los Angeles, in which Dr. Chapman was said to be the originator of the movement that led to the remarkable opinion by Judge Artman. While it is a fact that Dr. Chapman has talked this on the platform persistently and almost unceasingly for the nine years he has been superintendent of the league, and last year crystallized his belief into a notable lecture, entitled "The Stainless Flag," it is now learned that simultaneously Col. Eli F. Ritter of Indianapolis brought out the same arguments in a book, published in 1896, but of which Dr. Chapman had no knowledge, and he is, therefore, entitled to at least equal credit with Col. Ritter, who is his acquaintance and friend, as well as a personal friend of Judge Artman.

Dr. Chapman had nothing whatever to do with the statement that he was the originator of the contention, and he made no such claim. In fact, he disavowed credit, in an interview that was not at all of his own seeking, and deprecated having anything said in that direction, as he declared it would be misconstrued. But, believing it to be only fair recognition of the efforts of an able fellow-citizen and of his lecture, the statement was made in good faith. Later developments do not shake this belief.

SHAM REFORMERS RILED.

But how it did raise Cain among the Prohibitionists!

Here comes one F. F. Wheeler, a professional reformer, never known to reform anything, who seizes upon this praise of Dr. Chapman, and, in the same of the Prohibitionists, belabors him with epithets as vile as any saloon-keeper might select to express his feelings against the same man. The whole temper of Wheeler's article, which was published in The Voice, of this city, an obscure weekly paper, shows it to be simply a pretext to "get back at" Dr. Chapman and the Anti-Saloon League. This combination has accomplished everything that has been accomplished, in the way of saloon extinction in Southern California, while Wheeler's and [illegible] simply howled at election times. The latter has been this pursuit of Dr. Chapman, that it has aroused the indignation of his many friends, who know him as a refined, courteous, honorable gentleman, but a bunch of dynamite when it comes to "blowing up" the liquor business.

Dr. Hugh K. Walker, president of the state Anti-Saloon League, is pastor of Immanuel Presbyterian Church, one of the strongest and wealthiest congregations in Los Angeles; he is a man so good and kind that he rarely gets excited, but his feathers were not all smooth yesterday. To put it mildly, he was highly indignant concerning personal affronts thrown at Dr. Chapman.

WHEELER KNEW BETTER.

"F. F. Wheeler was with me in the First Methodist Church of this city [illegible] months after Dr. Chapman returned from his eastern tour," said Dr. Walker, "and heard him repeat his Stainless Flag' lecture. Mr. Wheeler also heard Dr. Chapman state most emphatically that he claimed no part either bringing the action or securing the decision of Judge Artman, and [illegible] attack on Dr. Chapman must, therefore, be without any foundation whatever, as I know it to be. Mr. Wheeler may, if he likes, take exception to the statement in The Times that the Indiana decision was [illegible] by the 'Stainless Flag' movement, but he has no right to charge Dr. Chapman with newspaper statements which he has no connection with, after having heard a personal [illegible] in advance.

"It was perfectly natural for your reporter to connect the several events following the Indiana decision. Dr. Chapman closed his lecture tour through twenty-two States in November, the same month the National Saloon League at St. Louis did a remarkable thing in voting to issue in at least a million copies, and [illegible] months later came the opinion of Judge Artman."

As president of the Anti-Saloon League, Dr. Walker says he will demand a retraction of the derogatory [illegible] of Dr. Chapman.

"By their fruits ye shall know them,' is an acceptable rule to Dr. Chapman, who needs no defense, and who, to the political Prohibitionists, though they may squall like spoiled child when any good thing is [illegible] without their aid, must stand [illegible] by the same rule."

"Years ago, when Dr. Chapman came to Los Angeles, in charge of the work of the league, the nine counties in the west, and the Prohibitionists [illegible] nothing whatever to do with [illegible] movement to banish the saloons, the league gave them the opportunity of the counties now have local option, with from one to two-thirds of their territory [illegible] have assisted in this work, and the organization has done nothing [illegible] the utmost vigor has [illegible] work under Dr. Chapman, [illegible] thirty years has been a Prohibitionist before taking up what he [illegible] the better way. In the face of [illegible] having done the work that the [illegible] claimed to be trying to do, is assailed with vituperation [illegible] by these very reformers.

A MEASLY MOTIVE.

"Happily the Anti-Saloon League has pioneered the old Prohibition [illegible] over the country, that it is apparent that this is the place [illegible] the motive. Otherwise, these reformers, they would have had been done, and [illegible] for the good of the [illegible] of that, this man [illegible] his slanderous and [illegible] seen his standard all over the country, [illegible] a Prohibition petition [illegible] it was even pub-

MEASLY MOTIVE OF "PROHIBS."

SAY LIKE SPANKED CHILD AND WANT SOME TAFFY.

Felon Charge and Abuse of Dr. Chapman—President of Anti-Saloon League Says Wheeler Knew Better. Real Result of "Stainless Flag" Lecture.

It has long been suspected that the political Prohibitionists, besides doing nothing themselves in the way of temperance reform, are jealous of anybody who does.

Some sensible people, in this enlightened age, who champion any good cause, are glad to see the end accomplished, even though they have failed to have a personal part in the victory, for "rule or ruin" seems to be the motto of Prohibition.

Several weeks ago The Times gave liberal space to the now famous opinion of Judge Artman of Indiana, in which he declared that the saloon is legally and fundamentally illegal, because of its inherently destructive effects upon society."

Accompanying the opinion of Judge Artman was a review of the work of Dr. Irvin S. Chapman, superintendent of the State Anti-Saloon League, and a resident of Los Angeles, in which Dr. Chapman was said to be the originator of the movement that led to the remarkable opinion by Judge Artman. While it is a fact that Dr. Chapman has talked this on the platform persistently and almost unceasingly for the last five years he has been superintendent of the league, and last year formulated his belief into a notable lecture, entitled "The Stainless Flag," it is now learned that simultaneously Mr. F. Ritter of Indianapolis brought out the same arguments in a book published in 1896, but of which Dr. Chapman had no knowledge, and which, therefore, entitled to at least equal credit with Col. Ritter, who is a fellow acquaintance and friend, as well as a personal friend of Judge Artman.

Dr. Chapman had nothing whatever to do with the statement that he was the originator of the contention, and never made so such claim. In fact, he disavowed credit, in an interview that was not at all of his own seeking, and deprecated having anything said in that direction, as he declared it could be misconstrued. But, believing it to be only fair recognition of the efforts of an able fellow-citizen and of his lecture, the statement was made in good faith. Later developments do not shake this belief.

PROHIBITION REFORMERS RILED.

Just how it did raise Cain among the Prohibitionists!

First comes one F. F. Wheeler, a professional reformer, never known to reform anything, who seizes upon the name of Dr. Chapman, and, in the name of the Prohibitionists, begins him with epithets as vile as any saloon-keeper might select to express his feelings against the same man. The whole temper of Wheeler's letter, which was published in The Times of this city, an obscure weekly paper, shows it to be simply a pretext to "get back at" Dr. Chapman as the Anti-Saloon League. This letter has accomplished everything that has been accomplished, in the way of saloon extinction in Southern California, while Wheeler's and others howling at election times.

Wheeler has been this pursuit of Chapman, that it has aroused the indignation of his many friends, who know him as a refined, courteous, honorable gentleman, but a bunch of dynamite when it comes to "blowing up" other business.

Rev. Hugh K. Walker, president of the Anti-Saloon League, is pastor of the fashionable Presbyterian Church, one of the largest and wealthiest congregations in Los Angeles; he is a man so kind hearted that he rarely gets his feathers were not all ruffled yesterday. To put it mildly, he is highly indignant concerning the personal affronts thrown at Dr. Chapman.

WHEELER KNEW BETTER.

"Mr. F. Wheeler was with me in the Methodist Church of this city months after Dr. Chapman returned from his eastern tour," said Dr. Walker, "and heard him repeat his 'Stainless Flag' lecture. Mr. Wheeler knew Dr. Chapman state most emphatically that he claimed no part whatever in bringing the action or securing the decision of Judge Artman, and that Dr. Chapman must, therefore, be without any foundation for what I know it to be.

"Further, if he likes, take exception to the statement in The Times that the Indiana decision was due to the 'Stainless Flag' movement, but he has no right to charge me, with newspaper statements which he has no connection with having heard a personal word in advance.

"It is perfectly natural for your paper to connect the several events following the Indiana decision. Dr. Chapman closed his lecture tour in twenty-two States in November month the National League at St. Louis did a wise thing in voting to issue Chapman's 'Stainless Flag' to at least a million copies, and it is little later came the opinion of the Supreme Court of the Anti-Saloon League says he will defend the action of the derogatory remarks of Dr. Chapman.

"By their fruits ye shall know them' is an acceptable rule to Dr. Walker, who needs no defense, and is to the political Prohibitionists although they may squall like a catamount when any good thing is done without their aid, must stand by the same rule."

Further, when Dr. Chapman, in charge of the Los Angeles, in charge of the nine counties and the Prohibition-ists to banish the saloons, to vote when the Anti-saloon gave them the opportunity in the counties now, have one or more of them are dry, with from two-thirds of their territory under individual Prohibition, as stated in this work, which has done nothing with more vigor has Dr. Chapman, who has been a Prohibitionist taking up what he considered a better way. In the face of the work that the Rev. Walker claimed to be trying to do, with its superstition and its bigotry by these very words.

MEASLY MOTIVE.

Is this the Anti-Saloon League or the old Prohibition party of this country, that it is necessary to say that this is the place to register protest against Chapman's methods? Otherwise, why should they would not have protest against what has been done, and for the good of the cause of that, this man Chapman, who is without any foundation for what he has done and is doing over the country, as a Prohibition organization even published in a New York paper, with a reproduction of The Times heading over the Chapman article, and all the abuse of Dr. Chapman was there rehashed.

The only reasonable solution of this is that it is a determined and systematic effort to discredit the "Stainless Flag" movement, which is one of the most remarkable events in the history of temperance reforms, by discrediting its author, but both will fail.

The lecture was first delivered by Dr. Chapman in this city in June, 1906. It made such an impression on the 250 ministers before whom it was delivered that they asked the State league to send Dr. Chapman to deliver it throughout the United States. The State organization took it up with the national league, and under the auspices of the latter, he made a three months' tour, visiting twenty-two States, and delivering it to special audiences of leaders of thought—preachers, lawyers and leading laymen.

The climax was reached when the national league at St. Louis decided to print one million copies of the lecture and send it throughout the country. It is now being printed in this city, with a magnificent illuminated cover, and every minister in the United States has been asked to preach a sermon on the subject, on June 30. Prior to that date every one of them will have a copy of the lecture, for his information, and hundreds of them for distribution to his flock. It must be, therefore, that the onus of the attack of the Prohibitionists is to attempt to discredit the deliverer of the lecure, and to discount its effect when circulated, as it seems apparent that its suggested plan of action will be accepted among the sincere temperance people of the country.

Dr. Chapman recently received two telegrams that gave him a new appetite for more places to "go dry."

From Denver came the word on Monday from E. E. McLaughlin that the local-option bill finally passed the Legislature, by a vote of 26 to 7, with the words added: "Governor will sign."

The other telegram was from W. R. Hamilton, Knoxville, Tenn., where a vote was taken on the question of no saloons. The vote was 4194 against the saloon and 2253 in favor. The result will be to put out of business 114 saloons in the city.

For fear the thing was done in both these instances at the dictation of Dr. Chapman, there may be some people in the Prohibition ranks in Los Angeles who would prefer that neither had taken place, but that fact will not cause the "real thing" temperance man to lose any sleep.

UNCONSCIOUS IN WEEDS.

Delirious County Hospital Patient Seems Cured of Heart Trouble by Exposure.

Wandering in delirium, Thomas O'Donnell, a patient at the County Hospital, stumbled about the grounds for hours Tuesday night. He was found at 4 o'clock yesterday morning, lying unconscious in a clump of weeds.

O'Donnell was suffering from heart disease and had been gradually growing worse. His condition was serious on Tuesday. While the nurses were out of the ward, the sick man arose from his cot and stole away. His experience has wrought an apparent cure. Yesterday, in spite of a night spent in the open air with nothing on but his night robe, he was so far improved that he was able to sit up in bed. His fever had left him and physicians say that he will recover.

Tea as Fuel.

Some facts regarding tea and its uses are given in an article in the Scientific American. Some of the uses of the spent tea leaves by the economical Chinese are given. In the first place, they may be dried and pressed into bricks to be used as fuel. One use of this fuel is in curing pork, and pork thus cured is highly esteemed. The ashes of the fuel are used as fertilizers. At other times the spent leaves are stewed, or allowed to stand a long time in water, to extract the tannin, which is used in making leather and for producing a nut-brown dye. Sometimes the old leaves are used for fodder, or they may be mixed with new leaves to form what is known as "lie-tea."

The Bohemian Club of Los Angeles, composed exclusively of business and professional men of the city and vicinity, and a fine literary and musical programme was served up with the dinner. There were recitations by Prof. G. A. Dobinson, vocal solos by A. B. Downs, and an address by Supreme President Pashay.

MONG the many pleasant affairs of the week none has been more delightful than the luncheons at Gen. and Mrs. Adna R. Chaffee's No. 2216 South Figueroa street have been host and hostess.

The other rooms of the home were decorated in white roses, lilies and ferns, in which orange blossoms mingled their fragrance. Miss Jessie Blake played the wedding march from "Lohengrin" as the couple approached the altar, and Mendelssohn's "Spring Song" during the ceremony, concluding with Mendelssohn's march.

Miss Bessie Rank, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and was attired in a becoming frock of pink silk and lace, and carried pink carnations. The bride, who was given away by her father, was a pretty picture, her brunette beauty

The girls of the Gamma Gamma Phi sorority have issued invitations for a large and brilliant dancing party to be given on the evening of April 4 at the Cinnagh Hall. Three hundred invitations have been issued, and the girls are planning a fine party.

Selby Worshiped.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Selby, who went over a year ago to Johannesburg, South Africa, are leading a life rich with vivid and picturesque experiences. Mrs. Selby was formerly Miss Rowena Rogers, one of the attractive local society girls.

Now she writes from Johannesburg that there is "great excitement" on the ranch, for twenty-four downy chicks have just come out of the incubator.

To the little brown Kaffir boys this creation by means of boxes is a great mystery.

"You cannot make chickens out of a box," said one inquisitive brown boy, who looked suspiciously about the incubator.

To Mr. Selby they have credited this wondrous performance, and therefore think he must have some mysterious power. They have christened him "maju boss." This means he is great and knows everything. In fact, they are rather taken to worshipping him, after a fashion, owing to his wonderful achievements in making chickens come in boxes, for such this seems to them.

The Kaffirs call all the white men who are over them "boss," and "maju" means something wonderful and great. The little brown boys about the place look upon Selby as almost a god.

Mr. and Mrs. Selby have moved from Johannesburg, and are now situated in a beautiful country home near the diamond mines, of which Selby is the managing manager. Their home here is more elegant than the one they formerly occupied in, and with it are gardeners and coachmen and many servants. They are now living in the "big" style in connection with the mine and in consequence high among the social clan of that land. There everywhere in the social scale depends upon one's position in the business world which holds. If they are high in the realm of finance, and have many persons to do them honor, they are high and lofty, but should the same people be only less their position in the social world, down they would come, heedless of family, etcetera.

Lee and Myers rendered several vocal selections, which were much appreciated. Mrs. Nelsy Coleman, formerly of Glendora, also delighted the audience with splendidly rendered vocal solos. Miss Lena Cox, pianist, played several selections from Chopin. During the evening a number of mountain trips were enjoyed. Guests invited to meet the honore guests were: Misses Margaret Cullen, Agnes Cullen, Helen Dean Beak, Daisy Fenton, Ella Fray, friend La Petra, and Messrs. McLashlan Is Bride.

They were married at No. 422 Lake street, and the house for the evening was transformed in white and green, and with orange blossoms, ferns and asparagus were combined in the form of a fairy canopy of asparagus vine, from which orange blossoms hung in profusion, while the fragrance was over the house. The party during the ceremony, which was performed a pretty background of Yellow jonquils and tulle were carrying out the decorative scheme. The bride, who was given away by her uncle, J. H. Russell, of El Paso, looked a charming picture, clad in white satin costume of white chiffon with court train and trimmed with duchesse lace. Her misty tulle veil was caught with orange blossoms and she carried in the curve of her arm a shower bouquet of the valley. Mrs. Joseph Vaughan, a sister of the groom, was a gown of pale green panne, and assisted in dressing the veil. The Duchesse furnished music, and as the couple approached the altar, "Call Me Thine Own," during the ceremony, and Mendelssohn's march as they left the church.

Mrs. Vaughan, who is a charmingly pretty girl, has been widely feted, since announcement of her engagement to Mr. Vaughan is a young man, connected with Edwards & Co. After a trip to Coronado the young people will be at home April 1 at No. 422 Lake

Going Westward.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Selby, who went over a year ago to Johannesburg, South Africa, are leading a life such as only cosmopolitan experiences. Mrs. Selby was formerly Miss Nowena Hogan, one of the attractive local society girls.

Their late letters from Johannesburg say there is "great excitement" on the Rand, for twenty-four diggers there have just come out of the fifties.

To the little brown Kaffir boys this is done by means of boxes is a great mystery.

"You cannot make chickens out of a boy," said the inquisitive brown boy, as he looked consciously about the interior.

To Mr. Selby they have credited this wonderful performance, and therefore he must have some mysterious power. They have christened him "Big Boss." This means he is great and knows everything. In fact, they rather relish in worshipping him. He is a jester, owing to his wonderful improvements in making chickens lay eggs, for such this seems to be.

Mr. Selby call all the white men "boss," and "maju" is something wonderful and great. The brown boys about the place look on Selby as almost a god.

Mr. and Mrs. Selby have moved from Johannesburg, and are now situated in beautiful country home near the famous camp, of which Selby is the general manager. Their home here is much grander than the one they formerly had in, and with it are gardeners and coachmen and many servants. They are now living in the "big" interest in connection with the mine and is in consequence high among the social set of that land. There everything in the social scale depends upon the position in the "business world of Johannesburg. If they are high in the world of finance, and have many brownies to do them honor, they are high up, but should the same people lose their position in the business world down they would come, regardless of family, etcetera.

Mrs. Flora Bentley of Glendora has been entertaining as house guests a number of young society folk during the past week, including Misses Lena and Edith Pyne, Marie Myers of Los Angeles and Messrs. Leo Myers, Harry Myers, James Myers and Helen Myers of Pleasanta Park. One evening she entertained a number of friends for her guests. Music and games were enjoyed. Leo Myers rendered several vocal solos which were much appreciated. Miss Coleman, formerly of Glendora, also delighted the audience with charmingly rendered vocal solos. Miss Cox, pianist, played several selections from Chopin. During the visit a number of mountain trips were enjoyed. Guests invited to the house guests were: Misses Ethel Cullen, Agnes Cullen, Helen Post Bush, Daisy Fenton, Ella Post, Ina La Petra, and Messrs. Harry Bentley, Floyd Roll, Pling Millard Cullen and Charles Matthews.

Interesting in the pretty new home which Mrs. Mason has prepared for his bride, Rosella Belle McLachlan, a daughter of Mrs. Evelyn McLachlan, and the bride of John A. Vaughan, Jr., the Rev. P. Lee officiating. The bride is at No. 420 Lake street, and entered into a bower of fragrance for the evening. The home was floral in white and green, and the orange blossoms, and asparagus were combined in the decorative scheme. The entrance of asparagus vines through which orange blossoms flung their fragrance was over the entrance, and during the ceremony, which formed a pretty background for palms and tulle were used, and the decorative scheme, which was given away by Miss Mary Russell, of El Monte, who was given away by Miss J. H. Russell, of El Monte, who was a charming picture, clad in white costume of white chiffon over satin trains and trimmed with lace. Her misty tulle veil was caught with orange blossoms and she carried a shower of the valley. Mrs. Joseph Vaughan, a gown of pale green ratine, assisted in lifting the veil. Miss Coleman furnished music, the "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin as the couple approached the altar, "The Rose Queen," during the ceremony, and Mendelssohn's march as they left.

Miss Rosella is a charmingly poetical girl, has been widely feted, and the announcement of her engagement to Mr. Vaughan to a young man connected with Edwards & Co. After a trip to Northern people will be at home after April 1 at No. 422 Lake street.

WOMEN'S CLUBS.

Ruskin Art.

The Ruskin Art Club had the pleasure of hearing the arts and crafts of Switzerland delightfully reviewed yesterday by ex-Consul Irving B. Richman, who was in the diplomatic service at St. Gall. He told of the wood carving and the unique embroidery, and gave a broad, general view of what constitutes art in Switzerland and other countries.

The morning's topic was led by Miss Jessie Washburn and Mrs. J. B. Stockard. Miss Wadleigh had the first paper, her assumption being that the story that a picture told gave added interest, citing Da Vinci's celebrated "Last Supper," and other great pictures which tell their own stories.

Miss Washburn took the opposite side of the discussion, declaring that art should appeal to the eye alone with form and line and color.

A Way to Build Roads.

LOS ANGELES, March 20.—[To the Editor of The Times:] A decade ago Savannah, Ga., suffered from malaria. J. J. Dale, a millionaire lumberman, was elected chairman of the County Commissioners, and he immediately put the chain gang to work, and, by digging a canal, drained Cuyler Swamp, and made Savannah one of the healthiest cities in the United States. He then turned the chain gang to building county roads, and in a few years made every highway in the county the finest macadamized, graded and sewered roads. All labor was done by the chain gang, and the only expense was for the gravel, and the temporary single railroad tracks alongside each road. The tracks were removed when one road was finished to another road. The general tax for cost of the roads was so little that no one complained, and the improvements added millions of dollars' value to Chatham county, and these improvements are a monument to the enterprise of Mr. Dale. Now, why could not Los Angeles put all petty offenders on the chain gang and put them to work grading and sewering Washington boulevard, 100 feet wide, from the city limits to Venice, only eleven miles, and the present right of way is 100 feet wide. Macadam or gravel can be bought, and the cost would be light, if raised by a special tax for the same. Then Pasadena boulevard and Vermont avenue and Long Beach avenue could be macadamized on the same basis. In two years these four important highways would be the greatest show boulevards and auto drives in the United States. The chain gang at Savannah seemed to enjoy the work, and the well-kept camps, where the gangs were well fed and cared for, showed the most contented lot of workers I ever saw. If some prominent and practical man would undertake the chairmanship of a plan of this sort, he would leave a monument. R. F. COLE.

LODGE ENTERTAINS.

Artisan Lodge, Fraternal Brotherhood, kept an evening's "open house" and many friends of members were entertained as guests. The lodge is composed exclusively of business and professional men of the city and vicinity, and a fine literary and musical programme was served up with the dinner. There were recitations by Prof. G. A. Dobinson, vocal solos by A. B. Downs, and an address by Supreme President Peshay.

JAMES AUSTIN LARSON VICE-PRES. AND TRUSTEE OF CRESCENT ROTARY STEAM ENGINE COMPANY MAKES STATEMENT

Saturday Night Will Finish His Allotment of Stock In This World Famous Industry---Shares Until Then Will Be Sold At $1.50

The Achievements of This Industrial Concern Considered One of the Great Commercial Victories of the Present Day—Shares Have an Estimated Value Now of Eight Dollars—Time Is Short to Get In on This Rock Bottom Offer of Dollar Fifty—Today, Tomorrow and Saturday

"The expected has happened." So spoke James Austin Larson, 212 Mercantile Place, when questioned about Crescent Rotary Steam Engine Company stock. Saturday night closes the great sale of these shares conducted by Mr. Larson, Vice-President and Trustee of the parent Company at the above address. For something like six or eight weeks an intense interest has been manifest by the steam and engine men of Los Angeles and Southern California in the performances of this marvelous engine. Investors from the smallest to the largest have bought shares in the Company, realizing that this new and wonderful type of engine would revolutionize the use of steam power. And the development of this concern has truly been phenomenal. Less than six months ago the investing public were first offered the shares, large claims were then made by the backers of the enterprise of what would be accomplished ultimately by this innovation in engine construction. The world was shown a rotary engine that had solved the one problem which had baffled engineers for years. Immediately this little wonder began overcoming the prejudice against rotary types. Its performances, wherever and whenever tested, demonstrated conclusively that Inventor H. I. Cell had found the right principle in his construction of a rotary engine, and the development of the industrial side of the enterprise has been not one whit less phenomenal in its importance. In place of years of labor to properly and profitably launch the industry, it has grown by veritable leaps and bounds, until it has attracted the attention and interest of prominent manufacturers throughout the entire world. Mr. Larson has been in Los Angeles less than two months, and in this very short time has succeeded in reaching the investors with this proposition in the most successful sale ever made by any industrial security ever offered in this market. This could not be done, except there was highest value to the venture. In fact, venture is not a correct name for this industry, as it has passed all the experimental stages that are still to be gone through by a business when it is spoken of as a venture. Here is one of the world's industries, an institution grown to giant size in less than a year. In the display announcements of Mr. Larson in this paper of yesterday, a very creditable illustration of the factory building was shown. This cut was made from the architect's sketch and is an authentic representation of the building in which the manufacturing of these rotary engines will be carried on at Spokane, Washington. The very finest and most modern machinery has been installed and facilities for prompt finishing of the product arranged for. Expert mechanics are at the head of the various departments and the large in-rush of orders at the present time is a safe guarantee of ample orders—and it takes orders to make a manufacturing proposition pay dividends. In the matter of the manufacture of the Crescent Rotary Steam Engine, the profit possibility is simply phenomenal. The 10 horse power size—the same as the one on exhibition by Mr. Larson at 212 Mercantile Place the past two months—can be made at a profit of over 100 per cent, and sold for less than the power user would have to pay for the cheapest kind of gas engine, and as for steam engines of the ordinary reciprocating type of equal horse power, there is no comparison in price, short of twice what the Crescent Rotary will sell for.

These are some of the reasons that no doubt attracted the German manufacturers when they undertook to buy the German rights. They had proven the ability of this rotary type to make good as an engine for every purpose, and realizing with the rights of manufacturing safely in their hands, they could accomplish with the German trade what they could see the parent company at Spokane would accomplish with the American trade, and so they closed the sale on a royalty basis of $1.50 for each horse power used, paying a guarantee of $50,000 in advance as an earnest of their intention. Certain Englishmen are now entertaining a proposition on the rights for Great Britain. These rights are held by the Crescent Rotary Steam Engine Company at Spokane to be worth two million dollars, and a royalty besides for the large extent of the British domain and the great importance of its manufacturing field is considered wider than that of any other European nation.

It would seem, in view of all these facts—the perfection of the product, its world wide market, the actual existence of the corporation and its marvelous achievements, that the shares of this concern are certainly of the very highest class, and on the estimated earning are worth nearer eight dollars than the dollar and a half at which they are sold. But this dollar and a half price is good only today, tomorrow and Saturday. Mr. Larson says that he had hoped to be able to get an allotment of shares to market here at about a five-dollar price after Saturday, but that he will not be able to do so, and that with the close of the week, will see the consummation of his offer of Crescent Rotary Steam Engine Company shares at any price. The investor who expects to get in on the rock bottom price of one dollar and fifty cents per share must get his order placed with Mr. Larson, 212 Mercantile Place, before the close of business Saturday evening. It would seem as though everybody would want this stock at this price. Mr. Larson further says that he will not receive subscriptions for less than ten shares—fifteen dollars' worth, or more than five hundred shares from any one person, as he desires to see as general distribution of the stock in this field as possible.

MISS SUTTON'S PLANS.

Miss May Sutton has made arrange- ents to leave here about April 14 for ew York for the tennis tournament hich will be held there during the onth of April. She expects to arrive y April 20, on which day she will play her first game. Prior to leaving Miss Sutton will go to Redlands to take part in the tournament, which will be held April 6, 7 and 8. Local tennis euthusiasts are certain that their champion will cover herself with fresh honors at the New York tournament, and are already congratu- lating themselves upon the added pres- tige which will accrue to them. Wheth- er or not Miss Sutton will go to Eng- land to play this year is uncertain, but it is thought that she will, as the ten- nis clubs of Southern California are very anxious to have the woman's in- ternational championship again come to this country.

CITIZENS AROUSED.

The accident which caused the death of Jesus Coronado Sunday night has again called the attention of the people of Pasadena to the necessity for hav- ing safeguards installed at the railroad crossings, and the citizens are not in a mood to do any temporizing. There have been efforts made to show that the original ordinance drafted by the Council was too drastic, but the popu- lar opinion is that every crossing should be so protected as to make ac- cidents impossible. The number of serious accidents that have taken place at railroad crossings during the past year has wrought pop- ular feeling up to fever heat. The roads themselves are not particularly blamed as in most cases they have shown themselves ready to comply with the wishes of the people. The rapid growth of the city has not been taken into con- sideration, and the fact that crossings which a few years ago were out in the country are now within the confines of the city and are traveled to a con- siderable extent daily, has been lost sight of.

RAIN RECORD.

Rain fell at intervals all day yes- terday and at 3 o'clock in the after- noon the Throop gauge registered .68 of an inch for the storm. This brings the total precipitation for the season up to 25.32 inches. From 3 o'clock on there was more or less downfall, and by 5 o'clock the 26-inch mark had been passed, according to the opinion of conservative judges. Altadena reports a heavier fall and it looks as though the foothill hamlet would have a rec- ord-breaking winter as far as moisture is concerned. Although the late rainfall has been light and consequently little or no damage has been done by storm water, it has again called attention to the necessity for providing adequate storm drains. The lightest fall brings a body of water down from the foot- hills which creates more or less havoc, and there is a general determination to have matters so arranged by the coming winter that all danger of dam- age from storm waters will be done away with.

LIVELY DISCUSSION OF BONDS IN POMONA.

Arguments as to Whether City Shall Purchase Water Company's Plant for $300,000—Some Say Buy, Even If It's High, and Others De- clare Concern Yearns to Unload.

POMONA, March 20.—Over a hun- dred people attended the mass meet- ing called for last night at Fraternal Aid Hall to consider the question of voting $400,000 bonds for the erection of a new school building, a city hall and the purchase of the Consolidated Water Company's plant. City Trus- tee Mel Campbell presided and Trus- tee N. W. Miller, who is an ardent advocate of municipal ownership, spoke upon the reasons for the Trus- tees calling the bond election and ad- vised the purchase of the Consolidated company's plant for $300,000, even though the price "seemed a little high." He was followed by Prof. Kauffman, supervising principal of the public schools, who spoke of the rapid growth in attendance at the schools and the pressing need of another building to relieve crowded conditions. Mr. Camp- bell then called upon P. J. Dreher to say a word in favor of the water bonds. Mr. Dreher urged the acquire- ment of the Consolidated company's water holdings and the voting of bonds for a new city hall. Willis S. Jones, civil engineer, then delivered a lecture upon general water conditions, watersheds and underground reser- voirs in the country north of Pomona, giving measurements, and explained the Consolidated company's tunnel and holdings, graphically illustrating his talk with large scenic maps which the water company had supplied. He was followed by Engineer F. W. Olmstead of Los Angeles, who has also carefully investigated the plant. Clar- ence H. Lee, J. E. McConnas and City Attorney Robert G. Loucks, who are also champions of the municipal own- ership cause, made remarks, the lat- ter favoring the acquirement of the Consolidated plant because, through this, it would be possible to eventually acquire other water-bearing lands sufficient to supply water power for the building and operation of a mu- nicipal electric-light and power plant to supply Pomona, which proposition Mr. Loucks has long favored. Up to this time Trustee Campbell had called only upon those to speak who were favorable to the water bonds. As the hour was late and the listeners becoming uneasy, Mr. Loucks suggested to Mr. Campbell that he thought the opposition ought to be given an opportunity and the chair- man then called for any who might wish to offer opposing sentiments. J. Albert Dole stated that, although he was in favor of the school and city hall bonds, he was opposed to the proposed amount of the water bonds, as it would increase the city's bonded indebtedness to $535,000, or within $65,000 of the limit allowed by law, viz., 15 per cent. of the city's assessed valuation. He did not think it was good business policy to approach so near the credit limit at this time, when Pomona is on the eve of many anticipated changes which will require abundant funds. The water-bond question is likely to be a live one here until the time of the bond election, March 28. The Consol- idated company and its friends are said to keenly desire the sale of the plant at this time to the city, and to have lined up with them those resi- dents who favor first, last and all the time, municipal ownership, regardless of cost to the city. The opposition to the movement is composed of those who are not in favor of municipal ownership of public utilities and those who are not averse to trying the prop- osition, but believe the price asked the city by the water company for its plant is too high. It is claimed by those who favor purchasing the plant, that the best interests of the city demand its ac- quirement now, for if the purchase is delayed, the water company cannot be bought at anywhere near the price of $300,000. The friends of the munici- pal movement, in view of the figures and reports submitted by the officers and engineers of the company, believe that the water plant owned and run by the city will prove a splendid money-making proposition, of great benefit to the community, and point to other California cities where munici- pal ownership is a success. The op- ponents of the bonds claim that this city cannot afford to bond itself to the amount of $300,000 for the acquirement of the Consolidated company's hold- ings and cite numerous larger cities which have found and are finding mu- nicipally-owned water, gas and elec- tric plants expensive luxuries. They state that the officials of the Consoli- dated company are working tooth and nail to unload their plant upon the city, that the chief agitation of the proposition on the street and in public meetings comes from the water com- pany and is not in response to a pop- ular demand from the voters of this community. The bond issues proposed include $300,000 for the purchase of the water plant and $25,000 for repairs and improvements to the water sys- tem, $60,000 for school building and $25,000 for a city hall.

MINNESOTAN DIES IN SURF.

DEATH COMES SUDDENLY IN OCEAN PARK BREAKERS.

Was a Capitalist of St. Cloud and Is Said to Have Been Worth Two or Three Millions—Had Narrow Escape in Automobile Accident Tuesday Night.

OCEAN PARK, March 20.—The waters of the Pacific claimed a victim this afternoon in the person of Clar- endon P. McClure, who came here from Los Angeles two weeks ago. The sea was rough, but Mr. McClure was a lover of the surf, and was swimming along just beyond the white caps when he sank. David Wilson, a life guard, armed with a life line and buoy, se- cured the body and hauled it ashore. Every expedient known to medical sci- ence was resorted to in an unsuccessful effort to restore life. Mr. McClure was a capitalist. He is said to have been worth two or three millions. The deceased was 45 years of age, and had come to this beach with his family two weeks ago. They were mak- ing their home at No. 611 Ocean Front avenue, for the benefit of the health of their daughter, Dolphine, who is recov- ering from typhoid fever. The family came to California from St. Cloud, Minn. The Coroner has been notified and will conduct an inquest tomorrow. McClure was thrown from an auto- mobile by a collision with a curb out Sixteenth-street way in Los Angeles last night and narrowly escaped death. He frequently went bathing in the surf late at night. His death is believed to be due to heart failure rather than to drowning.

VOTE ON BONDS THERE TODAY.

SCHOOL DISTRICT SECURITIES UP AT LONG BEACH.

Question of Authorizing an Issue of $300,000 Will Be Passed Upon by the Electors—Strong Opposition Expected—City Money Voted to Fight Blind Pigs.

LONG BEACH, March 20.—Tomor- row the voters of the Long Beach school district will be called upon to decide at the polls as to whether bonds shall be issued to the amount of $300,- 000. Friends of the proposed issue are con- fident of success; but there is to be a hard battle, it is said, before the ques- tion is decided. The polls at the Pine-avenue school- house will open at 8 o'clock a.m., and continue open until sundown with George H. Blount, A. M. Dunn and C. W. Caseboom in charge. If the bonds carry, the overcrowd- ed High School will be replaced by a modern stone building, a new school will be erected at Burnett and additions and improvements will be made at the other buildings. The school board now declares that the schools of the city are crowded to their capacity.

FOR NEW BATH-HOUSE.

W. E. Hinshaw and W. M. Halliday, local capitalists, have leased from the city a strip of land east of the audito- rium, along Seaside boulevard between Locust Way and Collins Way, offering $500 per year for the first five years and then $1000 per year until the expiration of the lease, and will erect upon it a bath-house to rival the institution maintained just west of the pier by the Long Beach Bath House Company. The promoters hope to have the new bath-house ready for use in the com- ing summer season.

OFFERS HARBOR FRANCHISE.

At the request of John F. Craig of the Craig Shipbuilding Company, soon to be established on the inner harbor just west of the city, the Board of City Trustees has offered for sale the franchise to a valuable strip of water front 500 feet in length along the in- ner government breakwater and be- tween the end of the Salt Lake com- pany's wharf and the government res- ervation of 600 feet. At that par- ticular point the city controls 500 feet of the most valuable water front on the inner bay. It is the purpose of the Craig interests to establish there a floating dry dock for use in making temporary repairs and to be utilized until the completion of the shipbuild- ing plant, the channels to which have not been dredged as yet. The franchise as offered for sale under the Brough- ton act extends over a period of twen- ty years. Bids will be received on the frontage by the Board of Trustees, on Tuesday evening, April 27.

VOTE SINEWS OF WAR.

The Long Beach City Trustees are preparing to wage a bitter fight against the violators of the far-famed Long Beach liquor ordinance, a group of men known by the euphonious title of "blind-piggers." At its meeting last night, just before adjournment was taken, the board voted a fund of $500 to be used by City Attorney Carl Monk in securing evidence against the joints violating the law and in prosecuting the cases. Last night, without imported detec- tives and by a bold raid, City Marshal Young and Patrolmen Austin, Harover and Taylor, located a "blind pig" in Haskell's poolroom at West Long Beach. The officers found men drink- ing in the poolroom and also found a considerable quantity of bottled beer and whisky. It was late at night before the raid occurred and after midnight this morn- ing, Frank Haskell, the proprietor of the place, was dragged before Record- er Hart. He pleaded guilty as charged and promptly paid a fine of $150. The trial of Jacob Beatus, president of the Sonoma Wine Company, of No. 651 South Main street, Los Angeles, whose salesman was arrested here last week for "boot-legging," an insidious form of "blind-pigging," was today fixed for Tuesday, March 26. Through this case, City Attorney Monk pro- poses to find out if Los Angeles liquor merchants can send solicitors to Long Beach to secure orders.

COVINA.

COVINA, March 20.—Thieves entered the dry goods store of W. B. Broal- well last night and secured about $10. Entrance was gained through a rear window. The cash register was brok- en open and wrecked. No trace of the thieves can be found, as they covered up their tracks

BIGGEST LUMBER CARGO.

Steamer With Over Two and a Half Million Feet of Lumber at San Pedro.

SAN PEDRO, March 20.—The big steamship Pleiades, Capt. Warnell, ar- rived this morning from Tacoma, car- rying the largest cargo of lumber ever brought to San Pedro. She has 2,600,- 000 feet, which will be discharged at the Southern Pacific Railroad wharf. This company has contracted to dis- charge the big carrier at the rate of 200,000 feet each day. In making port this morning the Pleiades grounded at the entrance to the inner harbor, but was floated at high tide, without damage. The value of the cargo brought to- day by the Pleiades at wholesale is in excess of $65,000. She will receive over $20,000 for freight on this cargo. The Pleiades was formerly in the off- shore trade running to the islands and the Orient. This is her first coastwise cargo of lumber. She is 231.5 feet in length, breadth forty-seven feet, depth of hold, twenty-five feet, and has a gross tonnage of 2753 tons. Her en- gines have an indicated horse-power of 1500 and she carries a crew of twenty- nine men. The Pleiades is comparatively a new vessel, having been built in 1900, at Harrows Point, Md.

UNLUCKY THIS TIME.

Baldwin's Big Work Barn at Arcadia Gutted by Fire—Valuable Animals Burned.

ARCADIA, March 20.—E. J. ("Lucky") Baldwin's big work barn on Baldwin avenue is a mass of smolder- ing ruins. At 2 o'clock this morning the building was discovered to be on fire. Men, women and children went to work to get what they could out of the building. In the sheds contiguous to it were about one hundred mules and it took some time to release them. Inside the barn were seven horses and a mule, besides a large quantity of grain, hay, implements of all kinds, and more than a hundred sets of har- ness. There were also several good buggies. By hard work two of the horses were driven out, but five val- uable ones, besides a splendid mule, were burned to death. The origin of the fire is not known. There was no stove in the barn and no one was supposed to be sleeping there. It is generally thought that it was the work of an incendiary. Mr. Baldwin does not know the amount of insurance he carried on the building. It was valued at $10,000. He will re- build at once.

ALBITRE'S LAST GIFT.

MONROVIA, March 20.—Two guns, a big bowie knife and a leather belt filled with cartridges was the gift be- stowed upon Marshal Miller by Del- fin Albitre, yesterday, before the con- demned murderer was taken to San Quentin. There was a delightful party at the Charles J. Dash home last evening, when a number of ladies and gentle- men gathered at a whist party. At the conclusion of the game the com- pany enjoyed a short musicale. In the company were Dr. and Mrs. L. N. Wheeler, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Win- slow, Mr. and Mrs. K. E. Lawrence, Mr. and Mrs. George O. Monroe, Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Squires and Scott L. Boyd.

PLENTY OF SPORT AT CORONADO.

WHITTIER.

WHITTIER, March 20.—Thieves en- tered Bailey's smokehouse last night and rifled the cash box, securing about $90. There seems to be no strong clew at present, but the officers are work- ing on the case. On the other side of the street and a few doors fur- ther west is Gwin's grocery, which was left unlocked all night. The proprie- tor confessed to a big feeling of relief when, after learning of the robbery across the street, he found his cash box and safe untouched, the robbers evidently not making a canvass of the vicinity. A sheep herder was arrested this morning charged with carelessly leav- ing embers of his camp fire in the deserted oil derrick of the Common- wealth Oil Company, as a result of which the derrick last night was burned to the ground. The man, it is said, ate his noon meal in the shel- ter of the derrick and is the only per- son known to have visited the place recently. The loss is supposed to have been about $500. Edward Guirado, owner of a number of fine blooded horses, had a hearing yesterday before Recorder Snavely, on the charge of speeding one of his ani- mals on the city streets faster than the city ordinance allows. Guirado asked for a jury trial, and was found guilty. Sentence will be pronounced Friday morning.

TO STOP WATER WASTE.

USERS ARE ON TRAIL OF ALLEGED OFFENDERS.

Two of San Bernardino Magistracy and Friends Fear He Has Become a Victim of Foul Play—Old Miner, Up Late at Night, Eats Tamale and Dies.

SAN BERNARDINO, March 20.—The water masters of Rialto are on the trail of companies which are alleged to be guilty of willful waste of water through leaky flumes. One instance in particular, it is said, where a tunnel in the mountains basin northwest of the city is leaking between 500 and 600 inches of water into Lytle Creek and thereby allowing it to escape from the city limits.

The search was driven to a depth of 100 feet, tapping wells owned by the San Bernardino-Highland Water Company for the purpose of securing water from these wells when it did not rise to the surface. The search was gradually lowered, until finally it was abandoned. Now a heavy stream noted is pouring into the creek.

MYSTERIOUSLY MISSING.

Frank Hansen, proprietor of the St. Elmo Hotel, has dropped from sight, and relatives and friends are alarmed over his absence. They repudiate the suggestion that there is a woman in the case, deny that any money belonging to the missing man is missing, believe that his disappearance will result in even temporary embarrassment of the business. His partner is at work on the blocks of the hotel as early hour this morning.

Mrs. Hansen, the deserted wife, believes her husband has wandered away in a state of temporary aberration. She says that he has gone to Los Angeles, says that she believes he will return to himself he will return to her, but she hopes so, for the sake of the children. She says that this is the first time he has disappeared.

Mr. and Mrs. Hansen are highly respected and well known in fraternal circles, and their home at the corner of Third and Broadway has been the scene of many a social function during the past few years. Many of the guests there Mrs. Hansen's view of the matter, while some feign to believe that the missing man may be up to foul play, as he was said to have made a practice of carrying with him large sums of money.

DIES AFTER TAMALE—DIES.

Thomas Ray, an old miner, ate a tamale early this morning. He had spent the day before in various saloons, and at 12:30 o'clock morning visited the tamale stand by, and half an hour later returned to the place, when he fell backward to the floor, practically dead. Morrisy was 65 years old, and for forty years had been engaged in mining in the Southern country. Last summer he had considerable ranch at Redlands, but has been there Monday.

OFFICERS ELECT.

Company K, N.G.C., held an election night, under the direction of Captain Mitchel, of Riverside. Sergeant was elected captain; Corporal, first lieutenant, and E. Grow, second lieutenant. Grow has been with the company for five years, and at whose term has expired, by connection with the office served through the ranks to its second lieutenant, and when he was elected captain.

PRESIDENT DISMISSED.

Thomas H. Kelley, a member of the petit jury, admitted on the ground that he was personally prejudiced against Attorney R. W. Nisbet, who was qualified to act as a trial juror, returned last January. Nisbet on complaint of Kelley, charging embezzlement, was dismissed by Judge Oster on motion of District Attorney today.

CAMPAIGN LIVELY.

Many Candidates for Offices of the Municipality for Coveted Places.

RIVERSIDE, March 20.—A hot political fight is on in this city for municipal honors. The election will take place April 1. The ticket to be voted is a big one, as room must be found for seven columns. Four tickets have been filed, and probably will have to be space for independent candidates and a fifth column.

The fifth column is a citizens' ticket, which is made up of the members of the present Board of City Trustees, with the exception that the name of Trustee Blake appears in place of Trustee Blake, who has declined. There are the Citizens' ticket and the Citizens' ticket, but there are a few names presented on the latter, including that of Trustee Blake, who has declined. There are the Citizens' ticket and the Citizens' ticket, but there are a few names presented on the latter, including that of Trustee Blake, who has declined.

Nominations will come for Mayor and for Marshal. There will be a fight for each of these offices. Russell will again be a candidate for Mayor, and also Kaiser and also for the office of Clerk. Kaiser will have to again Councilman Conklin, while Trustee has made the race a year ago by entering the field, Merle Barnes, who will have a walk-over, Barnes has entered the race.

Before the battle Mr. Ortega and Mr. Blake, offices, there Board of Education to the Library Trustees, that a special fight is on because of interest and light questions to fight back and forth.

SAN VENTURA.

Ventura arrived in Ventura and went immediately at Chutas, where he is putting in a large crop for the Ventura Fruit Company.

Two men again fatally injured. Constable Ventura arrested James Ventura for violating the law, and him before Judge Owen Miller, who fined him $100 for the offense. The first time he paid a fine of $100. He went back to Fillmore and again engaged in the traffic, was again arrested and convicted, but served a term in jail rather than part with his coin. Even all this did not serve to cure Miller of his habits and he was recently caught again.

COUNCILMEN DENY GRAFT.

PURCHASE OF STREET SWEEPERS CAUSES COMMENT.

In Lengthy Statement Santa Ana Taxpayers' Representatives Tell About the Deal—Bernard Cohn, Ex-Sergeant-at-Arms of State Legislature, Weds Miss Beatty.

SANTA ANA, March 20.—A lengthy statement, signed by Councilmen G. A. Edgar, A. C. Tiede, George L. Wright and H. Diers, and issued to "the taxpayers of Santa Ana," was given to the public today. This gives the inside history of the purchase by the city of a street sweeper, which was bought several weeks ago, and concerning which there has been much public discussion. The Councilmen claimed that they have saved $334 by purchasing through a local firm, the William F. Lutz Company, instead of through W. E. Baxter, the Coast agent of the Furnas Street Sweeper Company of Indianapolis. The statement is given in answer to an alleged intimation by Baxter that the Council grafted $400 in the deal.

The Councilmen present a statement from F. C. Shevlin, an employé of the Lutz company, that would indicate that Baxter, the agent for the Furnas Company, bid $2100 for the same machine furnished the city by Lutz for $1360, laid down in Santa Ana. Shevlin says that Baxter said to him: "Mr. Lutz was a fool for making any such price as that on the machine. There was only one to be had, and he might just as well have made $200 or $350 as nothing at all. I wish you would talk the matter over with Mr. Lutz, and if he should fail to deliver, well—he'd fail to deliver. Then they would come to me and pay my price, as there is only one sweeper to be had, and $200 or $350 can be made as well as not."

The statement declares that the street sweeper, which has been characterized as a "junk heap," a "faded wreck" and a "derelict," has been made into as good a suction street sweeper as there is in Southern California.

COHN A BENEDICT.

Bernard J. Cohn, ex-sergeant-at-arms of the State Legislature, was married here this afternoon to Miss Pearl H. Beatty of Los Angeles. The marriage license gives the age of Cohn as 34, and of the bride as 26. The ceremony was performed in the office of County Clerk W. B. Williams by Justice of the Peace Ed Smithwick. Present were Deputy Sheriff Matthewson of Los Angeles, County Clerk Williams, Deputy County Clerk Joe Burke, County Auditor Cal D. Lester and Constable C. E. Jackson of Santa Ana.

MERCHANTS SWINDLED.

A number of bad checks were passed on local merchants last Saturday. There seems to have been two men working together. Their method was to buy a few goods and offer checks in payment. R. L. Huffman, the Main department store and Cain's shoe store were among the victims.

Marriage licenses have been issued to Roy I. Smith, aged 22, and Sue H. Blackmore, aged 19, both of Tustin; John E. Taylor, aged 34, of Santa Ana, and Exene Sharp, aged 20, of Tustin; Isaac Rothe, aged 20, and Lydia Speer, aged 35, both of Anaheim.

See Coronado and be happy.

MECHANICS ALARMED.

Junior Order at Riverside Votes for Exclusion of Japanese, Chinese and Koreans.

RIVERSIDE, March 20.—The free admission of Japanese into the United States and into the public schools of California was opposed in vigorous terms by the State Council of California, Junior Order of United American Mechanics, in session at Leighton Hall this morning. James Graham of San Francisco, representative of the Japanese and Korean Exclusion League, gave a strong address favoring the restriction of undesirable Oriental immigrants and upholding the "order of separation" in the schools. Resolutions, which were unanimously adopted, stated that "the alarming influx of Japanese and other Asiatics into the United States has served to intensify the feeling that their presence among us is a menace to the American standard of living and civilization."

The resolutions included a request that the Representatives and Senators from California in the Sixtieth Congress work for the enactment of an act "to exclude Chinese, Japanese, Koreans and other undesirable peoples."

Stockton was selected as the place for holding the next State Council. Officers elected are: State councillor, L. C. Shannon, Oakland; vice councillor, K. R. Bradley, Los Angeles; State council secretary, Herman Paine, Oakland; State council tredsurer, C. M. Prater, San Francisco; representative to the National Council, long term, M. G. McClinton, San Francisco; representative to the National Council, short term, J. L. Starr, Los Angeles.

A feature of the convention has been the picturesque and beautiful initiation work of the Custer degree team of Oakland, under the direction of L. C. Shannon. This team brought a carload of scenery and paraphernalia, and the exemplification of the work last night was full of dramatic interest. At the adjournment of the council this afternoon the degree team went to Los Angeles to conduct initiation work before the Hancock Council of that city.

MRS. WAITE ENTERTAINS.

A brilliant reception was given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. L. C. Waite at her home on Mulberry street in honor of Mrs. E. Coop and Miss Marion Coop, and as a farewell to her daughter, Miss Lillian Waite, who leaves tomorrow on a six months' European tour. The decorations were arranged with charming taste. White and purple iris stalks were utilized in the reception hall, yellow jonquils in the drawing-room, pink roses and white sweet peas in the library, white roses in the music room and pink carnations in the dining-room.

MICHIGAN MAN DROWNED IN CORONADO SURF.

Ventures in When Breakers Are Running High and Is Carried Seaward—Two Men Make Brave Efforts to Reach Him and Almost Lose Their Lives.

SAN DIEGO, March 20.—W. H. Martin of Detroit, Mich. a director of the Michigan Mutual Life Insurance Company, was drowned this morning while surf bathing at the Coronado Hotel. Despite the warnings of his friends and the management of the hotel, Mr. Martin went in bathing in the surf, which was unusually high, and within a few minutes after first entering was carried to sea.

In a brave effort to save his life the bathing instructor at the hotel, who had first warned him not to go in, and who had been watching him ever since he first struck the water, and a man named Jargstoss, an automobile dealer, now staying at the hotel, also nearly lost their lives.

Martin, who was about 46 years of age and unmarried, came to the hotel several days ago with a party of six friends.

SUITS AGAINST SANATORIUM.

John Barnard Mathews and David Conners, former inmates of the institution, have brought suits against St. Joseph's Sanatorium, in which charges are made against the managers. Mathews says that he entered into a contract with the hospital in 1905, paying $2100 for lodging and home for the rest of his life, at the rate of $40 a month. He declares that Sister Cummings took, by force, his pass book of the Security Savings Bank of Los Angeles, where had on deposit $5500.

In some fraudulent way he alleges that his name was signed to a check and the money secured by the sisters without his knowledge or consent. Of the amount $2100 was applied on the contract, the balance being retained through his being induced to sign a note which was misrepresented to him.

He declares that he was given food unfit for a human being to eat, that he was not furnished proper medical treatment and that he was ill used in various ways. With the exception of the pass book feature Conners has the same complaints.

SINKING SANDS ALMOST KILL.

A REDLANDS MAN HAS A CLOSE FIGHT FOR LIFE.

His Horse Gets Caught in Yielding Stream Bottom and in Effort to Rescue the Animal He Is Seriously Injured—Is Himself Pinned in the Water for Hours.

REDLANDS, March 20.—Roadmaster Robert Keir almost lost his life in the quicksands of the Santa Ana River yesterday afternoon, while trying to save the life of one of his horses, which had become fast in the sinking sands. As a result of his experience he lies at the home of his father, A. Keir, with a rib broken and suffering serious internal injuries, while the horse which he risked his life to save has disappeared beneath the river.

He was driving from an inspection of Waterman road, and had urged his horse into the stream, when one of the animals became fast in the sand. After vainly trying to pull it out with the aid of the other horse, he climbed out on the pole, and had just obtained a footing on a rock, when the horse gave a sudden lunge, and fell on its side, pinning him under the water.

He managed to get his head above the flood, but could not release himself, and in that position was held a prisoner for over two hours, unable to assist himself in any way. In that time the horse was drowned. A teamster happened by when Keir was about to lose heart, and summoned aid, Kler soon being rescued, but the stranded horse had to be abandoned, and was soon completely submerged.

Keir was seen to be suffering intensely, and when hurried to the home of his father a physician was summoned, who quickly ascertained that the man was suffering from grave internal injuries, besides a fractured rib, the fragments of which were cutting into the flesh.

The accident occurred at a point where two narrow escapes from drowning have occurred within the past two weeks, one of the victims being Fred Smiley, nephew of Albert K. Smiley, the millionaire and philanthropist of Redlands.

RANCH HOUSE BURNS.

FULLERTON, March 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A residence on the ranch southwest of Anaheim, belonging to P. A. Stanton of Los Angeles, burned down this afternoon, the building catching from a cooking stove. The loss is about $1500. John Hawkins and family were living in the house and all their household goods were burned.

McBURNEY'S KIDNEY AND BLADDER CURE

ONE BOTTLE CURES.

Chicago, Ill., April 8, 1896.

Mr. W. F. McBurney, Los Angeles, Cal.—Dear Sir: It affords me pleasure to testify to the efficacy of your Kidney and Bladder Cure. I have been troubled with my kidneys and bladder for over four years. I have been treated by the best physicians of this city during that time. (I mention two who stand at the head of the profession, viz.: Dr. C. A. Purdy and Dr. Frank Walls, the latter being my son.) I regret to say they did me no good. I was advised to spend the winter in your glorious climate and try the ocean baths. I visited San Diego, Santa Monica and Santa Barbara, but received ogly temporary relief from the baths. On the night I left home I got a bottle of your medicine. The first dose did me good, and I was well when I reached home, and can say in conclusion that I am grateful to you. If this letter is of any use to you, use it.

Relieved in Less Than One Hour

A man who had suffered for months came to me yesterday and secured relief in less than an hour. He had tried others and had failed to obtain any encouragement. The thoroughness of my examination revealed the exact nature of his complaint, and my exceptional skill enabled me to succeed where he had been disappointed before. I can doubtless do as much for you. Consultation is free. No obligation to place your case in my hands unless you are convinced I can do all I say.

MEN ONLY

I Cure the Cases That Others Cannot Cure

DR. TAYLOR
The Leading Specialist

A bold statement, but just as true as it is bold. Not all cases that others fail to cure are curable by my methods, but fully ninety per cent. of them are. The way to learn whether your case is curable is to consult me. I know exactly what can be done in every instance. I ought to know this, for I have done nothing else other than treat men's diseases for twenty-five years. If your case is curable I will treat you. If it isn't I will not. If I treat you, and if you so desire,

I Will Wait for My Fee Until You Are Well.

WEAKNESS

Weakness in men is comparatively a simple ailment and is but a symptom of local disorder, a congestion of an important nerve center. No stimulating treatment, whether internal or locally applied, can do more than excite temporary activity. By my system of local treatment I restore absolutely normal conditions throughout the organs involved, which promptly results in complete and permanent restoration of strength and vigor. This treatment is original with me, and is the only radical and certain cure yet devised.

VARICOCELE

Varicocele is a relaxation, knotting and twisting of the most vital blood vessels of the organic system. It stagnates the local circulation and interferes with the processes of waste and repair. Neglect brings derangement of functions and injury to the general health. Most physicians resort to surgical operations and hospital treatment. I cure Varicocele in one week without operation, pain or detention from business. My cures are absolutely permanent and no ill effects whatever can follow my treatment.

I also cure all special diseases of men such as Hydrocele, Nervous Debility, Blood Diseases, etc.

EXAMINATION FREE

I offer not only Free Consultation and Advice, but to every case that comes to me I will make a careful Examination and Diagnosis without charge. No ailing man should neglect this opportunity to get expert opinion about this trouble. If you cannot call, write for diagnosis chart. My offices are open all day from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m., and Sundays from 10 to 1.

How I Cure Weak Men

Every man who is weak or "going back" knows that there ought to be something that will restore that old "steam" to his physical body. He has tried the old drug method and found that a fizzle, and yet he knows there must be something.

We know it, too, and we've got it. It's electricity. You can't name anything more likely to have that force which a weak man lacks. It's a natural power. We can pump it into a weak man while he sleeps and make him feel like a Sandow in no time.

The nourishment which your stomach generates for the support of the nerves and organs is electricity, and when it does not create enough of this force it must have aid. Our Electric Belt pours a steady stream of electricity into your stomach, nerves and organs. It restores strength to every part that is weak, and when your body has all the strength it needs there can't be any pain or weakness.

Wear our Electric Belt while you sleep and feel its invigorating spark in your nerves, its warming, vitalizing glow in your blood, and after you have worn it for a few weeks you will feel the return of your youthful power.

Your Belt has cured me of a bad case of debility brought on by weakening drains. I spent hundreds of dollars on drugs and doctors but got no benefit from either. W. H. McDOWELL.

For More Than Two Years—Tries Physicians, Patent Remedies, Old Women and Quack Cures and Found No Relief.

USES CUTICURA AND IS SOON SOUND AND WELL

"I was very badly afflicted with eczema for more than two years. The parts affected were my limbs below the knees. I tried all the physicians in the town and some in the surrounding towns, and I also tried all the patent remedies that I heard of, besides all the cures advised by old women and quacks, and found no relief whatever until I commenced using the Cuticura Soap, Cuticura Ointment, and Cuticura Resolvent. In the Cuticura Remedies I found immediate relief, and was soon sound and well. C. V. Beltz, Tippecanoe, Ind., Nov. 14, '06."

DANDRUFF KILLS HAIR

Cuticura Soap Kills Dandruff

"I was troubled with dandruff on my head ever since I was twelve years old. I had beautiful hair up to that time. The dandruff destroyed my hair. I tried everything I could hear of. I had no doctor, but I went into a drug store where I was well acquainted and asked the druggist if he knew of anything that would be good for me. He said: 'Of course I do. Just get a cake of Cuticura Soap.' I got it, and it did my hair good the first time I used it. My sister-in-law couldn't keep the dandruff off the top of her baby's head, and the hair wouldn't grow. I was there, had a cake of Cuticura Soap with me. I told her about it, and gave her the Cuticura Soap, and in about three months I went there again, the child's head was covered with hair and not a sign of dandruff. My sister said it was the Cuticura Soap. The child is not past three years old and has a lovely head of hair. Mrs. E. W. Shigley, Columbus, Kan., Oct. 25, 1905."

DENTOL

To Try It Is to Adopt It

If you please, dont merely ask for a dentifrice, ask for DENTOL, the celebrated French dentifrice, prepared according to the formulae of Dr. Respaut.

Dentol (wash, paste and powder) is the only dentifrice possessing thorough antiseptic properties combined with an exquisite perfume.

Dentol prevents and heals the decay of the teeth, inflammation of gums, bad breath, sore throat, etc. It gives a beautiful white enamel to the teeth and leaves a delightful and lasting sensation of freshness in the mouth.

A few drops on cotton will at once relieve the most violent toothache.
